BAMBILI

Glory to God! I was suffering from external pile and because of this I was unable to sit. The servant of God prayed for me and after prayers I was healed. Till today I am fine to the glory of God. Thank you Jesus!

Sister Nathalie:

Praise God! My family and I are full of gratitude to God and the church for the preservation of the life of our little daughter. It was on Friday the 20th of March, 2026 that as we spent time at home, our daughter inserted a metallic object into her nostril. When we noticed it, we informed the pastor who prayed and assured us she was going to be free. We want to return all the glory to God because she was rushed to the hospital and the object was removed safely without any surgery as suggested by the doctor. Thank God for the child is recovering. Praise God for this miracle!

Brother Gespa:

Hallelujah! I appreciate God for the month of Gratitude and Praise. God did many things to me but I am grateful for He added me one more year. I thank God for the “Manna Feast”; I introduced it to my mother-in-law and she used the hand in chapter 7. To the glory of God the spirit husband that had been tormenting her for a long time was exposed. Thank you Jesus!

Sister Jacky:

HOUSTON TEXAS

Praise the Lord! I thank God for He has kept every member of my family in good health. I also thank God for the “Manna Feast”. I was particularly blessed by chapter 4, “Not Me But Christ”. I pray the Lord continues to increase His servant in Jesus name. Thank you Lord!

Mama Martha:

BALI

Glory to God! I am grateful to God for JEBM and I thank God for our father in the Lord. I lack words to express my gratitude to God for what He has been doing for me through this great house and through His servant. I thank God for the “Manna Feast” publication for the month of March. I give God the glory for the prophetic word “Gratitude and Praise”. I also thank God for chapters 1 and 2 “This Far”, and “God’s Goodness” respectively. I remember when I came in contact with this commission in 2013 by an encounter from God. I had many challenges and at that junction of confusion, the Lord told me to go to “Tih”. I obeyed the voice of God and this month, God was reminding me of how far He had taken me and His goodness over my life. With the teaching of the Word of God in this great house, I am filled with wisdom, knowledge and understanding of the things of God. This far, God has taken away all the challenges I was going through since 2013. I am filled with great joy in my heart and all I can say is thank you Jesus!

Mama Magdalene:

INTRODUCTION

As we live for the purpose for which we were created, it is essential for us to know that the victory of our lives is not sum up by what we have done; rather, the victory of our lives is tied to what the Lord has done for us. A triumphant progress is not based on what you have done or what you will do; it is centered on what the Lord has done or is doing. Even when we are able to show some fruits or manifestations that are worthwhile, such fruits are just reflections of His doing in us.

You are victorious because He made you victorious. You are progressive because He made you progressive. It is not for us to boast; but we are called to stay humble and let God be God in all He has made us to be. Triumphant Progress is about God's finished work for us, to enable us to emerge in the same purpose for which He created us. As you walk through the pages of this publication, have this in mind: it is not about you, it is about God working in you. At the end of the day, when all is said and done, you will be able to return all the glory back to God.

This is the season of His manifestation in your life as a person and our lives as a people. He has paid the price for us to become what He intends that we should be. The consciousness of this message should trigger two aspects in your life: faith and hope. Your faith and hope will bring you to the place of obedience, finding out the instruction given and disciplining yourself to remain at the center of God's will. God bless you!

CHAPTER 1

THE ESSENCE OF GOD'S PRESENCE

As sons and daughters of God, being entities that proceeded out of the Almighty God, we cannot express the nature of God without God's presence with us. The primary need for God's presence is for the children of God to manifest and express God's nature both in life and action. It is God's ultimate presence we need to triumph as sons and daughters of God. God's presence will enable us to manifest the entirety of God's divine nature and glory in all its facets. A life with God is guaranteed by His presence with us. The outbreak of God's unfathomable power is also guaranteed by His presence with us. It is the presence of God that gives us the transformation of life we need for the glory of God. In the absence of God's presence with us, we may be existing but not living. That is why we should be able to have an understanding and to know how important it is for us to live with God's presence. We should daily walk and live in His presence and with His presence.

Psalm 91:1-16 gives us an expression of what God's presence does for us as children of God; though, there are many other outlines in scriptures that portrays the essence of God's presence with us. Therefore, we need to understand God's provision as regards His presence so we can better prepare our minds to embrace this dynamic presence. It is important to understand this aspect; your walk with God must first be personalized before you can expand to generalize or getting other members involved. In as much as worshipping God in a company of believers is important, it is most important for you as an individual to have a personal walk with God. Jesus taught us this in His walk on earth. He prayed and sought the face of God at a personal level, He prayed and worshipped God with the Apostles and at some intervals, He selected some of them. At certain times He walked with all of them and at other times He walked with all the disciples and the world at large. As earlier said, God's presence is God's life in attribute, in characteristics, God's power and authority in action.

In Psalms 91:1, the scripture states that He that dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. If you can live in divine presence, you will also abide under divine covering and shelter. For you to dwell under the shelter and the defence system of God, you must learn to abide in God. In His presence, you are kept by His power. In His presence you are a vessel of use, and you are a vessel of honour. The life we need to live for God is wrapped up in God's presence. The power we need to demonstrate is also wrapped up in God's presence. The fulfilment of our being as humans is only guaranteed within the margins of God's presence with us. Our survival as humans is wrapped up in God's presence and with God's presence.

The Lord never made man to live a separate life from God. That is why no matter what you think you have, if you are out of divine presence, you have missed the topmost reason for your living which is God's presence with us. Walking by this, it is important to access the knowledge that will lead you to dwell in God's presence. Other things may survive without the presence of God because they were never made in the image and the likeness of God. But we cannot survive without His presence because we were made in His image and after His likeness. In 2 Corinthians 6:16, the word of God says

2 Corinthians 6:16 “And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God and they shall be My people.”

God’s indwelling presence is the ultimate assurance we all need for our safety. That is why if you get to look at the prophecy of the Lord in Isaiah 7:14 that was prophesied of the sign of a virgin being with child, the name of that son is called Immanuel which is interpreted God with us. We find the fulfilment of that scripture in Matthew 1:23-24. This prophecy in Isaiah was referred to Christ because throughout scriptures, there is no record of a virgin who was found with child but Mary who was found with child as a virgin after about 700 years and above. As earlier said, we can't survive in the path of the Lord and with the things of God committed into our hands without divine presence. We always need divine presence in order to grow in the things of God. We are created and called to permanently and consistently live in God's presence and to live with God's presence.

There is a difference with these two words; living in God's presence keeps your person as a child of God and living with God's presence empowers you for exploits for the kingdom. As Moses was about to carry an invasion in the progress and advancement of God's promise for the children of Israel with regards to the Promised Land, Moses asked God in prayers in Exodus 33:14 that "Lord, if I have found favour in your sight, let your presence go with us." As long as God's presence went with them, they got the victory and they made the exploits. Those who dwell in the presence as written in Psalms 91, they are kept. Every man in God's presence and with God's presence will emerge as a vessel of honour. There are benefits that you will get when you dwell in God's presence:

- In God's presence your sanctity is kept.
- In God's presence, your victory and dignity is guaranteed.
- His presence gives you assurance of your faith walk.
- The presence of God makes you a no-go area for the enemy.
- God's presence brings forth the effect and impact of divine presence as we see in Acts 2.
- The presence of God reveals the hidden works of darkness and gets them destroyed as we see in Acts 17.
- We enjoy the flavour of His love which cannot be measured and the manifestation of His power and authority.

- Living within the margin of God's presence will keep you in God's will thereby fulfilling the righteousness of God.

John 11:42 “And I know that you always hear Me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that you sent Me.”

Knowing the importance of His presence, we must have a desire for it and prepare our lives for God's presence. The presence of God will not sponsor or accommodate an undisciplined life. Going with God's presence, you must abide by God's instructions. Adam and Eve were created to live with the presence of God and that is why instructions were given to them in the Garden of Eden. We abide in the love of God by keeping the instructions given to us from God and our Lord Jesus Christ. The instructions are not grievous. Embracing them are our acts of love for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The Lord Jesus said if you love Me, you will keep My commandments John 14:15.

John 15:10 “If you keep My commandments you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and abide in His love.”

The doctrine passed unto us and the commandments is to give us a leverage to live in God’s presence, walk in God’s presence and we will become vessels of praise and honour with dignity, meet for the Master’s use.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord in your mercy, equip me to live in your presence.
- 2- Lord let your indwelling presence express your ultimate will for my life.
- 3- Lord take out of my life anything that will destroy your will for my life.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

KEEP WATCH

1 Peter 5:8 “Be sober, be vigilant: because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.”

Being born of God, you are a substance or an entity of value. Your journey of life starts when you begin a walk in the spirit by being born again or receiving Jesus into your life. As physical birth gives you existence and living on earth, spiritual birth also gives you existence and living in the spirit realm. Being born of the spirit initiates the spiritual walk and a life in the spirit with the Lord. The above-mentioned accomplishment tags you as a vessel of honour and vessel of value with an inherent life of the Lord. You are cautioned to be watchful and to be vigilant because you are a value. Men don't watch over what is of no worth; men take care and protect what is of great worth.

Your adversary the devil is anxiously behind you because something of value lives in you. Your mark of integrity is living a righteous life and making sure nothing defects it. Therefore, as a vessel of honour, keep watch over your life in order not to be a victim of corruption. There are many routes that the enemy will step in to get you polluted. If you must see good days as a child of God, guard against the works of the flesh. The scripture tells us this in Galatians 5:19-21. The works of the flesh are outlined in these scriptures.

Galatians 5:19-21 “Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.”

Looking at the above works of the flesh, we must be distant from things of such as described above. Those are entanglements that can wrap up and destroy your walk with God. In Proverbs 6:23-29 we are told that you cannot walk on coals and not be burnt.

Proverbs 6:23-29 “For the commandment is a lamp, and the law a light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life. To keep you from the evil woman, from the flattering tongue of a seductress. Verse 26: For by means of a harlot a man is reduced to a crust of bread; and an adulteress will prey upon his precious life. Can a man take fire to his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one walk on hot coals and his feet not be seared? So is he who goes into his neighbour’s wife, whoever touches her shall not be innocent.”

The instruction of the word of God is to keep us far from evil. When we despise it, we will fall into the trap of the devil. The above scriptures make it very clear that by means of a harlot a man is reduced to a crust of bread; and an adulteress will prey upon his precious life. Can a man take fire to his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Can one walk on hot coals and his feet not be seared? So is he who goes into his neighbour's wife, whoever touches her shall not be innocent. We must watch against the things that defileth and as we have been taught in time past, sanctification is a continuous process. The scripture still goes ahead to warn us that every man should be able to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. In 1 Thessalonians 4:3-4, the bible tells us that this is the will of God that you possess your vessel in sanctification.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-4 “For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you should abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honour.”

The next point we must look at here is the works of the flesh that has to do with greed and covetousness. This is another aspect that the enemy has used to devour many lives. That is needing than what is expected at all costs, holding back things that you need to release them to serve in different purposes. In 1 Timothy 6:6-10, the bible tells us to be contented for godliness with contentment is great gain. It goes ahead to tell us that the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil, which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. How will the love of money express itself in our lives. The love of money will compel you to sin to have money; it may be through stealing, lies telling, through corruption. You can do anything at the expense of your salvation to get money, and the bible tags the love of money the root of all evil. The love of money is not the absence of the need for money. We all need money at some time, but we do not love money. In Acts of the Apostles 8:17-20, the Apostle Peter encountered a man who was once a sorcerer in the person of Simon. Simon approached Peter to pay him money so he could receive the gift of the spirit. Peter rebuked Simon sharply and told him to perish with his money. Peter needed money but he was not a lover of money.

Money controls men that love money but men who need money controls the money. They need the money, but they get it the right way. When we find ourselves in compromise because we need money, it means we have been corrupted. We earn money through rendering services or selling something, or through gifts out of a goodwill. Anything out of this that gives you money may be evil. Watch out for the love of money because it has lured many lives into destruction. In 1 Timothy 6:11-12, the Apostle Paul commanded Timothy to flee from the love of money and follow righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness. He told him to fight the good fight of faith, and to lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

The last point but not the least is to watch out for false teachers and false prophets who come after your pockets and not after the salvation of your soul. Jesus warns us in the Gospel of Matthew 24:11 to watch against false prophets. Jesus said many false prophets will rise up and deceive many.

So we should watch out on these things and the infiltration of false teachers and false doctrines in these last days 2 Timothy 3:6.

Ephesians 4:14 “That we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting.”

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord I receive grace to keep watch.
- 2- Lord strengthen me to walk in the light of your word.
- 3- Oh Lord don't allow sin to have dominion over me.
- 4- Thank you Lord in the name of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 3

A VESSEL FOR THE MASTER'S USE

Luke 19:30-31 “Saying, go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat, loose it and bring it here. And if anyone asks you, why are you loosing it? Thus you shall say to him, because the Lord has need of it.”

There are things that identify with called out vessels for the Master's use. Their appearance and activities may look controversial in respect to people that live in their contemporary world. Their activities and way of life may not match in the same trajectory with people who are called to serve in ordinary things. For example, the appearance of John the Baptist living in the wilderness, putting on Carmel's skin and feeding on wild honey and locust was controversial to the men of his world. With all these, you can trace the extra standard and life of commitment and devotion towards their discipline.

When we look at the above scripture, we are told of a donkey that was restricted from movement, restricted from a man using it. Of course it was tied on a spot maybe on daily basis. Maybe other donkeys were free to move around but for this donkey that was kept for the Master's use, it was being restricted from many things. This donkey was tied, no man ever rode on it but it was a vessel being kept and prepared for the Master's use. The Lord Jesus said as you go to lose the donkey, if any man asks, tell the person the Master has use for it. This donkey was reserved and kept for the Master's use and when the appointed season came, the donkey was loose. Because the donkey had kept the margin of the Lord, the day it was loosed, it became that honoured vessel for the Master's use. The fame and record of that donkey stood the test of time till today.

If you look throughout scriptures, you will realise that for all called out vessels that were specifically used by God for services, there were some aspects of abnormality that identified with them. That made onlookers to question whether they were in right standing with God and the purpose of God for their lives. As an instrument of honour, you will not be measured by the challenges that you go through physically but rather, you are measured by the integrity of life you maintain in your challenges. Outsiders will judge you by what they are able to see but the Lord measures you up with the life of integrity that you are living for Him.

If you take a survey through scriptures, you will find that the lives of vessels of honour were not normal. There was a peculiar challenge with Abraham, but he kept serving God. There was a persistent challenge in the days of Noah, but he was spotted out as a righteous man in his generation. Coming down to Joseph, David and even the Apostles, you will find that their activities were questioned by onlookers. Their years of silence was never a mark of rejection, but it was a time kept by God for their grooming to meet up with their set time. Whatever God has allowed you to go through, you must not lose heart. You may find it working for others easily, but it doesn't work easily with you; it is a mark for you to know that you are a vessel of honour for the Master's use. It takes a vessel that have survived challenges to see people through challenges.

Looking at the above text with the donkey entering Jerusalem, all Jerusalem came out and placed palm branches and their clothes for the donkey to walk on. When the donkey was tied, it was never known but when Christ rode on the donkey, it was honoured. Your years of preparation and your path of preparation will give you a weight of honour. The Master rode on the donkey but the donkey trekked on the palm branches and the dresses that were laid on the highway. Vessels for the Master's use are kept by God and because they are kept by God, the power of God in them will help them survive all odds. All they need to do is to keep their faith alive and their love for God renewed and strong.

One reason you must guard yourself as a vessel is that you must not compare yourself with anybody because your discipline is different from that of others. Live for the defence of the course wherewith God has called you; be apologetic. Most vessels of honour called out by God are always caught up in the trap of measuring themselves with others, and by so doing they plunge themselves into pain and sorrow. You should daily keep watch for daily renewal because your mind must be renewed to keep you away from the advances of the enemy Romans 12:1-2.

2 Corinthians 10:12 “For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, are not wise.”

As a vessel of honour, be consistent in your pursuit. Don't break the standard of God because other men are living wayward. Maintain the margin of your calling; faithfully walk with the course that God has set before you and your season will appear as that of the donkey in the days of Christ on earth. Your day also will come like that of Joseph. Stay faithful, don't be counted among the foolish, be counted among the wise. Know that the call of

God upon your life is the call to make a difference, stay renewed!

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord keep me in the path of your purpose.
- 2- Lord deliver me from all forms of pollutions.
- 3- Oh Lord keep me as a vessel meet for your use.
- 4- Thank you Lord in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 4

KNOWING YOUR ORDER OF SERVICE

We have been saved and called by God to have the definition of our living as prescribed by God and not by men. When we fail to give in to all the Lord has committed into our hands, men and the enemy will give us a new direction for life. It is important for every child of God or servant of God to know the dimensions and operations of God who made him and called him. Our operations may be different as members of the same body of the Lord. If you are the head, learn to function as the head. If you are the feet, learn to function as the feet. If you are the hand, learn to function in your domain and all these members joined together are to render specific assignments.

God's ultimate plan for a nation as Israel was for Him to Lord and govern them. Israel did not submit to the offer God gave her; rather, she took a standard from a nation that was to be governed by men. There are people that God has called to keep the yardstick of power, others are called to keep the yardstick of sanctity, righteousness and holiness. Some are called to plainly x-ray the word of God and some for the revelation of the mystery of the kingdom. In any area of service, you have been called to operate, all the members or vessels will have just one thing in common; their manifestations may differ, but they will have one sense of belonging, that is faith in God in pursuit of God's will and making sure God is pleased in all they do. That is the common factor you will find in any vessel irrespective of the diversity of their operations. Have a mastery of your operation from the Lord, develop it. Don't become wayward because somebody who calls on the name of the Lord is wayward. You should also know that it is not everyone who claims they are called of God that are actually called. Everyone called by God is given to the discipline of his calling. In the book of Numbers 25:9, the Moabite committed whoredom, but they were not killed but the Israelites also committed whoredom, and they were killed. In fact, in a day about 24000 people lost their lives because of whoredom.

In 1 Samuel 8:4-5 we are told that Israel was to be ruled by God through a prophet, but Israel went out of the order of God for their lives to compare themselves with other nation.

1 Samuel 8:4-5 “Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him. Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

When we look at this text, Israel went out of order and plunged herself into many sorrows. As a commission and as an individual, for you to preserve yourself, you must submit yourself to the order that God has set before you to follow. Even our Lord Jesus Christ being God told us in scripture that He did not come to destroy the Law and the Prophets but rather He came to fulfill them. Even Jesus Himself showed us this that being God, He came in an order. When you are a child of God and you don't yield to the Lord or the order set before you, you may open a wider door of accusation for the enemy against your life. In Matthew 5:17, the Lord Jesus said I have not come to destroy the Law and the Prophets but to fulfill them. There was a pathway that Christ's priesthood was to be unfolded to humanity. God being the high priest, there were two priesthood that were noted in the Old Testament, the priesthood of Melchizedek and the Aaronic or Levitical priesthood.

Scripture makes us to understand in Hebrews 6:20 that the Lord Jesus came in the order of Melchizedek. As a vessel, master your order of service as prescribed by God in order not to falter. Under the priesthood of Melchizedek, tithes were received not as a law but as an act of worship. Abraham was not commanded to pay tithes to Melchizedek, but he paid tithes as an act of worship, and that act of worship commanded the blessings of God over Abraham's life.

Genesis 14:18-20 “Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God most High. And he blessed him and said: blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him a tithe of all.”

Under the Levitical priesthood, tithing is a command, and it is a law. Tithing is not forbidden but the act of tithing in the Old Testament is different from tithing in the New Testament. If Jesus came in the order of Melchizedek and Melchizedek received tithes, then, we the present church in that order cannot be stopped from paying tithes. The attitude of our tithing therefore should be an act of worship and not a command or law. By so doing, we also command the blessings of God over our lives just as Melchizedek blessed Abraham when he tithed. Tithing in the New Testament should be implemented not in the Levitical order but in the order of Melchizedek who of course is priest forever.

Hebrews 7:11-13 “Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed there is also a change of the law. For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar.”

It is important for the church to understand the order of their calling in order not to truncate the purpose of God for their lives. The Lord will back everything He has given as you walk in the provision of His lamplight for your life.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord keep me within the premise of my assignment.
- 2- Lord increase me in knowledge, increase me in strength.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

WALK IN THE SPIRIT

Galatians 5:16 “I say then: walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.”

A walk in the Spirit is an act of a transformed mind that is centered on the things that reflect Christ in all they say and do. It is a transformation of the mind that leads one's spirit to meditate on things that are praiseworthy, peaceful, righteous and joyful. The walk in the Spirit is an enablement for the pilgrim to bear the fruit of the Spirit. That is why the book of Galatians say if you walk in the Spirit, you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. If we walk in the Spirit, we will not be overwhelmed by the temporal pleasures of the flesh. A walk in the Spirit keeps you off the enemy's target. A walk in the Spirit brings Christ's life to rule, govern and lead you. A walk in the Spirit makes you to be that light that shines in darkness and darkness cannot comprehend it. A walk in the Spirit lifts you above the life of sin.

Sin will not have dominion in your life when you walk in the Spirit.

The Apostle Paul told the Romans in Romans 12:2 that be not conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Colossians 2:6 says since you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in Him. When we walk in Christ, we will set our affections on things that are above and not on things that are beneath. A carnal man sets his or her mind on things on earth while a spiritual man sets his affection on things above. And we know that to be carnally minded is dead but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. So, they that are of the flesh cannot please God Romans 8:6-8. Carnality renders grief, anguish and destruction, while a spiritually minded person enjoys joy, peace, faith and love in the Lord.

In John 3, a teacher of the law in the person of Nicodemus walked to Jesus because there was a glory and a presence that Jesus manifested as the Godman on earth. That presence brought about the Hand of God over His life that Nicodemus acknowledged and he said, I know you are a teacher sent from God because the acts that follow you shows that you are a teacher sent from God. Jesus knew that Nicodemus wanted to be part of the demonstration of God's power for he longed and yearned for it. Jesus gave him a prescription by saying that the prescription of true power comes from a transformed life and a transformed life is not the act you claim; it is an act of birth. That is why Christ said, "Unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." A walk in the Spirit is a walk that is gotten by birth that gives you a mind to long after spiritual things. The Lord said that which is born of the flesh is flesh and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. You gain existence and living on earth by physical birth and you also gain existence and living in the Spirit by spiritual birth. There are laws in operation that make these two births a reality.

There is a law of reproduction on physical birth same as there is a law of rebirth on spiritual birth. The law of rebirth on spiritual birth that enables us to enhance a walk in the spirit comes from these factors: faith, obedience and humility. These are the factors that render spiritual birth. When you lack faith in the Lord and the absence of obedience to the word of God and you lack submission to the counsel of God over your life, it may hinder you from having a walk in the Spirit. Being spiritual, you should know there are resistances you must overcome in your flesh. The spirit has its desires; the flesh also has its desires and the two are contrary. To maintain a walk in the spirit, you must bring the flesh under subjection through the knowledge of the word of God, prayers and discipline. When you do that, you will be able to live a triumphant spiritual life that will give you strength to do great exploits for God's kingdom.

Maintaining a consistent prayer life will bring an unprecedented power upon you for when we come in the place of prayer we are endowed. When we tarry in the place of prayers we are transformed, we are renewed and fellowshiping with the word of God will enlarge our borders in knowledge and wisdom in the things of God. Every man that walks in the Spirit will have a mastery of the affairs of life. So go for it and live for it. As you gain access to the things of God, God will make everything beautiful in your life and sin will never have dominion over you. A walk in the Spirit forbids sin to reign in your mortal body.

Romans 6:12-14 “Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.”

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord I yield my body to you as an instrument of righteousness.
- 2- Lord I receive grace to walk and live in the Spirit.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

THE ABUSE OF SHEPHERDHOOD

Ezekiel 34:10 “Thus says the Lord God: behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them.”

There is a call for repentance from the pulpit to the pew. The pew cannot be in health while the pulpit is sick. The things that happen within the circle of the church today is a mark to let us know that the pulpit needs repairs. Shepherds have changed the course of the kingdom passed unto them and they now use the platform God has given to them for fame, pride, and personal profit at the expense of the souls of men that Jesus died for. The faithfulness expected from the shepherd to the flock has been abused. Shepherds are after the flock not for the interest of God’s kingdom but for their personal interest. The Gospel of the cross and of the kingdom of God has been replaced with another gospel. God was angry with the shepherds in the days of Jeremiah and Ezekiel who both lived almost at the same time.

If we see the calamities going on in the house of God today, it is a sign to let us know there is a famine of the word. In Amos 8:11, the prophet Amos prophesied that a day shall come when there shall be famine of the word and not famine of food. In this regard, if we look at the fruit bearing flock, it is an indication that shepherdhood has been abused. The church has been turned to an entertainment center instead of a house of worship. The church being a house of worship has no difference from a night club. In fact, sinners are at ease in Zion. The shepherds take it light because they bring them what they need to feed fat in the flesh. The church needs to be happy that men's lives are being transformed; not that sinners fill the church with unrepentant lifestyles. The shepherds of our days have preyed on the flock by defiling and devouring them because they are vulnerable to them. Today the course has been diverted; the sheep know the pastor of the church and not the God of the church. Today the sheep have a relationship with the pastor of the church and not the God of the church. Today the sheep fear the pastor more than they fear God. The standard of God's house has been broken just like the days of Jesus on earth. But as the temple was cleansed in the days of Jesus, the church today also needs cleansing.

The shepherds should point the flock to God and not to themselves. In the Gospel of John 21:15, Jesus, after resurrection, apostle Peter was asked on three occasions by our Lord Jesus if he loved the Lord. Peter on all the three occasions replied that he loved the Lord. The Lord repeatedly told Peter "Feed My sheep, feed My Lamb, feed My sheep." Peter received that word from the Lord. He did not feed the church with another gospel. If the early church would have been fed with another gospel, the experience at Pentecost would have been impossible. We have gone the way of the world to have happiness and peace rather than having the peace of the Holy Spirit and joy of heart. In Matthew 28:19-20, the Lord instructed that go ye into the world and preach to all nations; baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever that I have commanded you and lo I am with you always even to the end of the age. It is the responsibility of the shepherd to do the right thing in order for the presence of God to dwell in our midst. The church is worldly today because the shepherds have changed the narrative. We present the message of a God we have never been with; we preach a God to the church that we have never been with, let the pulpit be healed. Another Gospel have taken over the Gospel of the everlasting kingdom of Christ. Paul and Peter wrote explicitly on this matter in

1 Peter 5:1-3 “The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that will be revealed: shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly; nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock;”

The apostle Peter commanded the leaders of the church to shepherd the flock not for personal gain and not exercising lordship to the flock. But today we have the contrary where shepherds trade the sheep for personal gain. Paul commanded Timothy his young pastor to be an example to believers in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. He said till he comes he should give attention to reading, to exhortation and to doctrine. If the pulpit is sound, the church will be sound. Paul wrote to the Corinthians that their responsibility is to help the faith of the flock and not to exploit the flock.

2 Corinthians 1:24 “Not that we have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for by faith you stand.”

These are some marks that indicate that shepherdhood have been abused:

- When the shepherd diverts the course of the kingdom for any reason known to them, it is an indication that shepherdhood have been abused. It is just like Judas Iscariot, Ananias and Sapphira all diverted the course of the kingdom.
- Using the flock for material gain.
- Manipulating them with threats and fear for material gain.
- Taking advantage of the flock's vulnerability to lure them into sexual immorality.
- Threatening and taking the place of God in the life of the flock.
- Merchandising the house of God as a personal property.
- Poor or no accountability of God's resources under your care.
- Twisting the scripture to suit personal interest.

- Setting goals to advance God's kingdom in the lives of men as long as you may have personal profits. This one thing we should all know as shepherds sent by God, we shall all appear before the judgement seat of God without exception, and everyone will give an account of what they did with their lives.

2 Corinthians 5:10 "For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad."
