PROPHETIC WORD:
"YOUR MONTH OF FRUITFULNESS"

WATCHWORD:
3 JOHN 2 "BELOVED, I PRAY THAT YOU MAY PROSPER IN ALL THINGS AND BE IN HEALTH, JUST AS YOUR SOUL PROSPERS"

INTRODUCTION

We want to thank God for the month that just passed. We are grateful to God for the availability of His living word that has carried us triumphantly through all our struggles to a victorious output. Forever we will remain grateful to God who has not let us as orphans but has equipped us daily as children He sent His son to die for. For this purpose, He took our place on the cross to reconcile us back to God. We need to be aware of the fact that we are living in the last days. As such, the heavens long to see us maximize our fruitfulness; and by so doing, all confrontations at the end of the day we will be able to portray useful results before the presence of our God.

In times like this, when one is in the midst of fruitfulness, you should know that the enemy will not relent his efforts to keep you down from enjoying fruitfulness; there by forfeiting God's agenda for your life. I want to assure you there is grace and sufficient grace for you to fulfill these words and bring impacts that will be felt by men. The grace that has brought salvation to men does not work for the haughty; it works for the simple in heart and the humble minded sons and daughters of God. I want to bless God for He is faithful; for the scripture declares, faithful is He. . .

1 Thessalonians 5:24 "He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it".

It takes fruitfulness in one's life for that individual to subdue situations. As you station on the ground of faithfulness, God also will be faithful with you to make sure your results become outstanding.

This is the season, where your fruits will speak for you and not your noise. Ride on, ride on and get every jot of His word to embody your body, soul and spirit.

CHAPTER ONE

SPIRITUAL AWAKENING

Daniel 9:2-3 "In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the Lord given through the prophet Jeremiah, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolation of Jerusalem. Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes".

It takes a survey over a situation in an individual's life, a nation, a church and the family and it takes a search in God's manual for man (the Bible) to know what is lacking, what is dead or dying, what is out of place in order to bring it in place, in order to provoke an awakening to produce right results. We cannot understand what is wrong or right until we go through the books as Daniel went through the books. This was to get the mind of God concerning what He had written about their lives and their nation. When Daniel knew that things were not in their rightful order, he had to awake and get through God and not through men to get things done rightly. He didn't consult men to open a political party or to bring up a social group, but he carried the word of God back to Him to know from God what went wrong and how to handle it to produce the right results.

Child of God, this is not a matter to glance at for Daniel did not glance at a situation like this in his own days. To let you know the intensity of the situation that Daniel was confronted with, there are steps listed below:

- Daniel said he set himself to seek the face of the Lord: For you to activate spiritual awakening you must set yourself to seek the face of the Lord in order to access substance that will stand the test of time. It is not a time to turn around and be wasted but a time to wake up from slumber and God will release light to lighten your path, thereby liberating you from a victim to a victor.
- Daniel sought God in prayer and supplication: One who supplicates does not approach God's presence with justification but with brokenness and willingness for a change. Daniel's brokenness could be felt from the inside to the outside. It was not just prayer, he added fasting to it, pulled off the royal rob and covered himself with sackcloth and also with ashes.
- Daniel exalted the sovereignty of the Almighty God and brought himself low as a mortal man: With a heart of acknowledgement, Daniel knew sin could be the sole reason for their captivity, the sole reason for their pain, their isolation, and their prayers not being answered and he acknowledged that before God. In verse 5 Daniel commenced his prayer by saying "We have sinned". Looking at Daniel's determination for spiritual awakening, God did not turn down his request but the Almighty hearkened to his plea. At the end of Daniel's survey, his search and engaging God, deep truths were made known to Daniel that took him out of the ground of instability to a ground of stability. We cannot talk of spiritual awakening when truth is not our anchor and the driving force of our lives. We are crying out to God in this season for the reawakening of our first love for God which kept our spirit man comforted only on the grounds of truth and genuineness. As seen in our watchword, any prosperity that does not proceed from the prosperity of our soul as a clean relationship between God and man, it is not prosperity but fallacy.

There is a cry and a need for the sons and daughters of men to retreat and look up to God for the release of truth over matters that have been covered under the spectrum of falsehood and deception. If we could take the example of Daniel, the very God of heaven who did not fail him but appeared to him will do same for us. While Daniel was praying his approach called for God's attention and Angel Gabriel was on an errand sent to Daniel. In verse 22 of our chapter, it is clearly stated Daniel 9:22-23 "And he informed me and talked with me and said "O Daniel I have now come forth to give you skill to understand. At the beginning of your supplications, the command went out and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the matter and understand the vision".

When understanding gets through your spirit being, it breaks and looses you from the grip of depression and oppression. Your prayer in this season should be "Oh God, give me understanding of what I am going through, O God meet me as you met Daniel, let my burden be uplifted and let there be a spiritual awakening in my life". Your awakening by God and through God puts you on a good footing to meet your maker not as a judge to condemn you but as a father to glorify you. There is a need of this spiritual revival to quicken in your life what has been dying. Take a search, take a retreat, meet God as a person, as a church and as a nation and the heavens will break forth for a lasting solution in the name of Jesus.

There is a need to exit your destiny out of the Babylonian grip. Cry out to God, don't relent your efforts until God does something: Daniel did so and exit his people from the grip of Babylonian bondage and they were taken back to their nation where true worship was conducted without Babylonian interference with their ritual rites.

PRAYERS

1- Oh Lord I come before you just as I am. Search me Lord and try me.
2- Cleanse me from all ritual rites of the devil holding me bound.
3- Lord give me an understanding of spiritual things that will exit me from the world into the house of the Lord.
4- Lord I want to be where you are, dwelling in your presence.

CHAPTER TWO

CLEAN THE INNER VESSEL

Every successful and useful vessel starts its preparation for usefulness from the within before getting to the outside. For every house or building to be set up properly, there is always a call for cleaning of the surroundings and digging deep into the foundation to get a lead to the solid ground. This is done before any effective work can commence. There can't be an assurance of rest today or tomorrow if there is not an absolute sanctification by the word of God in our lives. There won't be any sustainable victory within us if there is no proper cleansing from our innermost being.

Having been born again, with the regeneration experience, there is a need for sanctification in order to guarantee rest and peace with your life and God. Something horrific has been taking place in the human race and is still going on right to this present day. That failure to clean a camp or a vessel will destroy the vessel. Jesus said for the church to know the importance of spiritual clean up, it must get rid of all works of darkness and push them away from our lives. In the days of Jesus on earth, there were some vessels in the synagogue that did not know the importance of this inner cleansing. They were busy decorating the outside while the inside was filled with hidden graves composed of dead men's bones and Jesus cited this in Mathew 23:25-26 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence. Blind Pharisees, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish that the outside of them may be clean also"

There is something we need to do first and we call that thing self examination. When you clean your inside and make it clean, the Lord says the outside will be bound to follow a command of cleanness. There is a lot of controversy and cross-breed between the things of light and darkness that have turned to give a result that put our world into total confusion. This puts to birth many of the uncalled actions that we see going on in the body of Christ on a daily basis. The Adamic nature can never be compatible with the nature of God. Both cannot live in the same container at the same time. Any effort by a human being to make both go together will cause the individual to loose his container. This is the reason why we see many vessels in the house of God getting marred and deformed every day. Jesus had to bring this teaching to the physical life of humanity in

Mathew 9:17 "Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined . . ."

Our bodies are the wineskin and the Lord is commanding us to get that body sanctified, not by our ideologies or instincts, but by the word of God as Jesus Christ prescribes in

John 17:17 "Sanctify them by your truth. Your word is truth"

For the word of God is a purifier and a sanctifier. The Bible says when the law of truth is in one's mouth, iniquity will not be found in him and he will walk in peace and not in pieces.

Malachi 2:6 "The law of truth was in his mouth, and injustice was not found on His lips. He walked with me in peace and equity, and turned many away from iniquity"

Jesus the truth is our sanctifier, our purifier, and the fuller soap to cleanse our soul. The Lord commands us to be refined and purified as silver, as sons and daughters of the Lord.

Malachi 3:2-3 "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; he will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness"

So what is God expecting us to cleanse as our lives are concerned?

- We have to clean ourselves from all filthiness, all unrighteousness, and all works of the flesh and get our hearts circumcised and our flesh crucified.
  Anything that defileth, the Bible calls it the works of the flesh. And what are these works of the flesh?
  Galatians 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are:
- Fornication: to have sex with somebody you are not married to.
- Adultery: sex between a married person and somebody who is not their husband or wife.
- Uncleanness: considered to be bad, impure, or immoral in a religious way, not to be touched.
- Idolatory: the practice of worshipping statues as gods. Too much love or admiration for somebody or something.

- Lewdness: referring to sex in a rude and offensive manner.
- Sorcery: magic that uses evil spirits.
- Hatred: a very strong feeling of dislike for somebody or something.
- Contentions: angry disagreement between people.
- Jealousies: feeling unhappy or angry because somebody you love is showing an interest in somebody else/ Feeling angry or unhappy because you are unable to have what somebody else have/ Wanting to keep something that you have because it makes you proud.
- Out burst of wrath: extreme anger
- Selfish ambitions: care only about yourself rather than other people
- Dissensions: disagreement between people or within a group.
- Heresies: a belief or an opinion that is against the principles of a particular religion. A belief or an opinion that disagrees strongly with what most people believe.
- Envy: wanting to be in the same situation that someone else is in. wanting to own what someone else owns.
- Murders: the crime of killing somebody deliberately.
- Drunkenness: drunk or often getting drunk/showing the effect of too much alcohol.
- Revelries: noisy, fun, usually involving a lot of eating and drinking.

and the like; of which I tell you before hand, just as I also told you in the past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God"

Whatever we are into that projects self and not God, is fleshly and demonic. We are to exalt God for Him to lift us up not us lifting ourselves, we are to humble ourselves to access the grace of God which will enable us to partake into all the virtues of godliness and a righteous living that gives to us a credit that will never fail in all the ages. Doing things in the name of the Lord when you know God is not involved is an attempt of sorcery. In proverbs 6 we are told of certain works of the flesh which we are supposed to clean up from

Proverbs 6:16 "These six things the Lord hates. Yes! Seven are an abomination to Him; a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devices wicked plan, feet that are swift in running to evil, a false witness who speaks lies and one who sows discord among brethren"

These are the characters and habits that give the devil advantage over our lives. In the process of sanctification, these things are to be killed through confession, prayers, and fellowship with the word of God. If we harbor these sinful habits while in the presence of God and we don't want to let them go, aspiring for the presence of the Holy Spirit and the gift of God, such a gift or provision from God may never end with us on a good footing. This is because we will divert it to serve the devil with it. But if our hearts are circumcised, we will joyfully use the gifts to the glory of God as the Apostle said; what we have is what we receive from God. For if we didn't receive, we wouldn't have had and since we got it from God, the glory must return back to Him. Paul asked a question that what have you that you did not receive.

1 Corinthians 4:7 "For who makes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?"

When we mix spirituality with carnality, we will lose ourlives as many did with their lives and lost it. Achan did so in his days where he did not circumcise his heart from all that was unclean and he craftily wanted to blend the two which ended him dying an unrighteous death. So too was Judas Iscariot, he was trying to blend the two, a leg in the world and a leg in the house of God. The nature of sin is not and can never be compatible with the nature of God. Any attempt to blend the two causes the wineskin and the wine itself to be ruined, both old and new.
So too was Ananias and Sapphira, they all became victims of God's judgement because they did not take upon themselves to cleanse the inside. Rather they adjusted the outward look to be appreciated by men. But God searches the heart. You may sugar your words, make it sweet while the heart is bitter but know that the Lord judges the heart. For the Bible says; "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh". Every anointing and gifting that will preserve a vessel is that anointing or gifting that came through the sanctification of the soul and the spirit. Walk in the spirit and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

PRAYERS

1- Oh Lord, sanctify me with the blood of the Lamb.
2- Deliver me from all the works of the flesh and its effects.
3- Lord, empower me for righteous living.
4- Thank you Lord for hearing me in Jesus name.

CHAPTER THREE

MY AXE HEAD

So long as lives keep merging, there is a need for progress. For every progress, there are tools and equipments that a living being has to posses. If those equipments are not in place or not well sharpened, it may hinder your enlargement and expansion as a child of God. You may see the resources but not be able to possess them. It takes one with his axe head in place and well sharpened to be enlarged and to expand. The axe head here figuratively stands for spiritual gifting to enable one break forth. It stands for spiritual empowerment which will enable one to permanently enjoy Divine security. This axe head is ability borrowed to us from God. Why borrowed? Because God wants that in the possession of His ability in our lives, we should remain submissive to Him. Here comes a story with a man of God by name Elisha and the sons of the prophets. There was an event that took place in the old with the prophets Elisha and the sons of the prophets and they gave a complain just like today we give complains. And that complain needs our axe head to give to us the needed answer.

2 kings 6:1-2 "And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, see now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us. Please let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell. So he answered, go"

We are told here of the situation the sons of the prophets noticed; that where they were living was not just small but too small. They were already prophets and sons of the prophets but to enlarge their coast they needed an ability which was to be borrowed. They were all in one accord with the prophet that there was need for enlargement. They knew where to go to get the material for enlargement, they had what it takes to carry the material for enlargement, but they needed an axe head to fell the beam. Maybe you've noticed that your expectation as a child of God or a servant of God is diminishing as demand increases. You need to go for the axe head. When you get the axe head, your obedience to Divine leading is your sharpening file to get your axe head well sharpened that it might not be blunt. Some are with blunt axe heads and they labour much to realize a little work done as the Bible declares in Proverbs 10:10 "If the axe is dull and one does not sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but wisdom brings success".

We need the wisdom of God to make a successful journey in our walk with God. The scripture makes us to know that the wisdom of the world is that which is devilish, but the wisdom that comes from God is above all as written in the book of James 3:15-17. This scripture tells us about the earthly wisdom and the wisdom that comes from above. The spirit of God through the Apostle James commence with a question. He says who is that wise man that endures in knowledge among you? Let him show out of his good conversation his works with the meekness of wisdom. When meekness and obedience are absent in your life, you endanger your axe head with bluntness. Something here is so practical; that a man that labor much and realizes little fruits must habour bitterness and envy over those that rise successfully. When gentleness and meekness are absent in the life of a man, it is either the sign of the absence of the axe head or a blunt axe head at work. The fourteenth verse of James 3 proceeds by saying

James 3:14-17 "But if you have bitter envy and self seeking in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. This wisdom does not descend from above but it is earthly, sensual and demonic. For where envy and self seeking exists, confusion and every evil thing are there. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy"

Maybe in your walk you have discovered that your trials and difficulties are just continuous without a break to give you an upliftment from the spirit to the physical. You migrate from one trial to another, months after months, year after year and you see your life gradually drifting away from your initial expectations and dreams in life. Child of God it is a dangerous sign which carries a message of either a missing axe head or a blunt axe head and in such a situation the attention of heaven through your humility and brokenness needs to be consulted. Maybe you began a successful walk with God, a successful ministry with God and things were working well but now there is a gradual breakdown, a cry from inside. The axe head that was to make you break forth must have dropped somewhere.

For the sons of the prophets, theirs fell into a running stream and they cried out to the one God sent into their lives to govern their lives. They did not just sit and murmured among themselves but they consulted their master Elisha. There is a call for rectification, repentance and restitution that will bring about restoration. Maybe through your walk with God, something has gone wrong somewhere, child of God, own up and come out and get restored again. Let us get the verses 5 and 6.

2 Kings 6:5-6 "But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, alas, master! For it was borrowed. So the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it there; and it made the iron float"

The truth is, in our genuineness, God's mercy will speak for us. There will be a great miracle that will follow us as we humble ourselves and cry out to God. I don't know where your own axe head must have fallen, but I pray that as you rise today to identify and correct, let that axe head locate you well sharpened in this season of fruitfulness.

PRAYERS

1- Oh Lord I come before you in humility.
2- Lord, help me recover my axe head.
3- Lord let my axe head answer for me in this season of fruitfulness.
4- Thank you Lord for hearing me in the mighty name of Jesus.

CHAPTER FOUR

UNLIMITED FRUITFULNESS

When a life or a house is set in order, the giver and the maker of all good things will get it furnished. We are talking not just about fruitfulness but unlimited fruitfulness that our lives presented before the Lord with our total obedience to Him will bring to us. This will be made possible on a ground where with our obedience will silence all disobedience as written in

2 Corinthians 10:6 "And being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled."

Everyone who is ready to punish disobedience is one who is ready to experience an unlimited fruitfulness. But when your obedience is not complete, value starts to give way out of you. As long as Adam and Eve were obedient to their father, their fruitfulness knew no limit. Paul writing to the Philippians, he told them to give diligence to all that has been committed to their hands by God and he brought the obedience of Jesus to the father and demonstrated how that obedience lifted Jesus above all principalities and powers. We are talking of fruitfulness that will go beyond material gain, which will go beyond the physical and plunge us into a realm of dominion where we will be sitting with Christ in the heavenly places. Just like the creatures are submitting to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, we, being Christ's, need to exercise such dominion of fruitfulness. For we have been called to reign with Christ Jesus.

Romans 5:17 "For if by the one man's offence death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

Reigning in life is to come in connection with everything that makes life beautiful from the spiritual to the physical. It is true that it was through disobedience that man lost his assets so man can regain it back through obedience. When we look at the picture of human existence on earth from its very inception, there is a lot of information to diligently collect. God said in Genesis 1:26A "Then God said "let Us make man in Our image according to Our likeness; let them have dominion . . . "

Looking at the above verse, there are two words we have to picture there, that is the likeness of God and having dominion. The likeness of God is a replica of fruitfulness. We can see that in Jesus' walk on earth, whatever he came on earth with when there was scarcity, His presence provoked fruitfulness in abundance. Looking at the miracle with the five loaves of bread, when it came in contact with Jesus, it became fruitful to the overflow. Looking at the boat of Peter that went through the night without a harvest, when it came in contact with Jesus it provoked unlimited fruitfulness. You were created in the likeness of fruitfulness. Fruitfulness will bury complain. At the marriage feast in Cana, complain broke out in the absence of Jesus, but in His presence, fruitfulness emerged and complain was turned to testimony.

It takes fruitfulness to gain dominion. Without your fruitfulness, you will be deprived of dominion. God wants you as a son and a daughter to be fruitful because He wants to place you permanently on the platform of dominion. In verse 28 of Genesis chapter one

Genesis 1:28 "Then God blessed them and God said to them, be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion . . . "

The blessings of God ushers one to be fruitful and its effect is to give you keys to subdue and power to be in dominion over issues of life. As we round up with this chapter, I want to remind you again that the recovery of the Israelites after their fall from the state of dominion could only be reinstated by the act of obedience.

Deuteronomy 28:1 "Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you this day, that the Lord your God will set you high above all nations of the earth"

God is committed for your enthronement on the platform of dominion. So get set and work by the laid down principles of life given to your lives as God's children.

PRAYERS

1- Lord I repent from all acts of disobedience and rebellion.
2- Lord, restore me to live a life of obedience in the name of Jesus.
3- Lord I pray for grace to keep me vigilant from the trap of the wicked.
4- Holy Spirit, take control over my life as I journey with you Lord.

CHAPTER FIVE

HAVING A CHRISTLIKE PASSION

A Christ like passion is a passion of recovery of people and persons that may not dare to understand the importance of recovery and restoration. It is a passion that one will lay down his life for others to become. As sons and daughters of God, we are called upon to have the very mind that our Master had.

Philippians 2:5 "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus"

Looking at the passion of Christ, He had a mindset of going low for others to go high. He manifested His passion in giving up His throne for the redemption of mankind. He manifested His passion for not letting anyone that was given to Him to be missing. There are loved ones, values, sheeps, lambs that God has brought under our stewardship and the passion of Christ says let none be missing. Let none perish until you present them on that day before the throne of the Almighty God with white robes. The passion of Christ is not seeking what has been found but what is lost and miserable to make it meaningful. The passion of Christ is not looking for those that are whole but those that are broke to give them Divine intervention and assistance. It is looking for the blind to make them see even at the expense of His life. It is to seek those who can't walk to make them walk, to loose the bound and to set the oppressed free at all cost. To reach the unsafe at all cost to bring them to salvation. To move into the prison of hell, liberate the prisoners and get them decorated with garments of freedom. A passion of Christ is a passion to live a legacy of righteousness in the fear of God for generations to come. The passion of Christ as he declares to us in John 5:30 "I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgement is righteous because "I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me"

Is that passion that is seeking and laboring for the welfare of others. Christ again portrays passion to us in

Luke 19:10 "For the son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost"

As a child of God, you are there to make someone stand, fulfilled in life and become a meaning in the society and in their generation. You are there to make someone meet God at the end of his journey on earth. You are there to make peace reign where there was no peace. You are there to show love to someone who has never known love. You are there to convert a house into a home. You are there to go after that one sheep that stray away from the flock until you bring it back to make a complete number. You are there to bring back that willing wounded soldier who was wounded at the battle front to see them restored again. Let the passion of our Master be part and parcel of our living too and the church of Christ will know peace and reign in peace. You are there to bring truth to the life of someone who was living in falsehood and deception. You are there to say NO! to the perpetrators of evil. You are there to see the kingdom of our God to reign on earth. You are there to make yourself and others to be consistent till the end. You are there to keep your garments clean so that other people's garments should be clean through your practical Christian living.

You are there to bring the condemned under the mercy seat of our Lord as Christ did with the woman that was caught in adultery. The passion of Christ is to see men being saved to the uttermost. There is a call to get this mission of the kingdom of God across the nations of the earth and the Lord is saying who will I send, and who will go for us? Christ with his passion came and as we are Christ's, let us move with this mandated pure word of God. Our willingness to take the challenge brings in place God's readiness to equip us for manifestation. The passion of Christ is a passion to stand in the gap to intercede in prayer to see people meet God for salvation, healing and deliverance.

PRAYERS

1- Oh Lord, embody me with the passion you had.
2- Grace me Lord to grow in your passion and to manifest it.
3- Holy Spirit of God, see me through and let this be a mark in my life that will never be erased.
4- Thank you Lord for hearing me in Jesus name.

CHAPTER SIX

ANCHOR ON CHRIST JESUS

In life, many look at different points to anchor their lives. Some develop their anchor by themselves. Others make what they have inherited their anchor. Some appreciate their intellect, their wealth, their position and make it their anchor, while others their throne, and others their empire. Looking at the above mentioned points, none of those articles came in search for you when you were lost in sin and placed under curse and torment. No human being or Angel came in search for you but the love of God through the man Christ Jesus came in search for you. That is why he alone remains the absolute anchor for humans, for their stability and their sustainability. For the Psalmist says He brought me out of the miry clay and placed my feet upon the solid rock.

Psalms 40:2 "He also brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of miry clay, and set my feet upon the rock and established my steps"

Jesus Christ is the sole anchor to the entire world, there is none before him and there shall be none after Him. If you miss Him as your anchor, you plunge your life into devastation. The scripture rightly spells it out that the love of God sent Christ to humanity but to make Him an anchor is a matter of choice. The truth must be made known to you as a person that there are no two ways; there is only a way and Jesus is that true way. He is the one that came down from heaven to take humanity out of a terrible path of sin and stationed them on a rock. And on that rock, they are been established.

When we look at our natural world, we will realize that anchors are used in water, to keep a boat or ship from been carried away by the torrent or the ocean current of the sea. Without this principle, ship owners and boat owners will incur a lot of loses with their vessels. But they introduce an anchor to preserve and keep their vessel in the position which they can always find it when they need to use it. So too, if you are not anchored to Christ Jesus, you may be out of place when the Almighty is in need of you to use you. That is why in this last days of perilous times when the ocean current of life is beating at its peak to sweep away many souls, right thinkers must focus their minds on the anchor (Christ Jesus) for their lives to be secured in order for them to escape the dangers of the end time. He is the Lord that never changes.

Hebrew 13:8 "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever"

He is the beginning and the end of all things. All other things will pass away but Jesus and His word will abide forever.

Mathew 5:18 "For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one title will by no means pass from the Law till all is fulfilled"

All other things that appear to be a source of living out of Christ, the Bible calls it grass and flower that is seen in a moment and in the next minute, it is no more. If all other things will pass away and only Jesus and the power of His word will stand for all ages, then here comes a call for everyone to license their lives in Christ. The Apostle Paul writing to the Corinthian church did not come in his capacity as a trained intellectual, or as a Jewish citizen, but he came in the capacity of Christ and he made the Corinthians to know that it will be foolishness for their wisdom to rest in the hands of men. 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 "And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring the testimony of God. For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of spirit and of power, that your faith may not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God"

Many are going astray because they use the wisdom of the world to govern their lives for their achievements. They allow their passion to be overwhelmed by the temporal things they see in the world. While Jesus was on earth in Mathew 24:1-2 the disciples drew His attention to admire the magnificent building of the Temple but Jesus told them that if this building becomes your passion, he made them to know that a day is coming when no stone will stand upon another. This word of Jesus did not exceed a century when the Roman government came in. in 1870 just about 37 years later by the order of Emperor Vespasian the Temple was destroyed by his son Titus. The temple of Jerusalem was in total devastation and its precise location is still unknown till today.

It was also on this note that Apostle John wrote in his Epistle saying love neither the world nor the things that are in the world because the world passed away with all its lust. All other things men may be using as an anchor of life out of Jesus are a fatal error. Be it their strength, their wealth, their intellect, masses of men and women behind them to support them, man made weapons of war, all these will fail and fade away. That is why the book of Proverbs declares

Proverbs 21:31 "Horses may be prepared for battle but safety is of the Lord"

Also Paul writing to his son Timothy warned him not to put his trust in uncertain riches but to wholly put his trust in the Lord,

1 Timothy 6:17 "Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain riches but in the Living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy"

No one anchors to the Lord and becomes a victim in the days of storm. Rather God uses your storm to make you outstanding in your generation. True values are delivered through the process of pain. There is a commitment from God over those that trust in Him as the Lord declares in the book of Nahum 1:7-9 "The Lord is good, a stronghold in the days of trouble; and He knows those who trust in Him. But with an overflowing flood, He will make an altar end of its place, and darkness will pursue His enemies. What do you conspire against the Lord? He will make an utter end of it. Affliction will not rise up a second time"

Just as God has declared; so it is that everyone that makes the Lord their anchor shall never be moved. But they shall abide together under the shadow of the Almighty as declared in Psalm 125:1-3. The Lord is your stronghold in the days of trouble and He is committed to cause darkness pursue your enemies and overtake them. He declares that their conspiracy shall never prosper in your life. In their attempt to raise affliction in your life a second time He (God) will abort it and guarantee your safety. The Lord will see that the wicked perish in their wickedness. So God is saying as He declares in His word Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and he shall direct your path" God's directives over your life are your safety and your advancement in all issues of life. He is your supplier, your shield and buckler, He is your beginning and your end as He declares in the book of Revelation; "I am your Alpha and your Omega", before me there was no god and after me there will be no god. Get yourself fixed and anchored in Christ for without Him you are nothing and will never be anything but in Him you will have excellence in His name.

It is a curse for you a man to anchor your life to men and what is under a spell will never end one in fulfillment of things that are good but will end you into a painful regret. In this season, look up to God, anchor to Him and the Almighty God will lighten your life with all good things and preserve you for eternity in His glorious kingdom. Once more anchor, anchor to Jesus for He alone is the Bishop of your life. Jeremiah 17:5
