MINISTRY TESTIMONIES FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 2025

BAMBILI

Praise the Lord! I am grateful to God for the month of October, the month of “UNFOLDING REALMS OF FAVOUR”. I saw the favour of God over my life in the area of my career. I used to teach in a school of children with disabilities. I was doing voluntary service but some issues arose and I left the school. In the month of Unfolding Realms of Favour, I was called back to the school to start teaching; this time not as a volunteer but a recognized worker in the institution. I give God all the glory for His goodness. Thank you Jesus!

Sister Judith:

KUMBA

Glory to God! I thank God for His healing hand upon my life. I had serious back pain to the extent that I could not move my leg. The servant of God prayed for me and since I was to go to Buea for checkup, he advised me to go along with the “Manna Feast” and always place the hand on the spot. I went to the doctor and after check, he saw nothing that could be the cause of the pain but gave some drugs. I realized that when I took the drugs, the pain grew worse. So I opened the hand of the “Manna Feast”, placed it on the back each time I wore my dress. To the glory of God, I am healed of back pain. Hallelujah!

Sister Nicoline:

INTRODUCTION

Glory and honour to the Most High God for the wondrous things He has done for us. Forever we will remain grateful as a people that God has made by Himself and qualified. We are called the sheep of His pasture. The effect and impact we can witness in us and among us has been the doing of God and God alone. His mercy, loving kindness and goodness have sponsored great worth than man can tell. Every season with the Lord has been the season of abundance of life and full of joy unspeakable. In every season God ushers us into, when we stay glued to such an atmosphere, it is like we are asking “Will there be any other better season like this?” but as we keep our walk with the Lord, we will see things only getting better and better, leading us to perfection.

It pleases the Lord in this season to bring us under another glimpse of fulfillment and good pleasure. Here comes the month and the season tagged your season of “Laudable Influence”. Influence is conveying praiseworthy news; carrying the power to affect, control and possessing the ability to manipulate the times for the glory of God. Laudable influence will sponsor change of development, bringing things to the platform of expressing honour and dignity in the light of God's Word. The influence of this season is making the rejected stone in the sight of men and the devil to become an instrument of honour and admiration. Your scale of preference will only be measured by the scope of God's making. Once more, this is your season; the season of Laudable Influence.

CHAPTER 1

VESSEL OF INFLUENCE

Acts 10:15 “And a voice spoke to him again the second time, “what God has cleansed you must not call common.”

The commitment of God’s love upon our lives as humans is expressed by the sacrificial death of His Son on the cross. The death and resurrection of the Lord fulfilled God’s redemption plan for mankind. This means that when we make ourselves available to God by answering to the call of repentance that brings us to salvation, that alone opens a platform of influence. This is because what God has cleansed can never be called unclean or common again. In the above text, Cornelius, a Gentile centurion working for the Roman Empire has a quest for the Lord. When he made himself available, he was cleansed and then he became a vessel of influence. When God had brought such a vessel to the lamplight of influence, no device or vices of the enemy could shut it down. There are things that can thwart the purpose of God over an individual or groups of persons which are:

- The first thing is the inability to turn to God.
- The inability to learn from God and
- The unwillingness to follow and go the way of the Lord.

God has made a platform of influence for all He has created; for the Lord has never made anything bad. It is the ego and the self-will of the creatures that come in and corrupts them; thereby, bringing into their being a nature that was not created by God. For example, the devil and his hosts were never created bad people from the beginning; it was their ego and self-will that landed them into corruption and today they are tagged as evil or bad creatures. There are attitudes that you must give into as vessels that must carry the power of influence. You don't claim to be a vessel of influence; you are called and formed to be that vessel of influence. In the book of Jeremiah 1:4-5, the Bible says:

Jeremiah 1:4-5 “Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations.”

The word of God comes to a people as the conveying wheel to sponsor the acts of God and to bring into place the efficacy of the demonstration of the power of God. In other words we are saying that the word of God comes to bring the intention of the purpose of God's will to man. So vessels of influence are formed as God told Jeremiah and vessels that must be formed must be sanctified. Once they are sanctified, they are made ready for the Master's use. God told Jeremiah that He has sanctified him and ordained him to be a prophet to the nations. So God formed and sanctified Jeremiah to be an influencer in the realm of the prophetic.

The presence of truth gaining ground in anyone's life indicates and confirms the involvement of God over that individual or vessel; for the word that will proceed out of the mouth of the Lord will stand and not fail. The place of your influence that will earn you lasting dignity is tied to your sanctification. If you are anointed and do not maintain your sanctity as a vessel, your influence may not stand the test of time. Adam and Eve were made as vessels of influence but for lack of sanctity, they lose the savour and the strength they were made to manifest. So too was Samson; he lose the dignity of his influence the day he lost his sanctity as ordained by God and so also was Saul. The scope of your influence as a vessel is tied to your sanctity and knowledge of the word of God. No matter how anointed you may be today, if you lose your sanctity, you will be brought down to a piece of bread. So as a vessel of influence, guard your sanctity. In 2 Timothy 2:20-21, the Bible tells us this:

2 Timothy 2:20-21 “But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honour and some for dishonour. Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honour, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.”

Looking at the above text, we have to come out with the following points of becoming and maintaining your life as a vessel of influence:

- The first point to take note of is attitude; that is, taking responsibility to be humble and to stay humble and calling on the mercy of God to answer in the area where you are wanting. If you fail to look up and submit to authority, you will never become a vessel of influence made by God. For no reason should you be proud of anything as if you are who you are by your strength. Many who ever obtained mercy from God were broken enough for the mercy of God to speak on their behalf.

If we could just understand how blessed it is for a man to be humble in the sight of God and men, this alone will bring divine help upon our lives; to help us become who the Lord wants us to be. A man who is broken will always attract God's mercy and attention.

- The second point is that you must buy the will of God over your own will. This is because most often what we call our will lead us to a dead trap. So the will of God must prevail over our will and desires for when we are weak by ourselves, we are alive and strong with the Lord.
- The next point is to possess a teachable spirit; that is, we must be able to learn from those who have treaded the path of life before us. We should be able to learn from their successes and failures in order for us to do well.

- Furthermore, we must be committed to service; not to serve as eye servants but serving from the heart.
- Moreover, we must cultivate an excellent spirit and walk in decency. A decent walk will always put to birth valuable results. Knowledge will help you to live a developmental life and discipline will preserve you in your true value. Give in to instruction and apply yourself to wisdom. Watch against bitterness within you and the spirit of ungratefulness for that will slow your progress and at the end lead you to destruction.

If the above is done, your fulfillment as a vessel of influence will be made manifest undoubtedly. Vessels of influence are made, they are not claimed, they are formed, they do not become by mere desires. Your content must worth it.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for your mercy.
- 2- Lord grace me to live a dignified life.
- 3- Lord grant me the grace to earn the dignity that discipline offers.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

THE BLUR VISION

One of the things that men have suffered over the ages past and even to our present day is not able to get the things that are in place in their proper context and content. Many at times, in giving the right interpretation of things, to them, they are sincere in what they are interpreting; meanwhile in actual facts, they are mistaken. When we look in scriptures, God told the prophet Habakkuk to write the vision and make it plain. When a vision is not plain it is blur, and when it is blur, it is difficult for the carrier of that vision to run with it; talkless of getting it fulfilled. There are things that we must know in order to avoid living or walking with a blur vision. In our context, the vision here refers to what God has ordained to fulfill through you; that is, purpose matching with its timing.

No matter how enthusiastic you may be, when the vision of your life is blur or not well defined in its content, you may never have things done in their rightful manner. As earlier said, there are things we need to know in order to cultivate the vision for our lives to be plain. When you are not intentional or you are shallow in your walk with God, the vision of your life will be blur to you. If you lack revelation from God to your life and your life is not also well defined in its order, your vision will be blur. Living and walking with a blur vision can be very frustrating or devastating. Your commitment to God must go with your totality in order for your vision to be revealed in its reality and tangibility. The Bible tells us in Proverbs 29:18

Proverbs 29:18 “Where there is no vision, the people perish: but happy is he who keeps the law.”

Where there is no vision the people perish; so the absence of vision and the absence of interpretation of vision are likely to have the same consequence. Most of us with visions from God have not been able to unveil the visions. We are still living with the vision coded. It will take counsel, instruction and true commitment for visions to be unveiled. Don't make the mistake to run with a vision you are not certain of. You can run with it when you have an understanding and you are able to see clearly. In Mark 8:22-26, we are told of the blind man in Bethsaida that met Jesus. Jesus laid His hand on the blind man and asked him what he was seeing. Jesus wanted to see whether the blind man could interpret the reality on ground but the man's vision was blur. In response, the blind man told Jesus when he looked up that "I see men as trees, walking." The Lord could not allow this man to go with blur vision.

There are many of us today as children of God and servants of God, the things we expect to go with are not going because we are still under the clouds of blur visions. The Lord is still giving us a process for our visions to be made clean and clear. Many of us cannot grow because we are under the blur vision. Until God is done with us in the quarry, we cannot run with the vision. Most often, we are not waiting for God; God is waiting for us to be mature. Looking at the man in our text above, the Lord had to repeat the healing process on that man. He had to place his hand a second time on the man's eyes and he asked the man the question again. The man responded in Mark 8:25 that he now sees every man clearly. When he saw clearly, the Lord said go.

Spiritual stagnancy at times is as a result that you are still in process. Many at times it is not like God is not using you, God is saying that you have not gone through the process to be used. It will be an impossible thing for anyone to shy away from process thinking he will be influential or he will be used by God. If you shy away from the process, you may stay much longer at the quarry. Many of us are still at one spot because severally we have failed the test given to us. When we fail the test in words, thoughts or actions, the next door of lifting that was to open for us will be closed. But the doors of lifting will be open before us as we go through the test that is placed before us now.

Giving a wrong name to a right entity or location will disqualify you. Most of those that followed Christ had blur visions about the person of Jesus. There were things they could not get from God because the right address was not given. It is like in the gospel of Matthew 16:13-16 where Jesus asked His disciples that “Who do men say that I the Son of Man am?” many of the apostles gave the wrong address to Jesus. They responded by saying: some say you are John the Baptist; some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets. Christ again asked them: “Who do you say that I am?” When Peter gave the right answer, the Lord gave Peter a revelation of his person. Things and seasons will work for us as we give the right address and the right nature of things as God knows them to be. For anything you interpret wrongly will work against you than working for you. It is costly and dangerous to live your life with a blur vision. Lord may I find grace in your sight to know things in their real context and properness!

Blur visions will make people to live a life of misguided information that will lead to their ruin. This is because you will turn to honour what you were supposed to despise and despise what you were supposed to honour. It is just like if the devil would have known who Christ was, he wouldn't have laid hands on Him as the Bible states in 1 Corinthians 2:8 that “Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory”. Lord let me find grace in your sight to grow in knowledge; to be mature, and to see things in their properness.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord, deliver me from every form of corruption.
- 2- Oh Lord restore my vision and make it plain.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

THE POWER OF MEDITATION

The act of meditation is a bi-product that forms one's way of life or behavior. Meditation has to do with the act of contemplation on a discourse. It is also an act of devotional exercise or a careful and thorough thought on something or persons. Whatever you meditate on is going to produce a substance in your being. In our context, the wellbeing and the upkeep of your mind or spirit being should be centered on God's word. Of course with the knowledge of the word of God, you will come to understand that a thought or word that should govern you well should be scriptural and of course being guided and ordered by the Holy Spirit.

Before you ever get deep into meditating on something, check out the moral stand of the thing, the ethical and the legal stand of it. If it is not ethically right, legally or morally right, you should not meditate on it. The aftermath of meditation is so strong to govern and drive the affairs of your life. Words uttered or spoken are a bi-product of your thoughts. Your thought is the machinery room for your words and actions. That is why scriptures have it that for us to see good days, we must meditate on the prescribed word of God. In Psalm 104:34, the scripture tells us that

Psalm 104:34 “May my meditation be sweet to Him; I will be glad in the Lord.”

Being a child of God, you must take root in having delight in God’s word. When your delight for God becomes your meditation, the substance of divinity will find full ground in your life. That will make you to live a life that you will never be wanting in your walk of faith. The Psalmist says I will meditate of Him and my meditation of God will sweeten me and I will be glad in the Lord. Psalm 1:2-3 is the implementation of everyone that takes delight and meditates on God’s word wherewith it is written blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law, he meditates day and night. The outcome of that meditation is giving a quick response wherewith we are told in Psalm 1:3 that he shall be like a tree planted by rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season. Whose leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper. Of course in taking stance and taking refuge in God, all that which is God will gain grounds in your life. Your wellbeing will be measured by the depth of the word that preoccupies you, how much of God's word that governs you and how you meditate on it day and night.

The meditation of God's word in your spirit man illuminates your spirit and brings strength in you for greater exploits. You give your life a direction of divine leading by your meditation. You also access control in the spirit realm and even in the physical realm by the power of meditation. Your meditation can either justify or condemn you. As earlier said, if words become the bi-product of our meditation or our thoughts, Matthew 12:37 says by the words of your mouth you will be justified and by the words of your mouth you will be condemned. Every word spoken and every action taken are a reflection of our thought or meditation. In Philippians 4:8, Paul was writing to the church of Philippi, guiding them on what they should give their minds to. If you look at the prescription of this scripture, the apostle Paul says it was a prayer he was praying for the church because meditation is a spiritual act. He started the introduction in Philippians 4:6-7 by telling the brethren to be careful for nothing; but in everything, by prayer, supplication and thanksgiving, let their requests be made known to God. He went ahead to say the peace of God which surpasses all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ. He went further to say finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things.

If you look at the above scriptures, it is binding to a moral, legal and ethical code. Looking at the scriptures above, there are other things that the scripture tells us to layhold on in order to have good success. In 1 Timothy 4:11, the apostle Paul was giving instructions to Timothy the young pastor. He said these things command and teach; let no man despise your youth; but be an example of believers in words, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. He went ahead to say till I come, give attendance to reading, exhortation and to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in you which was given you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate on these things, give yourself wholly to them that your profiting may appear to all.

When you meditate on the right words, your fruits will not end you as a liability but as an asset. That is why the Lord gave Joshua a strict command to layhold on His word in Joshua 1:8-9

Joshua 1:8-9 “This book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage: do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”

Here the Lord is giving a command that as we meditate in His word, He will give us victory in life. So our failures and successes in life depend on what we meditate on. If you meditate on things out of God’s will, you will end up in pain and regrets. But if you meditate on God’s word, the things of God will be grounded in you and you will end up in true fulfillment in life. Even in the days of old, men like Isaac who must have learnt from his father Abraham, had time to meditate. The Bible tells us in Genesis 24:63 that before Rebecca came to meet Isaac, Isaac was in the field meditating. Meditate on God's word, meditate on His promises and this will lead to resounding praise, and you will live to enjoy the power of meditation.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for your word.
- 2- Lord I receive grace to live by the precepts of your word and to daily meditate on it.
- 3- Lord let the light that comes to me through your word shine in my life.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 4

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS AND DECLARE HIS WONDERS

Pondering on God's goodness is an attitude that is a weapon against the devices of the enemy. The goodness of God over our lives come first by God's declared words over our lives. It is not just based on the action that we may witness physically. It is the expression of God's goodness that He has shown forth His love to us. We should know that the declaration of God's goodness may not have its manifestation to what we may be thinking as mortals. The way God expresses His goodness may not come in the way we think as mortals but the end result is that it will work for our good. This is because the pathway of God is different from the pathway of men. Everything God does to us is by process as ordained by Him. Process may entail pain because there is no true transformation that will meet a purpose void of pain or challenges. Even when you are going through pain, you should know that you are loved by God and still know it will turn out for your good.

When we look at how the goodness of God lifted Joseph, the process was not very convenient to him as a mortal man, the goodness of God in the life of Joseph convened itself through process and that process led Joseph to face some challenges in declaring the goodness of God over his life. Joseph had a dream that showed how God was going to honour him. But the pathway for that dream to be fulfilled was to be through the process of God. Because of that process, Joseph experienced pain. But the latter days of Joseph on earth still showed a full expression of God's goodness. The mercy of God is an expression of God's goodness. One of the highest things God has done for us is giving us His presence to be with us anywhere we find ourselves. In Isaiah 43, God was declaring His faithfulness over Israel and telling her that under the water or the fire, when they seem not to know what is going on, they should know of certainty that He is their God.

It may not work the way I want it to work, it may not come the way I want it to come; but one thing is certain in my mind, God is good.

Isaiah 43:1-2 “But now, thus says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel: fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you.”

In the above passage, God guarantees us His presence. When the Lord Jesus was about to ascend to His throne, He told His disciples that He will be with them always even to the end of the age. The presence of God in the church is one of the biggest assets God has given to man. It is on this ground that we reassure ourselves as sons and daughters of God that we are not alone, God is involved. Even as it is written, if God be for us, who can be against us? Whatever you may be going through as a child of God which may be out of the scope of your expectation, you should be reassured that the intention of God for you is for good and not of evil. And if you remain faithful till the end, your expectation will not be cut off but it will be fulfilled as designed by the Lord. One thing you must know as a child of God is that the purpose of God for your life is stronger than your limitations and weaknesses; for we are kept for His purpose and for His glory.

When the devil afflicted Job, the intention of the devil was that Job should curse God. But still in the midst of that challenge, Job consoled himself and spoke to himself that God was good; and that his Redeemer was alive. Job did not curse God, he did not walk away from God but he blessed the name of the Lord. You are not a child of God by situation; you are a child of God because God created you as His child. Because God is good and you proceeded out of God, you are also good. It is on this note that the Psalmist declares in Psalm 139:14 that I will praise you for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Marvelous are your works and that my soul knows right well. Even in the darkest darkness, the one who loves you so much will always be with you.

Jesus as the Godman on earth told His audience that He was not alone but that the father that sent Him was always with Him. When we remember His marvelous works that He has done for us, we will declare His wonders and be joyful in the Lord. If the heavens can praise God for His wonders what are we doing on earth? We should do much more for the glory of God. Never you lose grip of your testimony; declare it, profess it and let your declaration of God's wonders become a pattern of your living. Don't allow the enemy to overwhelm you with what God has not done but declare to the world what God has done. In Psalm 105:5, the Bible tells us to remember His marvelous works that He has done and His wonders. Count your blessings and declare them ceaselessly. Let the praises of God never go off your mind or from your lips. When the devil knows that you are conscious of the doing of God in your life, it will be difficult for Him to attack your mind or to challenge you of what God has not done; for every project that God has started, He will take it to completion.

The essence of your testimony is a weapon to pull down the walls of darkness, to tell the devil that you have found contentment and satisfaction in your God. It is to tell the devil that you are complete in God, and that the Lord is your hope. Out of Him there is no hope. Think of the mercy of God that has brought preservation over your life, it is still a manifestation of God's goodness over our lives as it is written in the book of Lamentation 3:21-25 “This I recall to my mind, therefore I have hope. Through the Lord’s mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. The Lord is my portion, says my soul, therefore I hope in Him! The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.”

The declaration of God’s goodness in your spirit and through your lips is an expression of gratitude that frustrates the devil. The facts that the enemy may show to you by situation may never replace the truth of God’s love and goodness that surrounds you. You are who you are by divine declaration as mandated; you are not who you are by situations. Live in the volume of His provision for your life as written, not as imagined. Refer the enemy to what is written and not to what you imagine, for Jesus did not refer the devil to His imagination, but He referred the devil to the word of God. The written word of God says He is faithful, merciful, just, loving, He will never forsake me for He has made me His delight. Declare these things to people and to yourself day and night and you will be triumphant over the devices of the devil.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for your thoughts and plans for my life.
- 2- Lord I receive grace to daily walk in the light of your word.
- 3- Holy Spirit help me to declare the goodness and the wonders of God throughout my generation.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

BE JOYFUL

Philippians 4:4 “Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!”

Being joyful is tagged to the hope we have in the Lord. That hope should be steadfast because it is anchored to our faith and we know well that our walk of faith goes with hope and love for the Lord and bond for ourselves. Our hope is in the Lord and that hope is where we draw our strength and inspiration of walk with the Lord. Being joyful is a command given to us from the Lord because we know as it is written, in Him is the fullness of the Godhead bodily as it is written in Colossians 2:9. Knowing that we are complete in Him who is the fullness of the Godhead bodily, joy must keep flowing from within us not minding the situations we may encounter physically in the course of our walk with God.

We are told of the apostle Paul in Romans 8 where this servant of God was expressing the steadfastness of God's love over our lives. He said in the book of Romans 8 that who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or peril, or nakedness or sword? The word of God says No! In all these things we are more than conquerors through God that loves us. The servant of God expressed joy in the midst of tribulations and he also expressed joy in the midst of great events of celebration as he watched people turn to the Lord and the miraculous wonders of God in the midst of his children. In season and out of season, he made sure his joy for the Lord was intact. In Acts 16, Paul and Silas expressed their joy in the midst of persecution. We are told that in the course of their Macedonia trip, they encountered persecutions; one of which they were arrested. They were not only arrested but the Bible tells us that they got them well beaten with many stripes and they were casted into prison. But all those tribulations in their flesh did not affect their joy for the Lord and joy for the work of God.

We should endeavor to make sure that no matter whatever challenge we may be going through, let us be joyous in the Lord; let us sing praises to God, and this attitude will handicap the devil. The bible tells us in Acts 16:25 that though Paul and Silas were beaten and thrown into the prison, at midnight when the enemy was expecting them to give up; they rather stood tall in the Lord and for the Lord. The bible says at midnight, Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises to God and the prisoners heard them. In the midst of that challenge you are facing, rejoice in the Lord. Your joy will handicap and frustrate the devil.

In Nehemiah 8:10b, the Bible tells us the joy of the Lord is your strength. If you want to activate and manifest divine strength, be joyful in the Lord. As it is written, your life does not consist in the abundance of things it possesses, your life consists in Christ Jesus. Keeping the lamplight of your rising, make sure your walk with God is full of joy and peace in the Lord. No wonder the Lord says My peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give you, for the peace of God surpasses all understanding. Let the peace of God indwell you and you will always experience an outburst of joy.

John 14:27 “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.”

The peace of God that was upon the apostles is the same peace that is upon us today. In all the challenges they went through, they were never offended with God. May you never allow the challenges you are into to make you offended in God for our God is good. Those who were offended in the Lord ended up their lives in a way that was not good. John the Baptist, a major Old Testament prophet with a greater and mighty witness got upset because he expected God to do something that God did not do the way he wanted. In Luke 7:18-23, John had to send his disciples to go and question Jesus whether He was the Christ that was to come or they were to wait for another one. But remember that the same John the Baptist gave a witness in John 1:29 where he said “Behold the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world.” If we continue to get the testimony of John in John 1:29-34, that witness of John does not agree with his approach in Luke 7:18-20. Jesus replied to the disciples of John that they should go and tell John what they had seen and heard; that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised back to life and to the poor, the gospel is preached. Luke 7:23 says and blessed is he; whosoever, that shall not be offended in Me.

Our cry should be, O Lord help me never to be offended in my walk of faith with you. No matter what you might have been going through in the name of the Lord, embrace it with joy; for if you are counted worthy to suffer for the Lord and in

His name, scriptures say you will also reign with Him. Let the joy of the Lord be your strength in all situations; God bless you!

PRAYERS

- 1- O Lord keep my mind in health to rejoice in the Lord always.
- 2- Oh Lord let your indwelling presence saturate me with the peace and joy that comes from you.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in the name of Jesus.

A GREAT SIGHT

True values are birthed out of storms. Every encounter of distress you go through because of your walk with God, stay faithful because that journey is leading you to a great sight of recovery and announcement. You may be going through a tunnel now, hold on to the Lord and survive that tunnel for the journey through that tunnel is leading you to a great sight. Moses the servant of God who was once a prince in Egypt. Because of his love for God and the heart he had for the wellbeing of his brethren, he escaped the anger of Pharaoh and became a servant. What he went through reduced him to live a life of a commoner (a man who was once a prince). In Exodus 2:15, we are told that Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelled in the land of Midian. We are told that while in the land of Midian, Moses became a shepherd who took care of the flocks of Jethro, a prince of Midian, his father-in-law. Moses went through this tunnel for forty years. While he was a prince in Egypt he was being served but on his journey to a great sight, he served and lived in humiliation. It was the breaking down of Moses that led him to become a rising champion.

If we can't breakdown and embrace humiliation and reproach joyfully, the champion and the giant in us may never rise. This is because it takes a breaking down for one to obtain a greater lift in life. God never appeared to Moses when he was full of himself, God only appeared to Moses when he was empty of himself. It may not matter what you are doing for self-rising, if you will not get yourself broken, humble or empty, you will never rise in the hands of the Lord. It is your brokenness and humility in life that will lead you to your great sight of honour.

Exodus 3:1-3 "Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

And the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. Then Moses said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn.”

Moses's humility and meekness was tested through a tunnel for forty years and within those forty years, Moses was not heard. More often we make a mistake and think that when we go through the tunnel we should be heard. No one will hear you. If people will hear you, it means you have escaped the path of the tunnel. Your tunnel of fire and your tunnel of water will prove your humility. The tunnel is never going to be comfortable but your humility will be proven there. He who stays quiet but living in bitterness going through the journey of his tunnel and he that speaks bitterly, there is no difference. They are birds of a feather. For Moses's forty years of pain in Midian, he did not open his mouth. There is no record of him expressing bitterness or arrogance. It was this nature or character that Moses cultivated that led him to the great sight of his destiny. At that point, Moses did not see himself worthy of any greatness because he was already a finished man.

To you my loved ones reading this message, go through the process that God has set before you and become that finished product in the hands of the Lord. In your process to be formed in the hands of God, you are like the clay in the hands of the potter. Don't open your mouth in bitterness or stay quiet in bitterness; but rather, count it joy as you go through diverse trials.

James 1:2-3 “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.”

In all our Lord and Saviour went through, as written in Isaiah 53:1-12, the scripture tells us that He was oppressed, He was afflicted; yet He opened not His mouth. He was brought as a Lamb to the slaughter and as a sheep to its shearers but He opened not His mouth. What was the effect in Isaiah 53:11, that He shall see the travail of His soul and shall be justified for He shall bear their iniquities. The attitude we possess through our tunnel may either qualify us to get to our great sight or disqualify us never to get there. When Moses envisaged the great sight, there was still a call for humility. He answered to it and breakdown again. It was this breaking down that led to an unstoppable endowment of power and divine presence upon Moses's life. In conclusion, Philippians 2:1-11 gives us the picture of Jesus to emulate if we must capture our sight of greatness.

Looking at the above text of scripture, if we are able to mirror ourselves through this text, we will be able to go through the tunnel and capture our great sight. The same Egypt that Moses ran away from, when he got a view of the great sight of his destiny, he returned as a warrior and subdued Egypt. Egypt submitted under the leadership of Moses. Let the word of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit be your rearguard until you capture a view of that great sight that awaits you.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord help me through and grant me grace.
- 2- Holy Ghost help me to cultivate the attitude to capture my sight of greatness.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in the name of Jesus.
