BAFOUSSAM

Praise the Lord! I thank God for His healing hand over the life of my junior brother. He had an attack that always manifested like epilepsy and my mother had taken him to different places for solution to no avail. She finally resorted to taking him to a herbalist and when I got the news, I went to where they were in Buea. I ministered the “Manna Feast” to him and he started confessing that his friend had given him biscuits which is what was used to initiate him. After that prayers, till today he has not had the seizure again. I want to return all the glory to God!

Sister Emilien:

Glory to God! I thank God for His unending love towards me and my family. I travelled to Dschang and met my sister who complained to me that she could hear nothing. I ministered the “Manna Feast” to her and she started hearing. I blessed her with a copy of the “Manna Feast” and since then it has been testimonies upon testimonies. Thank you Jesus!

Sister Clara:

Praise the Lord! I thank God for His divine presence in my life and my home. I travelled to the village and realized that rats were eating the mattresses that were in the house. So I took some old copies of the “Manna Feast”, tore the pages of the hand in chapter 7 and placed them under some of the mattresses. This time, the rats ate the ones that did not have the pages of the hand but the ones that I had placed the pages under were not touched. I thank God for the supernatural. Hallelujah!

Sister Rita:

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! I thank God for His hand of preservation over my life and colleagues. We travelled one time for mission and on our way back the driver of our vehicle could not see anything. I took the “Manna Feast”, placed it on his eyes and prayed for him. after prayers, he could see and the Lord took us back safely to Bafoussam. To God be the glory!

Sister Juliette:

JAKIRI

Praise the Lord! I was staying with a child who was very stubborn and destructive. I discovered that the things he was doing were abnormal, so I decided to place the “Manna Feast” under his pillow. He is now a changed person and people who knew him before can now testify about him. There is nobody the Lord cannot change. Thank you Lord!

Sister Mirabel:

Glory to God! I thank God for divine intervention. I went on evangelism to the hospital and I met a woman who was in a critical state. I called my leader to come and attend to her but she told me to pray for her which I did. After prayers, she started talking to the glory of God. thank you Lord!

INTRODUCTION

Praise the Lord! Glory and honour be to the Most High for bringing us into the season of unparalleled growth. The dynamic of growth has a principle that must be followed in order to trigger it. The guarantee to a vital growth is tagged to everyone who has duly undergone its process and of course if the process matches with its endorsed principles, then growth will become an inevitable event. Unparalleled growth has to do with diverse kinds of growth; that is, growth that has no match, in other words, growth that cannot be compared with; meeting sons and daughters in their participation. As we go down through the chapters, we will be unveiling the truth to make this message a reality in your life as a person or as a people for God has kept systems to bring out their worth in their seasons.

The mystery of growth does not look like it when it is about to emanate. Three keys will trigger growth; the seed, the ground and the season. As we move into this dimension of unparalleled growth, have a mastery of the principle in place; walk in its provision and you will bring forth what is expected as provided by the Lord for you in this season. Welcome into your season of Unparalleled Growth; God bless you!

CHAPTER 1

SURVEY OF APPRECIATION

John 11:21 “Now Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.”

There are many mighty endowed vessels with contents to serve or attend to humanity and even divinity on divine assignments. But what has made most of the endowed vessels not to find expression as expected is because there is no survey to appreciate the content they carry from God to their generation. Martha had a look or a survey of appreciation as the Lord Jesus was concerned. Because she was able to appreciate Jesus in His worth as Jesus, she was also able to draw out from Jesus' system what she needed most. It is often said that what you can't appreciate, you can't attract. There are many endowed vessels with God's given content which the assignment cannot find expression in the lives of those they were sent to minister to because the devil has brought in manipulation for men never to recognize who they are in their rightful God's given content.

From the story of Lazarus and his family, this family held the Lord Jesus in very high esteem. They knew who Jesus was; they appreciated and paid allegiance to Him in all aspects. Remember that they sent a message to Jesus before now that the one He loved was sick; but the Lord never came at the time that they thought and finally their brother died and was buried. Even in their depression for losing their brother, they did not fail to acknowledge who the Lord was. Many at times we want to appreciate when we feel convenient or when we feel like but such attitude is wrong. We are not to appreciate when we feel like but we are to appreciate at all times because that is what it takes to draw the water out of the well of life. Mary and Martha felt bad that the Lord Jesus did not come in the stipulated days when their brother was still alive. But when the Lord finally came when their brother was buried, Martha said; Lord,(appreciation) if you were here my brother would not have died. I know and I believe that you have what it takes to heal and deliver my brother. That was the survey they had about our Lord Jesus. In response, Jesus said because of this appreciation and acknowledgment, you will attract from Me what it takes to raise even the dead. And that is why He told Martha “Your brother shall rise again” John 11:23. Your attitude of appreciation has just drawn value out of Me. Martha thought it was going to be in the future but the Lord said not only in the future; right now you will witness resurrection power for He said “I am the Resurrection and the Life.”

John 11:25 “Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.”

As we all know, because of the appreciation this family had for the Lord, the word of the Lord sent forth into their situation did not fail. It got fulfillment and brought celebration to the mourning family. Many at times, due to ignorance, true vessels that God has sent into different generations have always been looked down, snubbed and rejected; while the wrong ones are embraced and applauded. The right vessels are always persecuted because they preach the truth that the world that lie in darkness hate to hear. If there will be survey of appreciation to every true God sent, they will be able to turn this generation up-side-down for the Lord but the world seem not to receive or believe their reports because the world loves darkness rather than light.

For the power of God to be revealed and made manifest in our midst, we must believe the reports sent forth by God through God's sent instruments. In Isaiah 53:1, the scripture begins with a question; who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of God been revealed?

Isaiah 53:1 “Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

If we look at the following verse, it tells us He shall grow up before him as a tender plant. The question everyone will ask is how will the arm of the Lord be revealed through a tender plant? This is talking about the person of Jesus. Most vessels God have ordained and sent forth; by appearance, they may not look like it; but in spirit they are. By appearance, Jesus did not look like it; but He was the Messiah. By appearance David did not look like it but he was the one to save Israel from the hands of Goliath and the army of the Philistines. By appearance Nehemiah did not look like it but he was the ordained person to build back the broken walls of Jerusalem. By appearance the apostles did not look like it but they were the apostles of the Lord whose names are labeled on the foundation of heaven.

It takes a discerning eye from the Lord for you to be able to know the caliber of men and women God has ordained and sent on your highway. If you fail to appreciate them and their content, you may never attract what they carry even though the world may be in dying need of it. Jesus did not look like it; that is why the Jews could not believe in Him. He told them that even if they will not believe in Him, they should believe in Him for the sake of the work He did, still they did not believe in Him. Because they did not appreciate what was sent to them, the Gentiles took over all what they were supposed to know and today the Gentiles are the ones giving the revelation of their Messiah. So failure to appreciate or believe whom God has sent to you may lead to the downfall of your rising.

Jesus made it clear to us in the gospel that many of us are missing it because of this attitude. In Luke 4:26-27 He refers us to two events that took place in the Old Testament; one was with Elijah and the widow of Zarephath and the second was with Elisha and Naaman the Syrian. Let us look at Jesus' report in Luke 4:26-27 “But to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath, in the region of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.”

When you look at the above scriptures mentioned by the Lord, these prophets and vessels were in the land but the inhabitants of the Land never appreciated who they were. Though they were endowed and sent by God, they appeared unprofitable to the people. Most of our desperation in life has come from this error of despising the vessels and instruments that God have equipped and sent to serve us. Many died of famine in Israel because of their inability to appreciate what God gave them and many died in Israel as lepers because of their inability to appreciate what God sent to them. When you fail to admit the role of God's servant sent into your life, you will end up being a victim as Saul became a victim because he failed to admit the role of God's servant; Samuel, sent into his life. There are victories we have secured and there are levels of growth we have attained just because at one time we submitted to the principles given to us by God. The things you will not appreciate may never raise you and the people you will not appreciate, no matter how close you are to them, they will never raise you.

Aaron actually rose by the hands of Moses but when he failed to appreciate Moses he fell. Joshua also was raised by the hands of Moses, so too was Caleb. They got their rising by appreciating who these vessels were. Ruth rose by the hands of Naomi and she got it by appreciating who Naomi was. The servant of God sent into your life will only make meaning to your life as you appreciate them in the dimension that God expects you to do.

Jesus was brought up in Nazareth as we all know but the people of Nazareth lived and died in their problems though the Messiah was in their midst. Throughout Jesus' stay in Nazareth, the inhabitants of Nazareth looked down on Him. We will see this account in Matthew 13:54-58 “When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? Is this not the carpenter’s son: Is not His mother called Mary? And His brothers James, Joses, Simon, and Judas? And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things? So they were offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, A Prophet is not without honour except in his own country and in his own house. Now He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.”

Looking at the above scriptures, God was in Nazareth but He did not do many things in the lives of the people because the people failed to acknowledge Him. The act of appreciation will bring great deliverance and growth in the lives of His people for God will never change His pattern because of the ignorance of His people. When you despise what God has honoured or has to be honoured, you will only end up being a victim of situations. As we rise these days to do that which God has ordained to be done, we will experience a mighty turnaround. There will be a mighty flow from the fountain God has set before us and we will experience great things. The Lord orders your steps to get rid of every vice that has given the enemy an advantage over you over the years as your life is concerned. From this day, start to possess an attitude that will release the best for you.

The little slave girl in the house of Naaman who acknowledged who Prophet Elisha was, her expectations of Naaman's recovery did not fail 2 Kings 5:3. Let us rise and walk out of this cloud that has given a hold upon our destinies and let us move on to victory in the name of Jesus.

PRAYERS

- 2- Lord search me and destroy every stronghold of ingratitude in me.
- 3- Lord equip me with a heart of gratitude.
- 4- Lord make me of a humble mind.
- 5- Thank you Lord for the answers in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

KEEP WATCH

One of the topmost reasons for spiritual and physical bankruptcy is the inability of people to keep watch or having a better management of what they have labored for or what they have attained or obtained in life. The greatest assets to guarantee that your value remain intact is to access a platform wherewith your mind can be in good health. The inability for one's mind not to be in good health will open doors for a lot of damages and loses. Of course, wisdom is very important for everyone who must keep watch; taking guard within yourself and out of yourself. That is why most often God will not just give us what we have asked but He will lead us through a process to have that thing so that at the end of the day we will be able to sum up to know what it took for us to obtain that value. Looking at keeping watch from within your being, it has to do with you having rule over your spirit; in other words having a mastery over your spirit. When you have a mastery over your spirit, then you will be able to discern between good and evil, vital issues and things that are not vital. You will also know what to focus on and what not to focus on; because what you pay attention to will play a vital role in your life. If you spend time with the wise you will be wise and if you spend time with the foolish, you will be foolish.

When you have a rule over your spirit, you will always count the cost before you give in to anything. But most often, living a life without God, we will always find ourselves in regret because we will often act before we reason. What makes people to act before they reason is because they don't have a rule or a mastery over their temperaments or instincts. If you don't have a rule over your spirit, your labour of many years can be wasted in a minute. That is why to keep watch, discipline is very vital.

Proverbs 25:28 “Whoever has no rule over his own spirit is like a city broken down, without walls.”

The above scripture makes it very clear that you must keep watch to have a mastery over your spirit, your instincts, your temperaments. As one who must see good days you must watch over your appetite; appetite for food, appetite for your emotions and appetite for the things of the world. You must grow to that maturity wherewith you can shut it up or open it up without being compelled by any internal or external pressure. The apostle Paul has this to tell us about keeping watch of himself so that his labour does not end up being wasted.

1 Corinthians 9:25-27 “And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown. Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.”

There are things even in our present days that for lack of discipline, men utter words and even take actions that are self-defeating for them. They open up to everything that knocks at the entrance of their lives. The apostle Paul writing to the Corinthians made them to know that he was a man of vision and a missionary. He was in pursuit of a trophy and a reward. He wanted to be applauded, praised, lifted and crowned at the end of his race on earth and for that reason he said everyman that strives for the prize is temperate in all things. He said if you must win in your race, you must know what is self-discipline. Self-discipline is not somebody imposing the discipline on you but you imposing the discipline on yourself to preserve your upkeep and wellbeing. Self-discipline is a guard to help you preserve what you labored for over the years and you must be alert and fashion your mind not to be a go area for any infiltration of evil, things that are immoral and illegal and unethical. You must give in to that discipline to shut them down because one silly act of error can destroy your lifetime efforts. You can do this by staying alert and be at watch. Paul told the Corinthians that he disciplines himself and subjects his body under control because failure to do that, having enlightened many people, he will be disqualified. If we work so hard and we don't watch over the life that works hard to preserve its value, we may as well lose everything. Walk away from whatever thing that will bring you a discredit before God, no matter how appealing the devil may present that thing to you; run away from it.

There are great figures in life that began so well but they failed to watch over what God gave them and over what they labored for. At the end of the day, their carelessness destroyed everything. In the book of Judges, we are told of a man who was a Judge in Israel in the person of Samson. The prophecy of Samson and his entrance into the world was so outstanding. Samson began doing very well. As we all know, his birth was announced by an angel of who he was meant to be and how mighty he was going to be; but remember there was a discipline that no razor was to touch the locks of his head. The people he was to keep away from, he went and looked for a wife among them. His carelessness ended him losing his two eyes and he became an object of ridicule before his enemies. What caused Samson to end up a victim was indiscipline. He failed to discern between the lines; he began gradually and ended up being swallowed by the error he opened his life to. Let no man ever tell you discipline is not good; discipline will help preserve your values and preserve your life. As a child of God be a man and a woman of discipline. Weigh every word and its content before you can give a yes to it.

Proverbs 14:15 “The simple believes every word, But the prudent considers well his steps.”

Another version says the gullible believes everything they are told but the prudent sift and weighs every word. That is why Paul had to applaud the Berea Christians for being more noble than those in Thessalonica because they were able to search whether what they heard was worth their lives. There are things we give into that are not worth us; watch over your values. One of the worst things to happen to us as children of God is to be ignorant of our values as those that have been redeemed by the Lord. We should guard and watch over them like those who have been redeemed by the Lord.

There are things we must walk out from and one of the things the enemy has used over the years is this attitude of uncontrollable anger. You can be angry in a moment and destroy everything either by word or by action. The Lord says if you are in that circle of anger, you are like a city without walls, in other words you are like a city void of covering, void of defense.

We must learn to be courteous, being groomed by the Holy Ghost to produce the fruit of the spirit which will be able to keep us above all odds of life. Many at times for lack of knowledge, we tend to laugh or smile over things that are gradually killing us; those are things we should frown at. In Proverbs 7, the word of God tells us how a young man was carried into the error of immorality and ended up being reduced to a piece of bread.

Proverbs 7:7&25-26 “And saw among the simple, I perceived among the youths, a young man devoid of understanding. Verse 25: Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways, do not stray into her paths. For she has cast down many wounded, And all who were slain by her were strong men.”

You need to watch the company you keep; for if you don't watch your company, they may either mar you or make you. Keep company with those that align to your purpose of living and cannot separate you from God. Don't give into any business that will risk your walk with God. Maintain your integrity and sanctity as a son and as a daughter of God and watch against wolves that come to you in sheep clothing. This is because when you give in to them they will reduce you to a piece of bread.

Proverbs 6:26 “For by means of a harlot a man is reduced to a crust of bread; And an adulteress will prey upon his precious life.”

Paul writing to Timothy told him to take heed and pay attention to the things that were committed to his trust. We must also take heed to the doctrines that have been passed unto us for the doctrines of scriptures are our yardstick for living.

1 Timothy 4:16 “Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.”

One of the things we must also guard is the doctrine that has been passed to us because a lot has been done by the enemy to pollute and adulterate the word of God. If we allow the word of God passed unto us to be polluted and adulterated, we will end up being victims of the enemy. As we age in the Lord, our salvation becomes closer than when we believed. So we must stand guard.

Romans 13:11 “And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.”

Having taken guard of our doctrines and salvation, we must be careful of satanic atmospheres that will influence men to take decisions that will hurt them days ahead. David came under the influence of the enemy that prompted him to count the children of Israel and this landed them under God's judgement. Any atmosphere that comes over you and makes you to despise people is not of God for God's agenda for humans is to reconcile the world back to Him. Christ never despised anyone that came to Him so we should not be ignorant of the devices of the enemy we should keep watch. Don't be rude, don't be arrogant, be gentle, be humble. keep watch!

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord grace me to guard my values.
- 2- Oh Lord empower me with a life to attract your attention.
- 3- Lord help me to watch at the gates of my life against evil perpetrators.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

TAKE IT TO THE WORLD

The greatest mission of the church (the body of Christ) is taking the gospel of the kingdom to the world. Evangelization and soul winning is the topmost assignment of the redeemed of Christ on earth. One of the aspects to prove that the church is living and is on a mission of the kingdom is the ability of the church to draw men to God through the preaching of the gospel. The church should never lose her energy of reaching out. Our inability to win souls is an indication that either we are dead already or we are dying; because, the coming of the Holy Ghost upon the church was to enable her take the gospel to the end of the world. If we claim we are filled with the Holy Ghost and there is no hunger in us for soul winning, then it is not the Holy Ghost we have received, it should be another thing. Everyone that is born of God and have had an encounter with the Holy Spirit in their lives is the ability to preach the gospel or to witness Christ to the dying world for that is what Jesus said in

John 15:26 “But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me.”

One of the primordial roles of the Holy Ghost in our lives is to enable us witness Christ to the world. Without His presence in us, our evangelization will not have impact. So we receive the Holy Ghost to be effective witnesses of Jesus to the world. The gospel will go with speed with the presence of the Holy Spirit because He is the one that convicts and converts men to Christ. The gospel of the kingdom will be preached by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Matthew 24:14 “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.”

We were called and saved so that we should take the light of the gospel to our world. With the light of the gospel, we will be able to give light to our dying world. When we are asking for the baptism of the Holy Spirit, the essential role of the baptism is to make us better witnesses to our world. We better witness Christ to our world by the power of the Holy Spirit just as the scripture says when He comes, He will testify about Jesus. In Acts 1, Jesus places a lot of emphasis on the coming of the Holy Ghost in

Acts 1:8 “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

We are told again in the book of Acts that when He comes, He will witness Jesus. One of the signs of the ability of the Spirit of God in us is the quest to preach. So every believer is an evangelist. To preach is not for particular people but for everyone who have believed. In the Upper Room, all those that received the Holy Spirit were licensed to witness Christ to their environments and to the uttermost parts of the earth. A servant of God rightly said if you cannot win the world, then you are not saved. We should not be ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation for everyone who believes. We must arise and reach out to the world with the gospel at all cost. It is my prayer and desire to see men and women rising in their numbers and turning the world upside down with the gospel of the kingdom. We must arise and reach out to the world. The apostle Paul writing to the Corinthians said necessity is laid upon him and that necessity was to preach the gospel and he said woe unto him if he does not preach the gospel. As a son and a daughter of God, you are that watchman to tell the world of salvation and the pending judgement to everyone who will not believe the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:16 “For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if I do not preach the gospel!”

There is a necessity as earlier said for every child of God to rise and witness Christ to the world and scripture tells us that every man that wins souls is wise Proverbs 11:30. Being a watchman over that environment that you have been called and preserved, you have the responsibility to preach Christ to that environment and beyond. Failure to warn them of the pending judgement, their blood will be required of our hands for we are watchmen Ezekiel 33:6. Our world will only know peace and serenity as the church rises to her responsibility in reaching out with the gospel. Warning our world of the pending judgement of God and declaring the salvation that is gotten through Jesus Christ. The gospel of the kingdom is not just a gospel of entertainment but the gospel of power. It has the power to save, to heal and power to deliver and power to keep and preserve. When the apostles went out and were witnessing, scriptures record that by the hand of the apostles, many signs and wonders were wrought. So anywhere the gospel of the kingdom is being preached, power is bound to be made manifest.

1 Corinthians 4:20 “For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power.”

1 Corinthians 2:4-5 “And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.”

The apostles went out and preached with signs and wonders following them. The gospel of the kingdom is with power.

Acts 5:12 “And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. And they were all with one accord in Solomon’s Porch.”

Mark 16:20 “And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.”

The word of the king is powered by the authority of the king. So God’s word sent forth is the word of power. There is no one who will embark on evangelism and will not be a carrier of good news; both to his audience and to his own life. In Luke 10, the bible says the seventy went out and they came back rejoicing. There is such joy that soul winning brings to the lives of those that carry good tidings and even to the lives of those who receive the good tidings. So get your life beautified by being a soul winner today.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord equip me with all it takes to advance the kingdom.
- 2- Oh Lord endow me with the ability in the Holy Ghost to win souls.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 4

DON'T FILL MY WELL

Genesis 26:15 “Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father’s servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth.”

As many that have been called by the Lord, they should be able to maintain their status and communion of flow of their spirit with the Lord. There are many plots from the pit of hell to make sure that the source of your life and strength get closed up with dung and debris. But someone must rise intentionally, well determined and declare enemy you won't close my well! you won't fill my well! with the decaying things of the world which cannot be compared to my eternal values.

Don't fill my well is:

- Avoiding anything that will stand between you and God.
- Avoiding anything that will stop your growth as a child of God.
- Stopping anything that will abort the vision that God has given to you.
- To avoid anything that will delay you from accomplishing your mission within the given time.

- Avoiding anything that will cause your growth to be stunted and you must rise to make sure your well keeps flowing out.

A well gives water for men to drink; a well does not receive water from men. Most of our contents as God's children have been corrupt because for some reasons because of ignorance we feel we can receive word from people in order to build a well-structured system for God. Your well is the bosom of the Word of God and the residence of the Spirit of God within you. You must keep it fresh so that it can always give fresh water to your life and to your world. The indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit within us causes our inner bowels to be refreshed and carry out the issues of life with freshness and strength. One thing you must understand is that the enemy is not pleased to see that your content as a child of God is fresh, holy and acceptable before God.

There is a persistence you must put in in order to keep your well open and fresh. As earlier said out of it you will draw freshness and strength. Don't fill my well is a typology of having possession a living life for God far from adulteration and corruption. Your consistency in maintaining a fire brand life for God will cause the enemy to submit. The enemy will always take advantage of our shortcomings to make sure our wells get filled but don't give Him such opening. We could hear this echo from Isaac telling the Philistines don't fill my well because if you fill my well you cut short my life. If you fill my well, you cut short my vision; you abort my purpose of living and making me not to end well with my God. For no reason should you allow the enemy to fill your well. In any aspect the devil has filled your well, reopen it back to freshness. Maybe your well is filled up in the area of your first love for God; reopen it. Maybe your well is filled up in the area of your faith and commitments to God reopen it. Maybe your well is filled up in the area of your study and prayer life, reopen it maybe in the area of fellowshiping with the brethren and reaching out to the world with the gospel; reopen it. Maybe your well is filled up in the area of sacrifice and advancing God's kingdom, reopen it. Maybe it is in the area of compromise and not living your life in the standard of God, reopen it and get to that place where God takes honour over your life and is glorified with your life. Don't allow the enemy to fill up your well. Contend for the faith that was once delivered to the saints and maintain the ancient landmark that was passed onto you by our fathers.

Isaac reopened the well that his father Abraham dug and open new wells. We must be committed to keep what has been passed unto us alive; even as Paul was instructing his son in the Lord Timothy, that he should hold on to what was committed into his hands

1 Timothy 6:20 “O Timothy! Guard what was committed to your trust, avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge –”

So the ability to maintain and grow in the pathway of honour and life in God is for us to hold on to what was passed unto us.

Genesis 26:18-22 “And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them. So Isaac’s servants dug in the valley, and found a well of running water there. But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac’s herdsmen saying, the water is ours. So he called the name of the well Esek, because they quarreled with him. Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name Sitnah. And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name Rehoboth, because he said for now the Lord has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.”

Looking at the above scriptures, the bible says Isaac reopened the wells that were dug by his father. The enemy was not happy with the wells that he dug but he persisted. He opened the first one and there was contention with the enemy; he never gave up. He opened the second one and there was still contention with the enemy but he never gave up. Then, when he opened the third one, the enemy gave up. In your journey in fulfilling your destiny, there will be contention; there will be resistances, but as Isaac got resilient, we must not give up but must be resilient until the enemy submits. Once the enemy submits, our coasts will be enlarged; like Isaac said, the Lord has made room for us and we shall be fruitful in the land. If the enemy succeeds to close our wells, we will be barren, unfruitful and powerless. But if our wells remain open, maintaining a flow between us, the Lord and the Holy Spirit, as Jesus says out of our belly shall flow rivers of living water, let the rivers never stop flowing. Don't allow anything or anybody to fill or to tamper with your well John 4:10 and John 7:37-38.

Stay resilient and maintain the freshness of your bowels by keeping intimacy with the Holy Spirit. As long as that intimacy with the Lord is there, the enemy can never fill your well but the freshness from that communion with God will grant you rest on every side and also an enlargement of your bowels.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord give me the fortitude to stay vigilant and committed.

CHAPTER 5

HOT OR COLD

Luke 12:35 “Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning.”

In our journey of faith, we cannot play a double role of hot and cold because if we play the role of hot and cold the Lord says we will be unstable James 1:7-8. A man that plays the role of hot and cold is a person calling upon the Lord or claiming to serve God but with a double mind. If God is not your ultimate but is just one of your options, you are neither hot nor cold. When you are neither hot nor cold, the heavens will not identify with you as a citizen of the kingdom. We have been called by God to lay our hands on the plough and not to look behind. When we get our faith adulterated thinking we are intelligent, we are making a fool of ourselves. It is either we give it all to God or He leaves it all in our hands for He is a jealous God and He shares His glory with nobody.

Our walk with God can be that cumbersome when we don't come to God and serve Him with singleness of hearts. God expects us to absolutely depend on Him and for His counsel to rule over our desires or will. The express power of God has been rare in our days because of the state of our minds with our walk with God. God needs our totality and with our totality in Him, it will be difficult for us to ever become victims of the plight of the wicked. The Lord wants us to be instant in season and out of season. If you look at plants and other creatures, they don't change their contents because of climate change. They still remain those plants in their content as they were created. The Lord wants us to maintain that picture of His person that we are from the spiritual to the physical. There are scriptures that the Lord has given to us to make us understand His commitment over our lives and also the way we are expected as children of God to be committed. If we are able to cleanse ourselves and live holy for God, then we will live under the atmosphere of glory and power. If there had been any problems God has had with His children from the days of Old till today, it is men and women serving the Lord with divided minds. One time they are praising the Lord and another time they are praising the devil; one time they are in the spirit another time they are in the flesh. This inconsistency of our walk with God, brings us to what Jesus addresses in one of the churches in Asia Minor in Revelation 3:15-16 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot, I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."

The Lord was addressing the church in Asia Minor and He told them because they were neither hot nor cold but lukewarm, His judgement was that He was going to vomit them out of His mouth. Absolute surrendering and commitment in God will end us a rapid growth in our walk with God. The aspect of us coming to God with a divided heart is a weapon the devil has used over the years to delay the plans of God for our lives. When He says you shall not have any other god beside Me, He is saying that He owns you and will not want to share you with anybody. Anyone that must end well with God must be able to seek God diligently in his walk with God. One of the things that command our diligent walk with God is our love for Him. What is that thing that the devil is using to share your commitment with God? The devil will not be afraid of you because you are lukewarm, the devil is afraid of you because you are hot and steadfast in the Lord. The only provision to enjoy God's presence is when we seek Him with all our hearts.

Isaiah 55:6 "Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near."

The journey of seeking and calling on God is what is expected of us. If you don't seek God, you already place your life under a curse. The condition on which our seeking God will bring us a wholesome result is in

Jeremiah 29:13 “And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.”

As one born of God, it is a risk for you as a child of God to live a lukewarm life. To avoid living a lukewarm life, we must seek God with our whole heart. When we seek Him with our whole heart, we will not also stray away from His commandments. We should remember God needs all of us. He says anyone that lays his hand on the plough and keeps looking back is not fit to be His disciple. When He called the twelve disciples, the Bible says they forsook all and followed Him. We must know that we are not complete in things; neither are we complete in ourselves, we are complete in Him.

Colossians 2:10 “And you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.”

Whatever is of God has power to conquer; all what is needed here is our faith to accept it as God has given it and when we accept it as God has given it, we will see the result as written in scripture and sent forth to us. In Him we live, in Him we move and in Him have our being. As an army that is stationed in God, none of us will be feeble, none of us will be weak. The understanding of scripture is what will uphold us and keep us till we meet with the Lord face to face. Growing with the understanding and true formation within our spirit to know that the Lord is ultimate is vital in our walk of faith with the Lord. We can sum up an unstoppable strength as children of God depending on how much we have committed ourselves to the Lord because absolute commitment gives us access to true power. We cannot also access true power when our commitment is lukewarm, (we are neither hot nor cold).

There were words that Christ only gave to those who left all and followed Him. He told the seventy I give unto you power to trample upon serpents and scorpions and nothing shall by any means hurt you. This word was for those who left all and followed Him. Even to the hundred and twenty and about five hundred persons who followed Him on the mountain when He was being taken up to heaven, He gave them the promise of the Father which was also the promise of power. Then in Psalm 105:37 He said none was feeble among the children of Israel.

Psalm 105:37 “He also brought them out with silver and gold, and there was none feeble among His tribes.”

Let us rise and take a more determined step for the Lord and live as sons and daughters of God. Then all that the Lord has in stock for us we will see them accompanying us. One aspect we must know is that being born of God is not going to be by power or by might but by the Spirit of God. If it is going to be by the Spirit of God, then we must understand the mystery of God's grace at work for us. What is the mystery of God's grace? God does not call you because you are qualified; He qualifies the called. He gives strength to the weak and knowledge to the simple; as scripture says we are His workmanship in Christ. Our prayer should be Oh Lord work on me and let your name be glorified. Don't allow me Lord to abuse all the provisions that your grace has offered to me; Lord help me to maximize it for your glory. Lord keep revealing yourself to me and make yourself known to me.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord deliver me from every life of lukewarmness.
- 2- Lord let your name remain glorified in my life.
- 3- Lord, quicken and revive me in every area that I have been weak.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

LIVING AS A BODY

Ephesians 4:13 “Till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:”

Actualizing divine goal on earth, the church (the body of Christ) must understand that until we all come to the unity of faith and of the knowledge of the son of God, that will produce a perfect man, that will reflect and manifest the measure of the stature of Christ, it will be difficult for the church to fully maximize the great provision that redemption has offered to us. There was a situation that occurred in the Apostle Paul's ministry at Corinth. The apostle had to rebuke that sharply because that was an infiltration to abuse the effect of the cross and the grace of God that has appeared to all men. The Corinthian actually practiced sectarianism and a legalistic gospel which the gospel of Christ would never endorse. They actually used the name of Christ; not to glorify Christ, but to project their ego, aligning it to individuals and not Christ. Paul made it clear to the Corinthian brethren that if Apollo is of Christ, Paul is of Christ and Caiaphas is of Christ, then they should know that Jesus is not divided. For the body of Christ which is the church can only function well as a united body with all its members.

In the Lord Jesus Christ, all the members do not live for themselves; they all live for the Lord. In other words, they live for the sole purpose of the body which is fulfilling God's mission as stipulated. The health of the church will never be gotten on the platform of carnal living. We can see the effect of carnality manifesting itself with envy, strife, division, arrogance, pride, boastful of material things and not making their boastings in Christ Jesus. The church will not also be healthy by projecting individual members that would have been used to fulfill the purpose of God on earth in the body at the expense of the wellbeing of the entire body. The church mentioned in our context is not referring to any denomination; it refers to all who have been washed by the blood of the Lamb, who are redeemed, who are born again and are serving in their different capacities for the common interest of God's kingdom on earth. There may still be some members of the body of Christ that physically we may not know them but spiritually we are bonded together; that is the church we are talking about in our context.

In 1 Corinthians 3:1-10, Paul was rebuking the Corinthian church and telling them that they were carnal and they were not being spiritual. Because they were carnal, he termed them spiritual babes who could only be fed with milk and not with solid food. He said solid food belongs to the aged, for those who have had a comprehension of the functionality of the various members of the body. Sectarianism and legalism are proves of immaturity. Being legalistic means you create your righteousness and obtain it by your self-power. Sectarianism is the ability to divide the members so that they could function independently, which of course cannot hold. The apostle Paul asked the Corinthians “why do you say I am of Paul or I am of Apollo?” He asked them “Are you not carnal?” Paul and Apollo are all ministers. We are all labourers together with God, we are all God’s husbandry and we are all God’s building. The unity of our faith will only have its worth if we have the understanding of how to merge all the members of the body to function as a unit. The apostle Paul gave us an approach that gives this particular aspect of the body a possibility of operation in Galatians 4:1-3. He gives us the pathway of making each member of the body to operate and contribute his ability as the gift of God to be able to work according to the measure of the gift of God in them.

The first thing he points to us is that we are called to work worthy of the vocation. There is a course we are brought in to fulfill or to accomplish. For all the members of the body or the church to function well in their various capacities, we must come together with all lowliness, meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love. There is an effort which is to endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit. So our first place of meeting is in the spiritual. Our inner minds and our spirit man must get itself united with other members of the body so that through the Spirit of God, we would be able to function well in unity. We must endeavor to see that we flow together and we work together; so, he uses the word endeavoring. In other words, make every effort to keep the unity of the spirit. It takes an effort, discipline for us to remain united. It is in our unity that we will do well as different members of the body. The apostle proceeded by saying it is just one body with many member; just one spirit, and all of us as children of God are all called into one hope of our calling. We are not called to serve different kingdoms. We are all called to serve in the kingdom of our God. Over us we have one Lord, one faith, one baptism. Of course to understand this mystery, one Lord, one faith, one baptism cannot fight among itself, they must have a bonding. Just as the Godhead; the Father has no contention with the Son, the Spirit has no contention with the Son, and the Son has no contention with the Spirit; one God and Father of all; who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

Any fighting within the church is a mark of immaturity and childishness. We can't access the blessing of the heirs as long as we don't get to maturity. We can term a church mature in seeing how united they are with one another in lowliness, meekness, forbearing one another in love and not in contention. Till we all come into this unity of faith, it will be difficult for us to produce our worth as a body (the church). If we don't come to the status of this maturity, the consequence is that we may not escape the pollution of the endtime and the errors that the wicked world is targeting us with. The Apostle Paul tells us in Ephesians 4:13-14 that until we all come to the unity of faith and to the knowledge of the Son of God, it is that knowledge that will produce a perfect man. Once that body is perfected, we will be able to show the measure of Christ's stature in our lives. If the nature and stature of Christ will not be seen in us, the effect will be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the slight of men and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive. But if we grow in knowledge, we will speak truth in love and when we are able to speak truth in love, we will grow in Christ in all things.

For the members of the body to live together, they must have love for one another and each member should be able to acknowledge and admit the importance of other members; not for one member to see himself more important than other members. In John 13:34-35, Christ said a new commandment I give to you

John 13:34-35 “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are My disciples indeed. If you have love for love one another.”

When the virtue of love governs us as earlier said, we will acknowledge the importance of every member; even the tiniest member of the body, we will acknowledge their importance. Nobody with his right mind will afford to lose anything important. For us to stay healthy and see the importance of each member, we must endeavor to look at every member of the church first in the area of their strength before the areas of their weaknesses. You will go well and go far with people that you acknowledge their strength before their weakness. But if you amplify people's weaknesses more than their strength, you will tend to destroy them and even destroy yourself. This is because if they were sent into your life to play a role, and you dismiss them, you will also suffer the effect for losing them. Paul told the Corinthians in 1 Corinthians 12:12 that we are one body but many members and the body is not one member but many. The whole body cannot be the eyes and the whole body cannot be the ears but all members together play their vital roles. In 1 Corinthians 12:25, Paul says every member depends on another member for its wellbeing. The head does not look out for itself but for other members and other members do not look out for themselves but for other members. Like this, the body will function very well. We are all members of the body of Christ and we are to live as such in all seasons.

In Philemon 1:10-17, Paul encountered a slave of Philemon in the person of Onesimus. Having preached to this young man, he saw strength and value in him. He told Philemon that “if you know that I am your brother, don’t only receive Onesimus as your servant as it used to be; receive him now as a brother”. Paul went ahead to exhort Philemon that if Onesimus have wronged him or owe him, he should put the debt to his (Paul’s) charge. Paul observed Onesimus in the areas of his strength; not in the area of his weakness. We would love one another as we look at one another in the aspect of our strength and not in the aspect of our weaknesses. Even our Lord Jesus Christ taught us that in the book of Revelation when He was talking to the seven churches in Asia Minor. He approached them first in the areas of their strength before their weaknesses. The church will do great exploits if we come to the knowledge of what the Lord wants us to know and live in the standard of His word as prescribed for us as members of the body. Let each member watch over one another for their good with love to their health. So let us arise and work this out and live as a body, united and knitted together and great will be our strength for exploits.
