PROPHETIC WORD:

""YOUR MONTH OF GRACE AND FULFILLMENT"

WATCHWORD:

PSALMS 113:3 "FROM THE RISING OF THE SUN TO ITS GOING DOWN THE LORD'S NAME IS TO BE PRAISED."

INTRODUCTION

Praise and worship be given to the Most High for who He is and for what He has done and is still doing. He has faithfully taken us from strength to strength, from glory to glory and keeping us in His ordained pathway. All that we have been through; it is only the grace of God that has been our sufficiency. We owe our Father in Heaven a big thank You. After a long walk towards a set out goal from the Lord, today we can sit down, lift up our hands and raise our voices in worship and adoration to the Lord.

The mountains may appear and the valley deep low, the rocky path and the marshy ground, all in different stages of the journey. We might have experienced isolation, rejections, blackmail; all these came your way permitted by God for your growth. All these came our way indicating the glorious future which we can now behold, celebrating the grace of God that kept us and carried us through. This is your month to sit down and count all the benefits of the Lord and raise an anthem of praise by stretching forth the hand of love to others as the Lord did to us. I want to heartily say welcome into this month of "Grace and Fulfillment". I know when the torrents were so high, you asked yourself questions: will I be able to fulfill? I thank God because you were not separated or taken out of the fold of God's flocks. This month, your expected goal and rest from God has just come.

This is the month where grace will speak for you round about. It is the month where your heavens will be open. Your homes or dwelling place will be surrounded by His Holy presence with Angelic beings. You will find yourself fulfilled, not wanting. Your dreams and your prophecies that were in abstract will be visible this month, reachable, feelable and touchable. In other words, this is your month of actualization of what you have been believing God for. You will be crossing over to the next year as a testifier. Once more, I want to salute God for keeping you in the race sound and safe despite the storms. The pains you have gone through, I want to let you know in the days of pain, you were not alone. God was with you with the intension of taking you to a mature level where you could rightly access the inheritance of your Father. Forever we will be grateful for His grace. Grace has come, so arise and shine. Let intimidation and fear be rid off. Once more, congratulations, the heavens are opened for you, fulfilling Divine desires and your expectation will not be cut off. Hence this will lead you to fulfill your works, boosting your faith for a greater future thereby making your joy complete. God bless you.

CHAPTER 1

A NEW DAWN

Psalms 30:5b "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning."

A life journey embarked by the Finger of God starts small and most often is embodied with a gradual progressive pain. God at times uses uncomfortable situations to enable you reach your comfort zone. Every life crisis you undergo in your effort to maintain a right living and a just mind before men and God will incure pain. The pain you may go through in doing what is right will at the end birth the breaking of a new dawn. This will draw our attention to what the Psalmist said, your night has caused you to weep, heartbroken and you have thought of things which you could do with your life both negatives and the positives; you have thought of abandoning everything and render your life useless, you have thought of picking up courage and pressing through. These multiple thoughts or ideas ran through your mind because of the circumstances that surrounded you. But I want to thank God that in all these you did not die and you did not fail and the dawn of your day will bring a manifestation that will take you beyond your wildest dreams. Child of God let not courage lose its grip of you for courage remains a vital tool to every great achiever in life. No matter the giants or the mountains, courageous men will always find a way through and settle in greatness at the dawn.

The new dawn is a complete transformation of your person, which will provoke tears of joy when you dare reflect to what the pains of yesterday caused you. A new dawn in this season of Grace will wipe away every tear and get you decorated with surpassing glory. I want to share with you an incident that took place with a man who was helplessly carried to a crusade ground by sympathizers because of a decaying problem he was going through. Looking at that man's situation, he had just few hours to live on earth. Looking at the massive crusade ground this man was the most helpless among the crowd but the Heavens turned his night to a brand new day. This man came with sores all over his body, unable to do anything by himself. When the preacher at the crusade ground saw the man, he went down prostrate and cried out for God's mercy for the healing and deliverance of the man. All who came there sick, when they looked at this man's sickness, it was like the grip of their own sickness left them. At the end, the dark moments of this man were converted to a brand new day as the Almighty turned away his captivity and he was healed instantly. The bedridden man got his miracle, woke up and started walking and talking as if nothing was ever wrong with him. That was his expectation from God and God granted it. Before ever coming to that crusade ground, he had spent all he had with herbalist and other ritualist that came to him in the name of helping him but to no avail. After his healing and deliverance, the preacher was led to bless this man with the sum of close to two thousand US Dollars to enable him start life. The crowd was moved and overwhelmed by the move of God and they came out and lavished this man with money. What he experienced there was a complete new dawn that began from his soul; stretched out to his mind and granted him total restoration; such a great fulfillment that he could not imagine. It was indeed a new dawn, the wife and other sympathizers that came with him saw a new dawn and they could actually feel tears of joy flowing down their cheeks.

As it was with this man at the crusade ground, the Lord will do much more to you and for you. A new dawn is giving you a complete turnaround in life. The brightness of your new dawn will have no meeting point or resemblance with your past life of horrors. Get yourself in place and believe God's Word and realize the possibilities of His Word upon your life. The faithfulness of God has never and will never fail. What has situations put you through and you felt like it was all over to cross over to your expected dream? Remember, the God of the night is still the God of the day; the God of the rainy days is still the God of the sunny days. God will turn your night to day, if you can ONLY BELIEVE. This is the key to actualize God's given provision and to be transformed from a decaying situation to a renewed and perfect person. Anchor to God through faith and the grace of God will answer for you.

The Lord may be asking you right now in your spirit man; do you believe that I can do this? Answer with a big YES LORD, I BELIEVE! The man in our story became the figure of that crusade and the news of that day. I don't know the horrors you have been into, the breaking of a new dawn by the Lord upon your life will make you an icon of admiration before men of your time and even generations to come. When God remembered Sarah, her night was turned to day. All the dark clouds, stagnation and delay you must have encountered, the Grace of God will respond with a speed for transformation. The day

Sarah discovered she was pregnant at the age of 90 years; naturally speaking it was like a dream. It was like could this be a child in her womb? But at the set time, she put to birth a bouncing baby boy. The joy of the child got rid of all the insults and sorrow she had throughout her life journey as a barren woman.

I may not know the nightmare that has stood your way for all these years. It maybe a nagging wife, a drunk husband and non - resident father or unrolling children who appear ever backward and never showing any sense of a better future. Is it carrier harassment, financial indebtedness, terminal disease, educational backwardness, consistent rejection and persecution, these may appear in different grounds to different persons but I want to let you know that Jesus is Lord over all. Just know your day has break, the days of your mourning is over, only believe for there is a promise. Child of God, no matter the circumstances you have been into, this one thing you must have in mind; with the Lord whom you are serving, there is and will be the breaking of a new dawn over your life. Go for it and wait for it then you will celebrate and be celebrated. The Bible says with the sound wisdom of God's Word embodied in you, the hope and expectation of that word written concerning you will be fulfilled.

Proverbs 24:14 "So shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; if you have found it, there is a prospect, and your hope will not be cut off."

The wisdom of God's Word declares; be faithful till the end and patiently wait for God's appointed time. The things you see happening to other sons and daughters of God both in the old and now have not ceased. You are the next in line to celebrate His goodness and faithfulness. It is obvious that as a mortal man there are certain weaknesses that you will encounter. When you see people of your time getting to a certain level before you, the temptation of envy or jealousy may ring into your mind. As a child of God, envy or jealousy is not part of your living and has its effects with people of the same rank. You should overcome this by prayers, and by appreciating the work of God in other people's lives. Secondly, you should also understand that for every journey, some people must lead for others to follow but the set time for any individual by God is so peculiar for that individual. While waiting for your turn, you can subdue and overcome jealousy there by lightening your path to go faster, knowing that God who has promised will surely fulfill His promises. Get to a ground where you could offer heartfelt prayers to God that will quicken the energy within you and will tap to the supernatural as the scripture says in

Proverbs 23:18 "For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off"(KJV)

The Lord has declared that the expectations of the righteous shall not be cut off and so shall it be. In all your endeavours, the Lord is there to empower you for your expectation to be realized and your dreams to be fulfilled. The value that once disconnected from you, the breaking of the day will reconnect you back as the Bible declares in Psalms 126:4-5 "Bring back our captivity, O Lord, as the streams in the South. Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy."

By faith, see your restoration; see the fulfillment of your God's given grace. Let the enemy know and feel by your action of faith that you are confident and determined to celebrate grace that has been given to you. It is like Joseph being in prison and the eyes of his faith see him being the king. He was born to be king and the day came when he fulfilled his dreams. Congratulations, as the Hand of God do it for you in the name of Jesus. Amen!

PRAYERS

1- Oh Lord I thank you for my season of a new dawn.

2- Lord, help me to actualize and maximize my new dawn in the name of Jesus.

3- Lord I pray and break off the yoke of negative complex that makes me feel disqualified.

4- Thank You Father for the answer in Jesus Name.

CHAPTER 2

RAISING A HEALTHY HOME

Men may build houses and raise mansions but the making of a home (healthy home) can only be made possible by following Divine principles as commanded in God's Word. God being the originator of the home, it is therefore difficult for a home to be healthy without Him being the central pillar of it. It is true that no matter how healthy a home may be, as long as you are under the sun, hitches will be unavoidable. But with the presence of God and the command from His word being obeyed, every hitch or trouble will be overcome. When the home goes through these hitches with God, instead of a breakdown, it will give the home skills and experience for the days ahead.

The strength to overcome is from the Lord and when every trying moment is over, those that survive it gain grounds of maturity. It is the will of God that the family on earth should live in love, peace and tranquility. The knowledge of God's presence in any family or home is just more than enough to subdue and overcome any kind of problem the enemy may step in with for the solution of every problem is made possible in God through Christ Jesus. So we can sum up this that the wisdom of God is an unavoidable tool in raising a healthy home.

Proverbs 24:3-4 "Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established; by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches."

While wisdom builds and raises healthy homes, foolishness tears down the home and destroys its value. Homes cannot be built with people who have conducted their minds to use other people for their good not minding the well being of others. I want to picture out the relationship of a suckling mother with her baby. The tenderness of the child makes it so vulnerable to every odd but the suckling mother stands by her baby making sure all goes well with the child. She does not mind the weaknesses of the child; but she breaks down for the rising of her baby. So every home that must arise must also have this policy; that is, the strong breaking down for the weak so that the weak may become strong. The weak also is called upon to cooperate with the strong in order for the weak to rise and become strong. One of the things that will raise up a healthy home is for the head of every family or home to know what I term Divine ranking or God's ranking in a home. The family head or the leading figure of an earthly home should bear in mind that he is not a boss but a leader. A boss conducts people by giving command and not by showing examples but a leader leads by showing living examples for those looking up to him. While a boss has a mind to rear people to meet up with his self ego, a leader grooms and raises men to be capable of showing forth a living value in the days ahead.

Understanding God's ranking, we should know Jesus is the head of the church leading and seeking the well being of the church. The husband or father is the head of the home leading and seeking the well being of the family. While the mother (wife) is a subject not a slave but a help mate to enable the head succeed in God's agenda for the family. All the parties that make a home, father, mother, and children have to set their arrows in seeking the well being and safety of one another. If Divine prescriptions are followed, the presence of God in our midst will be our stabilizing force in the days of storm to cast out every endeavour of the wicked. Jesus gave us a set up of a Biblical home and the prescribed procedure to be followed

Ephesians 5:22-25 "Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is head of the wife, as also Christ is head of the church; and He is the Saviour of the body. Therefore, just as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it."

The above scripture is telling us God's ranking and the responsibility that God has placed for each party to carry. If we carry the responsibility given to us by God, our homes will be healthy. We should stop using one another for our selfish pleasure at the expense of our wellbeing. If both parties breakdown for one another, they will excel. The Bible says husbands should love and wives should submit, giving themselves to one another. This will enable both parties to attain to God's expected nature which gives birth to glory that does not fade. Healthy families will not be realized on the basis of wealth, education or any physical activities that ties between the husband and the wife. What should take lead for a healthy family is that love that proceeds from the heart, not the passion that comes after the lust of the flesh be it on the ground of kisses, sex, eating, drinking.

Lust only generates a desire that cannot bring fulfillment but love brings a desire that brings fulfillment and preserves the future. Sexuality cannot keep a home healthy, neither money nor education or other social platforms. The love that comes from God that moves an individual to lay down his life for the well being of others is the love that puts to birth true passion that can span till eternity. Lust creates a journey that leads to sin while love creates a journey that leads to purity and preservation for a glorious future. All a suckling mother needs from her child is to see the well being of the child tomorrow. She endures pain and perseverance for the well being of the child not because she needs anything in exchange or for the child to compensate her. No matter the shortcoming the child may portray, she always endures hoping for the betterment of her child.

In raising a healthy home, the teaching of self denial is unavoidable because it brings in the planting of the Lord. Its fruit is everlasting and once the strength of the Lord is made available for such individuals, they must have a union that will bring total celebration. When the internal unit or the inner circle of a home is healthy, the other extended relations that are connected to the inner circle will plunge into health when they see the effect of their fruitfulness. Most of the things that have crumbled many families and homes are the plague of a wrong mindset. This has to do with men trying to govern their lives with the selfish wisdom of the world. I want to picture some of the wrong mindsets that men have in the name of marriage. It is true people go through things to better their lives but God's purpose is the strength for one to better his life.

WHAT ARE SOME OF THESE WRONG MINDSETS THAT SOME MEN CARRY?

- There are men that ask women's hand in marriage to use the potential of the woman to enthrone themselves

- There are men who look at women as servants and slaves and not as companions.

- There are men that look at women as commodities not as vessels with same passion.

- There are men that look at women just as sex machines.

- There are men that look at women as a reproduction centre for children.

- There are men that look at women as financial producers to their lives.

- There are men that look at women as oxen to plough their fallow grounds.

- There are men that look at women as the sole contributor to their lives and they don't see themselves contributing to the woman's life.

- There are men that thought their background gives them right to humiliate their partners, be it education, racial, social and economic wise.

- There are men who get into marriage to better themselves and their extended family for the desire of material gain.

If any man comes into a relationship with a woman on the platform of marriage with the above mentioned points, that is a terrible mindset. Along their journey in marriage if the woman does not respond to the above mentioned points, war begins. Also, there are women that give into marriage because they know by so doing they may be able to actualize some of the wrong ideas they have kept within them.

AND WHAT ARE SOME OF THESE WRONG MINDSETS THAT SOME WOMEN CARRY?

- Some women have the wrong mindset of living in a house like a dummy (inability to activate her in born potentials).
- There are women who get into marriage for child bearing purpose.
- There are women who get into marriage to better themselves and their extended family for material gain.
- There are women who look at their husbands as a hunter and they are just the recipient to eat.
- There are women who indirectly place high demands or needs on their husband, for giving their husband sex.
- There are women who have the mindset to make a public disgrace of their husbands because of their high level of education.
- There are women, once married, they remain dormant and expect everything from their husbands.
- There are women who have a wrong mindset that the offering of their body to the spouse is all life demands from her as the home is concerned.

With all these, a healthy home cannot be realized. They appear from their inception as if they can bring satisfaction but they don't. Rather if any of the above is met in the home, it will only create a bigger and mightier vacuum of one in desperation. Any sacrifice you may offer, if it can't put to birth purity, love, and peace, that is self sustaining on God's Word, the home will live and remain in chaos. There are some steps you need to understand in raising a healthy home.

STEPS TO RAISING A HEALTHY HOME

- Go to God as you are and ask His mind and will for the home.
- Access the required truth for home building from God's Word.
- Understand the truth of God's Word in raising a home and apply it into your life.
- Go through your required assignment faithfully.
- Live to protect one another and seek the progress of one another.
- Unite in the spirit of purity and unity in God's presence.
- Possess a character of patience, endurance, ever hoping for the better for one another.
- Make your voice one in addressing issues and training up children.
- Reason out your goal, develop strategies to realize it.
- Look into one another's value deep and work on it and overlook the weaknesses of your spouse.
- Have a high regard for integrity and go for it.
- Be honest to one another and be true and flexible with one another.
- Make your promises practical.

- Don't be quick to react to any word offered, rather reason it out and get the necessary response that will bring healing.
- Eject the syndrome of compromise and station on the truth and the truth alone.
- Study the Word of God and give in to prayers.
- Cultivate a proper coordination to interact with outsiders or visitors.
- Respect the privacy of one another in purity.
- Learn to appreciate the effort of one another before ever pointing out their shortcomings.
- Aspire and desire the greatness of your offspring and build them up in the knowledge and fear of God.
- Lead by setting good examples for others to follow and also become good (be given to discipline).

With the above mentioned points, if we diligently apply them in our lives, the God of all Grace will see us through until we actualize our dream of a healthy home. A home was made as a place of rest and not a place of war. But when the wrong tools are used in the home, it will become a place of war and not of rest. The behavior or action of home dwellers can be known when the home is at rest or at war. When men and women avoid getting home in time, it is a sign that the home is no more a place of rest but a place of war. So too with the children and even visitors for human being by nature do not take pleasure in pain.

I do pray that the good Lord will step into homes that have been broken down mentally, physically, spiritually and let there be healing balm. Jesus who healed the marriage in Cana is the same today. Just bring in His attention and His healing will be made available and that will put to birth a healthy home for us to celebrate good health. God bless you as you do.

PRAYERS

1- Lord, help me to be a master builder in the name of Jesus.

2- Lord, deliver my home from the syndrome of crack down in the name of Jesus.

3- Lord, heal my home and make it a healthy one.

4- Lord, equip me with a living knowledge for a daily walk that will guarantee health in the home.

5- Thank You Lord for seeing me through in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

WHAT SUSPENDS PROPHECY

The inception of human being came as a product of prophecy. The council of Heaven sat and took a decision in creating man as declared in God's word in Genesis 1:26 "Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; . . . "

The prophecy of human creation went forth before man was ever created by God. We can sum it up by saying man and all created things of course are by-products of prophecy. The prophecy that came before man's creation defines man's dominion over other created things that live on the planet earth. Prophecy therefore is God's spoken Word upon men's life for the future. There could also be a prophecy that will explain the past, present and future. So prophecy is God's mandated Word sent forth for action.

Many have wondered several times why the words spoken by women and men of God over their lives are not being actualized. The wishes of men upon your life are not prophecies though they may use the name of the Lord. A man may decide to speak well into your life as God's servant not because God has commanded him to do so. But every prophecy or spoken Words from God are utterances that cannot be altered. It may delay due to some reasons but it can't be annulled by evidence. We have looked into scriptures and we have seen prophecies delayed that came from God. When we look at the date and seasons for the prescribed prophecies, we will realized that they were delayed. Let us look at God's prophecy spoken over Israel when they were in Egypt through Moses the founding father of Israel in Genesis 15:13-14 "Then He said to Abram: know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them 400years. And also the nation whom they serve I will judge; afterwards they shall come out with great possessions."

The prophecy of God to Abram concerning his descendants was to last for 400years. When we look into the actualization of that prophecy, God brought them out not at 400years net but they came out much later than prescribed. So somehow their prophecy was delayed or suspended as seen in the book of Exodus 12:40 "Now the sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years."

There are factors that may be responsible for one's prophecy to be in suspense. The fact that the prophecy is in suspense is not a mark that God didn't speak but every prophecy of God moves in line with conditions for their fulfillment. Prophecies that are given from God by His servants can only go to its manifestation if the prescribed order or conditions attached to it are strictly followed. If they are not, they will remain in suspense or delay only to happen later like the prophecy of the Israelites in Egypt. It took four hundred and thirty years instead of the four hundred years God had promised. Many of us have been pondering why our spoken words have not materialized and we will be looking at some biblical prophecies that were not fulfilled in their proper season or that were even annulled.

Another figure that was also under a very prophetic mandate, an offspring of Abraham by name Jacob also had a prophetic mandate that came from God while he was still in the womb. We will be looking at the words spoken over Jacob before he was ever brought forth into the world. In Genesis 25:22-23 "But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "if all is well, why am I this way?" So she went to inquire of the Lord. And the Lord said to her: "two nations are in your womb, two peoples shall be separated from your body; one people shall be stronger than the other and the older shall serve the younger."

Rebecca their mother during their delivery, Esau was the first born and Jacob was the second and by prophetic authority Esau was to serve Jacob. But as we read down the scriptures we realized that some mechanics took place when the sons of Isaac were born. We got the report when Esau sold his birthright to Jacob, we also got a report where Jacob disguised and got the blessings of Esau. But after Jacob had the pronounced blessings from his father, the first time in craftiness and the second time genuinely or openly, we realize that instead of Jacob to be served as prophetically declared, he instead went into servitude to serve other people. We can denote from this that Jacob's prophecy was in suspense or delay or overturned. In fact Jacob went into servitude for twenty one years and if we have to take stock, we will realize that Jacob's prophecy was somehow suspended. This is because after serving Laban for twenty one years, he met again with his brother. In terms of fulfillment to material wealth, Esau who was to be the beggar was more prominent in the aspect of physical blessings than Jacob.

In terms of number, we could count all the people that were with Jacob but we could not number the ones that were with Esau because the Bible gives a record that just the footmen that were with him were four hundred footmen

Genesis 33:1 "Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants."

And Jacob made a statement to Esau acknowledging the fact that he was a servant. We can see that testimony in Genesis 33:5b "Who are these with you? And he said, "The children whom God has graciously given your SERVANT. "

God's spoken word upon Jacob's life was for Esau to serve Jacob and after twenty one years of servitude, Jacob now served the one who was meant to serve him. In terms of influence and affluence, Esau was better off than Jacob. The question now is what made the prophecy to have an opposite expectation when God has sworn to us in Psalms 89:28 that His covenant Word over His children will stand. The cause of delayed or suspended prophecy is what we will be looking at now because God's Word is God Himself. The cause of every delayed prophecy is man and his waywardness before his Creator. There are five main factors that can be responsible for prophecy delayed:

1- LACK OF TRUE INFORMATION AND A TIMELY WALK WITH THE LORD.

2- LAZINESS TO RISE AND GO THROUGH THE EXPECTED DEMAND.

3- CRAFTINESS.

4- DELIBERATE DISOBEDIENCE OR COMPROMISING GOD'S GIVEN STANDARD.

5- LACK OF FAITH.

Hosea 4:6 says my people perish for lack of knowledge. This has to do with true information. When proper information is not downloaded into the vessel carrying prophecy, it will be suspended.

Laziness is another factor that has caused those that were supposed to stand upright to become beggars on the street. The Bible tells us that if a man can't work, he should stay hungry. The Bible says much food is in the tillage of the poor and because they fail to till, they are always in want. Proverbs 13:23 The Bible says in all labour there is profit, proverbs 14:23. In proverbs 12:24, the Bible says the hand of the diligent will rule but the lazy man will be put to forced labour. The soul of a lazy man's desires has nothing but the soul of the diligent shall be made rich. When you are lazy your value will diminish and you may not be able to actualize your prophecy. So you must arise to make the prophecy realized.

Craftiness is another strong plague that suspends prophecy. There are many people that got true words from God to beautify their lives. They went out of God's order, being carried with a crafty spirit and at the end, they caused their prophecy to be suspended. One of the main thing that caused Jacob not to actualize prophecy as expected was the spirit of falsehood that lured him and his mother into deception. He craftily disguised and told lies that he was Esau when he was not. He got the word but he could not manifest it. This kept Jacob and his prophecy twenty one years in suspense. The very question his father asked him twenty one years ago that who are you and he said I am Esau when he is Jacob in Genesis 27:19, that very question was asked him twenty one years later in Peniel when he wrestled with an Angel. The Angel asked the same question "what is your name?" this time Jacob spoke the truth,

Genesis 32:27 "So He said to him, what is your name? And he said, Jacob."

The question he wrongly answered twenty one years ago kept him in suspense because of craftiness but the day he addressed it rightly, he got a change of name and status. It was from this encounter that Jacob was able to realize prophecy after doing the right thing. So for every given prophecy, you must follow the right path for God to actualize it. Any crookedness will only cause your prophecy to be suspended.

The fourth key is deliberate disobedience and compromise. When God met Saul the son of Kish whom Samuel anointed as the first king of Israel, instructions were given to Saul on what to do and what not to do and Saul because of his position deliberately disobeyed the instruction through his servant Samuel. So today, you should be careful to obey the instructions given to you by God's servant for any disobedience will not go unpunished. When Saul disobeyed God, the prophet Samuel told him that if he had obeyed, God would have established his kingdom in Israel forever. In

1 Samuel 13:13 "And Samuel said to Saul, you have done foolishly, you have not kept the commandment of the Lord your God which He commanded you. For now, the Lord would have established your kingdom over Israel forever."

We all know how the later end of Saul was. He deliberately disobeyed God the first and second time and instead of him experiencing a permanent rulership in Israel he was rejected and David took over the dynasty of Israel till today. Deliberate disobedience and compromise to God's word will crack your life.

The last factor is lack of faith; the inability to believe and act on God's Word can suspend or even end your prophecy. The Bible tells us in Hebrews 11:6 that without faith, it is impossible to please God. Faith remains a ground where God meets with His people for action. So for every given prophecy to decorate and form your person, you need faith to be alive within you. Faith is believing God for who He is and what He has spoken not regarding the circumstances that surrounds you. You should know that the possibility of all things is in God for with Him nothing shall be impossible. Luke 1:37. We should also take the account of Jesus talking to us in Mark 9:23 "If you can believe, all things are possible to anyone that believes" it is your believing that will activate your prophecy.

This will draw us to Elisha the prophet in Israel in the time of famine in 2 Kings 7:1-2 "Then Elisha said, hear the Word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord: tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria. So an officer on whose hand the king laid answered the man of God and said, look, 'if the Lord will make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" And he said, "in fact you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

Now, the officer of the king who did not have faith in the proclaimed Word of God, instead of celebrating with the ones that had faith, he was judged and condemned. It came to pass that the next day God used four lepers to overcome the famine that ravished Samaria. The officer indeed got the news, saw the evidence of it but he never partook in the blessings that God rained in Samaria that day. That same day, for lack of faith, the officer died.

2 Kings 7:16-17 "Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrian. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel according to the Word of the Lord. Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him."

Lack of faith will cause our prophecy to be suspended. For every spoken Word over your life, you need faith to activate it for your becoming is your believing. King Jehoshaphat told the people in his days in 2 Chronicles 20:20b ". . . believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophet, and you shall prosper." It takes your faith to activate your prophecy. You are commanded to believe God's servant in order to activate the prophetic word spoken over your life as we are also told in the book of Hosea 12:13 "By a prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved."

If these five keys mentioned are strictly followed, then what was suspended will be uplifted. All those whose prophecies were suspended, God gave them a second chance to rectify. But if you will not rectify, you will die without realizing it and God will still be God. Arise in faith, obedience and put all the necessary requirements in order and fulfill your prophecy.

PRAYERS

1- Father, I repent from all the disorder I have caused to my prophecy.

2- Oh Lord, heal me and restore me in the name of Jesus.

3- Father, empower me with true information and faith with a living life to actualize and manifest my prophecy in the name of Jesus.

4- Thank You Lord for the answer in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 4

PERFECTING YOUR FAITH IN LOVE

Faith is a substance that grows with time and knowledge embodied with commitments and consecration. The perfecting of your faith is what will keep on taking you higher to subdue mountains and overcome hills and valleys and every contra power that may arise to hinder your physical and spiritual accomplishment. The substance of faith is an unavoidable substance in the Christian walk with God and with things that pertain to the kingdom of God. Without faith, grace that brings salvation cannot be connected to us. In other words, we cannot be saved if we do not have faith in the Saviour sent into our lives. Faith therefore becomes a solid ground to connect us to Divinity and all its provisions. Faith brings the believer in union with his Maker. There are a lot of things that will not go on well in a believer's life if faith is absent. Therefore if faith becomes our pillar stone of realizing our God's given identity, it must be perfected with love given the fact that God is love. This becomes God's nature. Perfecting your faith in love is an action that will bring the reality of your walk with God.

Galatians 5:6 "For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but faith working through love."

Your strength in Christ will not only be the virtue or the act of faith standing by itself but the act of faith must be with love. Your faith in God that goes through love must be able to bring forth a Christ-like character in your life. When we look into faith through love, the evidence and fruits of love must be seen in the life of a believer that professes to be having faith in God. If your faith in God does not attach to the virtue of love, that faith will be unprofitable to you. In Romans 13:10 the Bible identifies and show us the virtues that should follow anyone that has faith in Christ.

Romans 13:10 "Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law."

Many people access and have faith that could even remove the mountains and bury it into a deep sea. If your faith is void of love, you may only use it not for edification or drawing others closer to God. It may not even picture the love of God but it will only render harm to your neighbor. When your faith is embodied in love, it will step into a broken hearted brother or sister and get him or her built up in God's own purpose. So perfecting your faith in love will guarantee your walk and a good end with God.

During Jesus Christ's walk on earth, as recorded in the book of Luke 9:51, He entered Samaria, the scripture recorded that the Samaritans did not receive Him. Two of His disciples, James and John were not happy with such actions. They posed a request to Jesus whether they could command fire to come down from Heaven and consume the Samaritans as Elijah did on Mount Carmel. It was a faith action but it was void of love. When we look at Jesus' reply in Luke 9:55, He rebuked them saying they do not know what manner of spirit they are of for the son of man did not come to condemn but to redeem. When your faith is not perfected in love, you may abuse the purpose of God in the lives of men. That is to say, love does no harm to its neighbor but ever hoping for the better. As you grow in faith, grow also in love towards God and towards one another. For the Bible tells us in the book of 1 Corinthians that faith without love makes one unprofitable.

1 Corinthians 13:1-4 "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of Angels, but have not love I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up;"

There are certain characters that when manifested, one can discern that such characters are not totally given into love; that is, the God's kind of love. Your faith will cause things to happen physically but your love towards God and men will preserve you for eternity. As quoted above, if these characters are missing in our lives, it means we are not adding virtue into our faith. When one lacks true love, he sees himself better, more qualified, and the only one approved by God. Sir, you cannot be the only one approved by God for He proved a major prophet like Elijah wrong in his days. Elijah thought he was the only one in his days standing right with God. Anyone with such judgment is a wrong judgment and it is void of the virtue of love. When the Lord confronted Elijah with a word in 1 Kings 19:10-14 he was so bold to tell God that all true prophets were killed and that he was the only survivor. He asked God to take away his life. That was not the right approach. If we look at the reply of God in 1 Kings 19:18, He told Elijah that they were seven thousand men who were loyal to Him in that very land.

When your faith grows with love, it will enable you to appreciate God for others. As your faith grows with love, you will be able to bear one another's burden joyfully; you will be able to give heed to the sound doctrines of the Word without twisting scriptures. You will also be able to fight a good fight of faith till the end until the Master crowns you with a good trophy as the Bible states that "The just shall live by faith". A man of faith and love appreciates every member of the body of Christ. He/she acknowledges that their wholeness is due to the contribution of different vessels in the house of God for their becoming.

When your faith lacks love, you see only yourself better and every other member of the body of Christ as good for nothing. We as God's children are the members of the body of Christ and even the least member is as important as the biggest one because both contribute to the smooth running of the entire body. Today in the body of Christ, there is little or no appreciation for the work of God in one another's life. Men are busy building their self empire and they are proclaiming faith in God. Such is fake and not genuine for whoever is born of God will appreciate Him for every vessel He sends into their lives; not minding their background be it social, educational, financial, they will always thank God for their lives. Paul writing to the Corinthians asked them to be able to appreciate God for every member of the body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:12-26 "For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body – whether Jews or Greek, whether slaves or free – and have all been made to drink into one Spirit. . . ."

When our faith is perfected in love, there will be no discrimination be it tribal indifference, educational, financial indifference; but there will be the unity in the spirit that will exist in the church of God. But when our faith is void of love, the members will be divided and not able to function again as a body. Today if the eye says I am not of the body as Paul rightly said, is the eye not of the body? If the ear says I am not a member of the body, is the ear not a member of the body? We have neglected little members of the body because of lack of knowledge and that has brought a mal-functioning in the body of Christ. God is bringing us to the point of repentance concerning the members of the body. The nails we trim has a vital role to protect the finger and the hair we cut off also has a vital role in the body. So every member has a part in the body of Christ (the church).

Our measure of faith should be able to match make our level of love so that we should be able to manifest the true nature of God in our walk with Him. If you are a child of God, if you are strong, don't despise the weak; rather, stand by the weak to make them strong in the faith. If you are socially well placed in the society as a child of God, don't minimize or under grade those who are not socially placed as you but yoke with them to lift up their complex so that they may know that we were all born as children of one God heading towards one spirit, and one baptism over us. There is such peace of God that will dwell among us if we yield our lives to the instructions of God in this respect for the book of

2 Peter 1:5-8 "But also, for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, to knowledge self control, to self control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, to godliness brotherly kindness and to brotherly kindness love. For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

I do pray that the expectation of the Lord for His church will be made manifest through us as we keep away envy, malice that we may unite in the Spirit as one man. Breaking apart for any reason or selfish interest will never respond to our good. The eye becomes useless if it does not attach to the body. Your breaking off from the body of Christ will automatically make you useless but if you abide with Him, he will make your functioning fruitful. You need other members of the body of Christ to be fruitful; not uniting in sin but in holiness. For as long as we are united in love, our fruitfulness will abound in all areas of our living. But if we do not, the devil will set a war within us, set himself aside and make a mockery of us. Let us arise and grow in the knowledge of God by so doing frustrating the works of darkness. Once more arise in love and learn to esteem others than yourself. God bless you.

PRAYERS

1- Lord, help me to yield my life to you as an instrument of faith and love.

2- Lord, empower me with knowledge that will cause my fruitfulness to abound.

3- Lord, disconnect me from all the unfruitful works of darkness and unite me with my brethrens.

4- Lord, teach me to appreciate and love your working power in the lives of others in the name of Jesus.

5- Lord, receive the Glory in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 5

UNDERSTANDING THE PROCESS TO BECOME A VICTOR

Many Christians feel disappointed in their walk with God because of a mindset they carry. There is a way they program their minds to go and see things and when it doesn't go as expected, they are discouraged. I want to let you know that each time God meets a man, He places such an individual on a journey and that journey has particular prescriptions to order the steps of the one called by God. One thing you need to know is that you were called by God to win so in every confrontation you need to possess the mindset of a winner avoiding any circumstance to give you an order. Subdue every situation to walk in the rule of your calling in the Lord. The process of victors is also birth on the platform of faith. So the Bible tells us in the book of 2 Corinthians 5:7 that we walk by faith and not by sight. Situations should not give command to your faith but your faith should give command to situations. Let every situation know by your confession that you are mindful of God's given identity or power and let no other power challenge you.

The disciples of Jesus were called and given power to rule, to subdue, and to lead. Somehow in their journey, they were confronted by a challenge but the faith they had could not see them through that situation. They asked the Lord to increase their faith and what you ask in faith from the Lord as James 1:6 says, you will receive. If you ask in doubt, you won't receive. For a sound walk with God, we need knowledge from the Word of God. There are situations that meet us in the journey of life and we call them problems but they are not. They are just God's process to lead us to our destination. The fact that you are called and saved by God, you pray and fast and do all that is expected of you is not a mark that you will not have challenges. Those challenges are God's own pattern to bring you into maturity.

What are the processes you have to understand? You cannot be fully used by God if the ungodly characters you were born with are still dominant in your life. God will put you in a process to deal with those characters. If you escape the process of God and serve God in a cunning and crafty way, you will not end up as a victor. If you go through your process, you will become a victor. God uses process to transform somebody; He uses process to humble you so that you can totally depend on Him and not on your natural efforts. For one cannot claim obedience, you only learn obedience through the things you suffer. The process of God will always go with pain and that pain comes to deal with anything that could make you proud, and share or take the glory of God. There are some things you are going through that you have literally done everything to overcome the things that victimize you are those things that God will use to humble you in order to circumcise out of you the adamic nature (nature of sin) which does not bring glory to God.

Every true value is achieved through God's process. Every inherited value without process will not last. It will quickly be lost. If you look on all the Biblical legends that made it through with God's agenda and a living life, they went through tough situations, and tough times. The truth is that at times when we read their story without putting ourselves in their position, we will not understand the volume of pain they went through in their formation. Let us take the first man Abraham, he had all other physical things but he was held bound in the area of child bearing. I believe a man in a hundred years before having his first issue was not an easy thing. We can see that he staggered even with his wife as a man of faith to go to bed with his house maid. That is a sign that it takes pain to go through Divine process. What you are too strong for can't control you and what you are too strong to handle cannot be called pain. The pain God permits you to go through is not to destroy but to form you in His image. That is why the Apostle James writing in his general Epistle had this to say

James 1:1-4 "JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad: my brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials. Knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing."

God's process upon our lives will come in the form of trials but it is this process that makes our lives complete in Christ. Without you going through the process, you can't be made complete. Apostle James says count it all joy for the process will bring joy. Paul writing to Timothy had this to say

2 Timothy 2:19b-21 "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honour and some for dishonor. Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the later, he will be a vessel for honour, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work."

Looking at the above scripture, the situation here is not whether you are a vessel of wood, silver, gold or clay. The truth is if the vessel of wood, or the vessel of gold or the vessel of clay, go through the process of God, they will be used by the Master. The cleansing of every vessel will only depend on your cooperation with the Holy Spirit. If you are a vessel of silver or gold not purged you will not be used for honourable works but the vessel of wood that is purged will be used for honourable works. If you are a vessel that is undergoing the process of God, child of God access Grace to go through and don't escape the process. If you escape, you may turn from the faith and start to do things that are funny. Receiving Divine impartation without Divine processing is catastrophe. Therefore go through the process.

Abraham ended with God because he learnt the ways of God through the things he suffered. We can see his humility by the way he handled the messengers that were sent to him from God. There was no arrogance, no pride and at the end of the day he was crowned a father of faith. Jacob also being the grandson of Abraham went through process. Though it was very tough, he went through and ended on a very good foot on earth because in his last days he was able to bless his offspring in the name of the Lord. We can all see what he went through as we read the scripture. So was his eleventh son Joseph who went through the process and he was able to survive the storms of life that met him in his father's house, Potiphar's house and in prison. At the end he was given the throne. Because of the process that he went through, the throne and his position in Egypt did not influence him to walk out of the will of God. Genuine processing will end you on a good note. You may be going through one now, go through it and learn what God wants you to learn in life.

Moses went through the process. To spend 40years in the land of the Midianites was not 40 days. In all he never took the glory of God in the life of the people he was leading and at the end he became the meekest person in that generation and in the whole world. Numbers 12:3 Samuel also went through process in the house of Eli the priest and he also ended on a good note. In his last days in Israel he was able to stand among the people and ask them to give a weakness against him. In the whole of Israel, nobody could stand to testify against him. Going through your process will help you, so go through it. Let us cite some biblical legends who never went through process; they never ended on a good note with God.

Saul the first king of Israel was born from a rich and influential background. There was no struggle for him to ascend the throne and at the end he could not manage the throne. He ended up dying a shameful death in the hands of his enemies at Gilboa. Solomon is another person who went to the throne without pain and the wisdom God gave him plunged him into a very shameful and sorrowful end. This is also true for Samson, an ordained Nazarene from the womb, he went up without process. He also faltered and failed. We can see this in our generation today. Most sons and daughters of God who made it without process fail. My readers, if you want to be an overcomer, learn these things and you will not be a victim but a victor and all the crowns achieved, nobody will take it away from you. Stay blessed and be a victor.

PRAYERS

1- Father, thank you for enlightening me.

2- Father do not take me to the throne without me going through my process.

3- Father, empower me to faithfully go through the process you have set for me that I may be formed in your image.

4- Thank you Lord for granting my request in Jesus name,

CHAPTER 6

LIVING FOR THE LORD AS YOUR CROWN KING

There are many in Christendom that have come to the Lord and they have remained at the level of conviction but have not yet been converted. People under conviction walk in and out of sin and it sounds very normal to them. If the converted happens to be victimized with any act of sin, he will feel broke and sorry for failing God and himself but the convicted will look at it to be normal. So to live a life where Jesus becomes your crown king, you must not end at the level of conviction. It is true that conviction leads to conversion but what will place Christ at the center of your life is conversion. There are visible fruits that must follow the converted. When one is converted, he feels deep sorrow for the sin he has committed, he develops hatred for sin and is bold to denounce and confess those sins publicly.

Conversion goes with three things which I will like to mention here: the word conversion or repentance comes from three Greek words. The first one is "Metanoeo" meaning the change of mind. Mark 1:5 and Mathew 3:2. The second Greek word is "Metanolomia" which means the change of heart, Mathew 21: 29-32 and Hebrew 7:21 and the third is "Metanoia" meaning the change of course of life. Mathew 3:8-9 and Acts 20:21.

The above mentioned steps must take place in the life of the converted. If these three steps have not taken place in your life, know that you are still on the platform of conviction and not conversion. It takes the converted to manifest their heartfelt love for the one they are living to serve. Each time one meets Christ, his mind, heart, and the course of life changes. What he could not do when he had not met Christ, he will start doing them; and the wrong things he was doing before he met Jesus, he will stop doing them. We are told in the Bible that when Jesus entered Simon the leper's house in Bethany, a woman who was not only convicted but converted came to meet Jesus. There was nothing too important for her that she could keep away from Jesus. This woman broke her Alabaster box of perfume whose cost is estimated at a man's salary for a whole year. Her passion for Jesus was so much so that she could produce tears that could run down as rivers of water to wash the Master's feet. We all know how much women cherish their hair, but the hair of this woman meant nothing to her. She had to use it as a towel to wipe the master's feet. All we could see in her was a sign that there was nothing that Christ would demand from her that she will keep back. Not even her life.

The Bible says when this woman manifested her love, onlookers that were just convicted to serve God for physical things criticized her worship. The Lord said they should hold their peace for she was doing what the Lord took pleasure in. This woman was no other than Mary the sister of Lazarus and Martha. No doubt, their home was among the homes that could harvest the miracle of resurrection. When you make Jesus your crown King and worship him as expected, you should expect an outpour of God's favour. Mark 14:3-9. For Christ being your crown King, you will walk like Paul and the other Apostles did. They were always at the demand of the Lord at any course. The church of God will experience the wonders of God if she will not only profess the Lord Jesus with her mouth but with living love. She will be able to take heed to God's instructions, just as the Lord commanded Moses the degree of love we need to give Him as our crown king. In the book of Deuteronomy 11:13-14 "And it shall be that if you diligently obey my commandments which I command you today, to love the Lord your God and serve Him with all your hearts and with all your soul, then I will give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil."

God's mission for the church is to see the church crown Jesus His only begotten son as her only King. There were questions that Jesus asked Peter after resurrection. This is because though he was following Jesus before resurrection, his commitment did not indicate that he has made Him his all. The Bible tells us that when Jesus died, all the disciples backslided with Peter being their head. After resurrection, the Lord Jesus appeared to Peter in John 21 and asked him pertinent questions. We may wonder why Christ had to confront Peter. This is because he was the head of the disciples. It is often said that the leader's fault is the leading fault. If the head is corrected, the entire body will be corrected and made whole. In John 21:15-18 Christ asked Peter the question whether he loved Him repeatedly. Each time Peter answered, Christ reminded him of his commitment to the kingdom which was to cost him his life. When Peter met Christ after resurrection, Christ gave him instructions about the Holy Spirit. He did not hesitate but completely obeyed the instructions. This is why they had to wait in the upper room for the promise of the Father as recorded in Acts 2.

Your stability in the Lord is a sign that you have made Him your crown King. When you see somebody who walks in and out of the faith and does not identify with the saints in times of trouble, such a person has not yet made Jesus his/her crown King. In fact all the Apostles and those that join the apostolic school later showed that they did not live their lives but Christ lived in them as Paul testified to the Galatians in

Galatians 2:20 "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me."

The Apostle Paul made this clear to us that his life was all about Jesus and as believers, our lives should be about Jesus. That is the peak we have to attain in order to celebrate our God's given life. He also indicated in the book of Philippians 1:21 "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

They were ready at all time to do the will of God at all cost. That is why we see the measure at which God worked with them. Their readiness to serve God manifested in a way that not even their lives or any of their possessions could be held back when God was in demand of them. If we look down at the lives of all the Apostles, they were positioned to see the mission committed into their hands by God's kingdom was fulfilled.

That is why the book of Revelation records that the New Jerusalem carried the labels of their names.

Revelations 21:14 "Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb."

We can record many visible Angelic visitation, and outbreak of God's wonders through the Apostles. These things did not just happen on baseless commitments but their commitments were sure and settled. May our generation render to God such a commitment that will bring down the glory and power of God in His House. There is a hymn that a song writer wrote that matters most to me as I go through the legends of faith and I cry out from my heart that "Oh Lord fill me with this kind of passion as I go through in this race." JEBM Hymn 30

1) When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died.
My richest gain I count but lost
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2) Forbid it Lord that I should boast.
Save in the death of Christ my God,
All the vain things that charm me most
I sacrifice them to His blood.

3) See from His head, His hand, His feet
Sorrow and love flow mingle down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4) Where the whole realm of nature mine.
That was an offering far too small
Love so amazing so divine.
Demand my soul, my life, my all.

PRAYERS
