KUMBA

Glory to God! I thank God for preserving my son's life. My son came back one evening around 8pm, took water to the bathroom to bath and he went off. I did not know where he had gone to. I waited for him to come back up till about 1am, he did not come back. We searched for him but could not see him. When he finally came back, we saw him lying down unconscious with no shoes on his feet. When I saw him like that, I took the "Manna Feast", placed upon his head and began praying. Then I ran to the pastor who rushed to my house at about 2am. After prayers, he recovered and we rushed him to the hospital. To the glory of God, a series of tests were conducted on him but nothing was seen. The sustaining power of God through the hand in the "Manna Feast" kept the child for he would have been killed that night. Till today, the slippers he went out with are nowhere to be found. The boy too testified that he never knew what happened, he just went to the bathroom and the rest is mystery. I want to return all the glory to God for His hand of preservation over my son's life. To God be the glory!

HOUSTON TEXAS

Praise the Lord! I thank God for the “Manna Feast” of the month of May 2025 titled “Dismantling Strongholds” I was so blessed by all the chapters particularly chapters 5 and 6; “Determined Discipline and the Stronghold of Ignorance” respectively. The knowledge I got from chapter 6 exposed and delivered me from the stronghold of ignorance in my life. I thank God for the G.O and his team and I pray their rewards will never escape them in Jesus name!

Pa Solomon:

Hallelujah! I thank God for taking care of me and my family right up till this moment. I was also blessed by chapter 2 of the “Manna Feast”, “The Godlife”. I understood that I can only have this life by faith in Christ Jesus and that in the Godlife, I have everything I need. I thank God for knowledge and I pray that God will continue to increase His servant and that the oil on his head will keep multiplying in the name of Jesus. Thank you Jesus!

Mama Martha:

NITOP IV

Praise God! I am most grateful to God for the “Manna Feast” of the month of May, the month of “Dismantling Strongholds”. I was blessed by all the chapters of the “Manna Feast” especially chapter 4 “O Thou Mountain”. After going through this chapter, it increased my faith in God and made me to serve God again with my whole heart. Thank you Jesus!

Pa Samson:

INTRODUCTION

We are welcome into another season of lifting tagged with greater responsibility that will sponsor a platform for values to be deposited; and have true expression. There is a commitment that when given into, it will draw the attention of the Almighty God to bring to pass what He has promised in His Word. For every noble come together, there must be a preparation for cleansing. The true revelation of the Word will sponsor the cleansing we need in order to appear before the Lord ready and wanting nothing.

Preparing the highway as being tagged in this season means there is an anticipation of an outpour of revival to bring into place the things that were dying to come alive. In other words, we are in the season of beholding the latter glory. This glory will not find expression if we don't rise to clean, to prepare and to make ready the highway for the Lord. So, for every called out or sort out, take a reexamination of your being as a vessel and purge it to be ready for the Master's use. As we join forces together in this season, let us open up the highway for the Lord by dealing with those things that stand as obstacles of flow between us and the throne of the Almighty God. Our readiness will be proven as we rise and get committed to do those things that are expected of us from the Lord in this season.

There shall be a quickening and a lifting as the Lord will call you by name to give you attention. This is like John will cry in the wilderness; he said make straight the path of the Lord! Let the closed gates of iniquity be lifted and be taken out of the way; and let us make a highway for the Lord so that the King of Glory will come in. Once more, you are all welcome into this new era. Exalt the Lord!

CLEAN UP THE CAMP

Hebrews 12:1 “Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,”

Coming to God is to learn and apply our lives to His ways. Before thinking of a union or a close walk with God, it is important for us to look at what separated us from the presence of God that was meant to be a shield for us and a covering for our glory and honour. If we can count anything that separated us from God, it was as a result of the sin of disobedience. In other words, disobedience is when we know the right thing to do but we refuse to do it; or, when we rebel against God who has commanded us to obey His Word. Our disobedience made us to get to the point where we were deceived by our hearts and minds to feel that we could get a better version of us out of God that created us. Even nowadays, many have heard the Word of God (the Truth); but they are still being carried away by deception; feeling that, they can have a better version of their lives out of the pathway of God. Some may not want to do the things they are doing but they can't help themselves to keep away from doing those things. Others are addicted to evil habits and this addiction has made them to fall short of the glory of God.

For us to clean the camp, there is a point we have to acknowledge that we have gone wrong by the fruits we have produced in the past. This is because our fruits are the measuring rod to prove whether we are replicating or producing God's intended plans for our lives or not. So we must clean the camp by taking into consideration self-examination of our lives. The above scripture calls it the sin which so easily ensnares us. There are things the enemy hopes to do in our lives. This is because there are besetting sins which act as a stronghold against our wellbeing. So let us identify those strongholds and loopholes in our lives and take them to God in repentance. Anytime we fail to repent from a sin, we are saying "God we don't need you”; but each time we come to God in genuine repentance, we are saying “Lord, we need you and we need your help”. The Good Lord takes pleasure when we repent of the wrong things we have done. Let us check our lives and clean the camp from every attitude or habit that defileth.

When John the Baptist began his earthly ministry, there was need for men that listened to the gospel to amend their ways. One of the things John emphasized on and reiterated was “Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!” Many of us need to repent and be delivered from the sin of compromise. Compromise is breaking the Lord’s standard of our lives as passed onto us by the fathers. Each time we compromise, it is because we want to impress men. Each time we prepare the way for the Lord, mercy will triumph over judgement. We must make amendment with men and with God. We can’t claim to be worshippers of God while we keep grudges, enmity, bitterness, and unforgiveness with our fellow human beings. We must be sincere, speak the truth to ourselves, walk and live by it for the presence of truth in us gives us the license to freedom. As we all acknowledge where we have fallen and genuinely repent of the sins we have committed, God will have mercy and He will restore us back to the place of glory and honour.

As long as we keep ourselves pure, the Lord will show up for us and do those things that only He alone is capable of doing. Let us purge our lives from the old leaven; like the Psalmist will cry out in Psalm 51:7 that purge me with hyssop and I shall be clean, wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.

1 Corinthians 5:7, the Bible says “Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us.”

As children of God and as individuals anticipating for God’s attention, we must be serious with our commitment that will sponsor our lifting. Our union as believers must be able to bear fruits that make us shine as the light of the world and be tasteful like the salt of the earth that has not lose its saltiness. As we all know from scriptures, the strongest virtue that will make all other virtues to find expression in our midst as sons and daughters of God is the virtue of love. We cannot claim to be children of God when we live a life of unforgiveness, backbiting one another, destroying what we were called to build. Love must be seen among us; longsuffering must be seen among us. Patience, humility, kindness, peace, joy in the Holy Ghost must all be seen among us. Let us live as brethren indeed showing forth the praise of God. We must show the picture of who God has made us to be in Christ Jesus as scriptures declare in

1 Peter 2:9 “But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;”

Let us get rid of all dead works; let there be neither strife nor division among us because every act of sin in us and among us makes us to be participants of what God hates and frowns at. Of course the Blood of Jesus is there to help cleanse us from all unrighteousness; the Word of God is there to purge us from all uncleanness and free our conscience from dead works so that we can serve God uprightly. We should not allow material things to destroy our eternal relationship with God. We should be spiritually minded and not to be carnally minded for to be carnally minded is dead and enmity with God but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Let us rise in faith today to know we can live righteously and free from every besetting sin. Let us prepare a highway for the move of God by living lives of purity and righteousness.

If the blood of animals covered sin, the blood of Jesus will cleanse it for us and make us to be true tabernacles for the indwelling of the Lord. Let us arise and live for the Lord.

Hebrews 9:13-14 “For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?"

Let us clean the camp; let us walk in love, let us live in peace with one another, upholding the banner of the Lord.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord search me and try me!
- 2- Lord in your mercy, forgive me and cleanse me from all unrighteousness.
- 3- Lord restore in me the integrity of the godlife I once possessed.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

WHAT KIND OF VESSELS?

There is a need for preparation for every divine endowment upon any vessel. You have the role as a person to determine what kind of vessel you would be before God. We have much to do as concerns our rising and functionality in the sight of God and men. Being a vessel of honour or a vessel of dishonour is a matter of choice for God is not partial. He has opened the highway of becoming before us; so with the grace of God given to us, you can rise and sponsor your change and determine what kind of vessel you will be; either a vessel of honour or a vessel of dishonour. We must understand what it takes for one to become a vessel of honour.

A vessel of honour is a vessel meet for the Master's use. It means that vessel has kept himself or herself ready for the Master's use. With the life we have, what are the things we need to do so as to become in our making as God's vessels? Are we vessels of righteousness or vessels of sin? Vessels of sin will always suffer reproach while vessels of righteousness shall be exalted. And the righteousness tagged here is not self-righteousness but the righteousness of God in Christ for us. This righteousness gets its worth depending on our obedience to the Lord. Dishonoured vessels became dishonoured because of their disobedience to God while honoured vessel became vessels of honour because of their obedience. When we truly obey God, the effect of it is the peace and life that will follow us and that we will be identified by. Vessels of honour will be lifted by their obedience while vessels of dishonour will be abhorred and trodden underfoot. Being called by God, we have all been called into a great house but we have the choice to make.

2 Timothy 2:20 “But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honour and some for dishonour.”

When we look at those that God called, God has always called all of us with the good intention of making us instruments of honour. But like He will say, “I set before you life and death; but choose life that you might live”. As a vessel of honour, there are things you need to possess like:

The fear of God; reverence for God; who you reverence, you keep watch not to be an offense to Him; you live for His good pleasure. When you reverence God you live for His pleasure. When you live for the pleasure of God, you will end up being a vessel of honour.

Another aspect that will end you as a vessel of honour is knowledge; you must be endowed with knowledge. The knowledge of God’s Word must be rooted in you and you must be grounded in the Word. The Psalmist says your word I have hidden in my heart that I may not sin against you; Psalm 119:11.

Jeremiah 15:16 “Your words were found, and I ate them, and your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart; for I am called by Your name, O Lord God of hosts.”

Every word carrier will emerge as a vessel of honour because the amount of the knowledge of the word of God you have will reveal the content of God's glory over your life Habakkuk 2:14. Looking at the above scriptures, we need to eat the scripture so that it becomes food to our minds and our spirits. A vessel of honour must be equipped with the knowledge of the Word.

As a vessel of honour, you must be an epitome of love and you should be respectful. One thing with the virtue of love is that those who truly have love are humble people because those with genuine love are servants and not bosses. One of the greatest Commandments of God is that we should love the Lord our God with all our hearts, all our souls and all our minds; and then we should love our fellow humans as ourselves Matthew 22:37-39. With the seed of God's love in you, you will always go along with the presence of God and God's presence is your guarantor and staff of victory in all grounds of life. When God takes pleasure in your life and honours you, every other thing must honour you. The making of your vessel is your responsibility.

Gather knowledge, guard that which has been given to you and grow in them. It is the Lord's goodwill to glorify Himself in your life. So don't fall back; press through and go through. The kind of vessel you want to be, rise and work it out. Get your content filled with true virtues. Give in to discipline and principles and these will facilitate your rising.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord help me to work out my content for your glory.
- 2- Lord help me to bring forth the honour I was created to manifest.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

WORD CONTENT

What occupies a man controls the man. There is power in words. Jesus says the words you hear from Me are spirit and they are life. Looking at word content, it has to do with the substance of life which of course gets its birth from scriptures. Your might of manifestation will tie to the revelation of the word that governs you. People that are endowed with the word of life are people that are license to command the issues of life. This is because if the same measure of revelation that God used to command the world to be formed gets hold of you, you will do likewise in the name of the Lord. Most of the manifestations that await us as sons and daughters of God will be sponsored by the volume of revelation we carry. Your revelation will revolutionize your world. The magnitude or the volume of the word you carry will play a vital role in raising you up as a champion and a victor over the affairs of life.

Moses manifested word content, Jesus, Elijah, Daniel, all manifested word content. The revelation of the word produces in you an excellent spirit that calls the attention of men and women that matter towards you. The Lord tells us in scriptures in Psalm 40:7, then said I Lo I come in the volume of the book it is written of me; word content. This scripture is reiterated in the book of Hebrews where it states; then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God Hebrews 10:7. Paul looked at his son in the Lord Timothy and said; you have known the scriptures from childhood which is able to make you wise.

2 Timothy 3:15 “And that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.”

Paul still went ahead to tell Timothy that he should study to show himself approve 2 Timothy 2:15. As you advance in your mission, your approval in the issues of life will be based on the amount of word content you carry. The worth of one's life is approved by knowledge; not by ignorance. Ignorance will never approve a worth in one's life, you must not afford to live in ignorance. Living in ignorance is living in darkness and anyone that walks in darkness stumbles and falls. That is why scripture says buy the truth and sell it not Proverbs 23:23.

Be enriched with knowledge, go for it, get that knowledge at all cost and it will radiate your life. No one with word content can be kept bound. All those we ever celebrated, one thing was peculiar about them; they manifested a high level of knowledge. Knowledge enables you to possess an excellent spirit; and everyone endowed with excellence will be lifted, preserved and honoured. Make sure you keep growing in the volume of the word. The Apostle Paul told the Colossians that "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly" Colossians 3:16. Endeavor to have an in-depth knowledge of the word of God for the word of God is God Himself. As you get this word by revelation, understand the profound mystery and meaning of it; then you will realize that in the midst of storms, what threatens others can never threaten you because you live and act by revelation. It is just like what threatened the servant of Elisha could not threaten Elisha because the word content which he got by revelation governed the affairs of his life. The knowledge you acquire today will one day speak for you. Keep learning and learning the right things; keep empowering yourself in the various disciplines that are in demand. It was the strength of the word that made Moses a mighty man in his days both in Egypt, among the Egyptians and among the Israelites. Scripture records in Acts 7:22 that Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

The true picture of the disciples of the Lord is the presence of the knowledge that they carry for the Lord told them in John 8:31 that if you continue in My word, then you are My disciples indeed. Keep enlarging your word content child of God. It takes those filled with knowledge to interpret their seasons and their times and what you can rightly interpret, you can rightly handle. Keep growing in knowledge and bring your world under the control of the revelation that the word is bringing into your life for the glory of God. Refuse to be shallow for deep calls for deep. Your place is on top; not beneath, your place is at the head; not at the tail. The Lord says if we shall diligently hearken to what He is giving us this day, then He will drive us to the frontline Deuteronomy 28:1-3.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord grant me grace to empower my word content.
- 2- Lord give me the access to be empowered with the revelation of your word.
- 3- Oh Lord let me grow with the keys of knowledge.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 4

EXALT THE LORD!

One aspect that will keep you soaring in the strength and favour of God is the ability to get the name of God praised, lifted and honoured in our lives. This is tagged by our activities and communications both within and without with those we interact with daily. Exalting the Lord is living a life where its fruits can be able to reflect the nature of God that made us and the nature of God whom we serve. We should make God known in this world of darkness and declare His acts among the heathen. We should rejoice in the Lord with the saints; not hiding the identity of God in you, but spreading the Good News. By so doing, you are exalting His name.

In the book of 2 Kings 5, we are told of a little Israelite damsel that exalted the Lord in a strange land called Syria.

2 Kings 5:2-3 “And the Syrians had gone out on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She waited on Naaman's wife. Then she said to her mistress, if only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy"

Looking at the above scripture, this was a slave girl who did not allow her condition to hide the testimony of God. No matter what you are going through at the moment, keep lifting up the name of the Lord. The girl made known to the mistress the channel of God in Samaria in the person of Elisha the prophet. Her body was enslaved but her spirit was never enslaved. When she told her mistress the strength of her God, that act of exaltation, acknowledgement and testimony, she was confident and God did not turn away her confidence. This is because when Naaman obeyed the report of this girl and moved to Samaria to see the Prophet, God honoured His word that came through the mouth of the girl. Naaman was healed from leprosy because the slave girl did not hide her identity but exalted the Lord. She declared the mighty works of God among the heathen. One cannot imagine how that girl was esteemed when Naaman returned back from Samaria being healed of his leprosy. If before now she was being looked upon as a nobody, after the encounter of her master with the God she exalted, the God she worshipped; they must have looked at her with high esteem. Don't allow any situation to hinder you from declaring the wonders of God that you have experienced.

In the book of Daniel 1, from history, Daniel and his brethren were taken to Babylon as war prisoners but in that situation they exalted the Lord. They lifted up a standard for God; they did not bow to graven images. In Daniel 1:8, Daniel and his brethren honoured God by not defiling themselves. They maintained a status that glorified God and after that, God glorified His name in their lives. Don't shy away from being responsible; be responsible enough and exalt God. Daniel told the one who was in charge of feeding the selected wise men in Babylon that he will not defile himself with the king's delicacies. Of course Daniel and his brethren were also selected among the wise men. Step by step, the Babylonians that looked low on the children of Israel that had been taken captive began looking up to them when God began honouring Daniel. The Bible says Daniel found favour with the prince of the eunuchs because he took upon himself to exalt God. He did not hide his stance in a strange land just like the little girl in Syria did not hide her stance for God. In return, God honoured Daniel. The Bible tells us that when the final day came, the rankings of Daniel with his companions were ten times better than all the other wise men in Babylon Daniel 1:19-20. When you exalt the Lord, He will in return honour you.

As a child of God, don't hide your identity because of the challenges you are going through in life. You have friends that have never known about Jesus, open up and tell them about Jesus. Paul says I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation for everyone that believes. Wherever God is taking you to; whatever He is taking you through, maintain a standard of life to glorify Him and to make Him known to your world. Whatever you are going through don't be ashamed of the Lord. Let those that meet you or come in contact with you know that you are a child of God. Let our mouths keep on speaking the praises of our God as we daily live to declare His wonders to the ends of the earth.

When Paul and Silas were thrown into prison, they exalted God and He showed up for them.

We should forever exalt God as the Psalmist declares in Psalm 145:1-5 “I will extol you, my God, O King; and I will bless your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless you, and I will praise Your name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise Your works to another. And shall declare your mighty acts. I will meditate on the glorious splendour of Your majesty, and on your wondrous works.”

Exalting God at all times and in all situations will earn us honour for that is a mark of maturity. Paul will say in everything give Him thanks; in need in abundance give Him thanks for you are a defender of the gospel. Live to that standard for His grace is abundantly sufficient. Walk in the lamplight of His word and keep glorifying Him like Daniel and Joseph did. They didn't forget where they were coming from. They stayed alive in their walk with God. Child of God wherever you are, even if there are no brethren with you or no pastor to watch over you or to speak over your life, walk worthy of the vocation with which you were called and God in return will be exalted and will honour you as a vessel. Let the lamplight of the Word remain a catalyst in our walk with God. Daily walk in grace for His grace is sufficient. As the Holy Ghost takes the lead, you will find joy in doing just that which brings joy to the heavens.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord grant me grace to live a life of exalting you.
- 2- Take out of the way anything that does not give you glory.
- 3- Oh Lord help me to maintain the integrity of my life.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

THE FLAVOUR OF FAVOUR

1 Peter 5:5 “Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

In life, all humans if not all will always admire and celebrate the easiest way of attaining a goal with little or no stress. Everyone also gets delighted when they see that the ultimate best of their worth are brought forth to recognition and also applauded. But this we all know that every journey worthwhile is tantamount to resistances and attacks. At times the attacks you face may need other people to come to your assistance in order to enable you deliver the expected goals. Looking at our subject, there are two words to be noted; flavour and favour.

Favour has an attitude that attracts it and we term the attitude flavour. Favour is when you find assistance to be made qualified for something, which if that assistance was absent, you wouldn't have been qualified for it. What then is the flavour that attracts favour? We call that the flavour of favour. One of the things that act as a base that pulls favour or assistance to those in need is character. We can rephrase this by saying that character is the flavour of favour. This means everyone with a virtuous character will always attract the favour that will work for them. But if you lack this character, though you may long for favour, it may never locate you. There are many people that have forfeited favour that was to make them up and make them praiseworthy. Any character you keep that restrains people from attending to you, will make you remain enslaved in the issues of life because your becoming depends on someone somewhere who will take your hand from where you are to the height you desire to attain. If you are in quest of favour, work on your character for that is the foundation upon which favour can be attracted to and find full expression in you. If character is the base upon which favour can find expression, it is therefore very important for us to look at what defines character.

Character by dictionary definition is the moral strength of an individual that depicts the uniqueness of a person; the peculiar or notable traits that identifies with an individual. When we go down scriptures, you will realize that those who were able to manifest a peculiar noble character were all favoured and they drew strength or favour from those that were in the position of power. The strength they drew attained to them and changed their status.

One of the things in character trait that attracts people's attention consciously or unconsciously is the ability to stay humble even when you have reasons to react or speak back in arrogance. As often said, humility is not stupidity and humility is not weakness. A humble man is a person empowered with the strength of God while a proud fellow is one void of God's strength and God's favour. So, one of the flavours for favour is humility. You may be equal to something but by the virtue of humility, you will not make yourself equal to that thing. The Bible tells us in the gospel of Luke that Jesus grew up in favour with God and with men. It is important for us to find out the virtues He possessed that made Him to find favour with God and with men. In the same scripture, it is noted that He was humble.

Luke 2:1-52 “Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.”

Looking at the above scriptures, the Bible tells us that Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favour with God and men. What brought about this favour was that Jesus was humble. The Bible explains in the same text that He went down with His parents to Nazareth and was subject to them. In other words, He was humble, obedient and submissive to them. This was people’s report about Him. Each time you submit to the right course in life, your own life becomes better. Looking at the Gospel of Matthew Jesus Himself declared to us the nature He had that drew the attention of men, women, angels, creatures from different walks of life Matthew 11:29-30.

Matthew 11:29-30 “Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for i am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

When we look at the above scriptures, Jesus says learn of Me for I am meek and lowly in heart. This is the flavour that draws favour. A man that is meek and lowly in heart will find favour in God and in men. When favour starts to express itself in your life, the Bible says you will find rest. In the book of Philippians 2 the scripture tells us about Christ’s nature again that makes Him full of grace and truth. John’s record says Jesus was full of grace and truth. What are the things that made Him to be full of grace and truth, He was meek and lowly in heart.

In Philippians 2:5-9 precisely from the Message Bible, the scripture says think of yourself the way Christ thought of Himself. Do you think of yourself as a humble servant or a proud boss?

Philippians 2:5-9 “Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of Himself. He had equal status with God but didn’t think so much of Himself that He had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, He set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, He stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn’t claim special privileges. Instead, He lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death – and the worst kind of death at that: a crucifixion. Because of that obedience, God lifted Him high and honoured Him far beyond anyone or anything, ever,” (MSG)

So the flavour of humility and meekness committed the virtue of favour to rest upon the life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. He possessed a name in heaven and on earth as endorsed by His Father that at the mention of His name every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. What brought that endorsement was His brokenness and humility. True humble men and women are kindhearted people and they are people of goodwill. In their goodwill, many interpret them for being weak and foolish but in actual sense they are not. If you are a nagging person, favour may never have an entrance into your life. If you are arrogant and proud in nature, if you are hot-tempered, bitter hearted, these are the vices that drive favour away from people. When you lack self-control and patience you may never attract the force of favour.

Abraham found favour, he wasn't a hot tempered person, he was a man of goodwill; so too was Joseph. Esther and Ruth found favour they were never hot-tempered but women of goodwill. It was the character of Esther that attracted the favour she enjoyed Esther 2:15. It was the character of Daniel that attracted the favour of God over his life. So your character can either attract favour to work for you or send favour away from you. You can know by the struggle of your life; a man under favour ceases from struggling while a man void of favour will keep struggling. The Bible tells us how Israel got to the Promised Land. One thing is certain here, they got there by favour as the Bible tells us.

Psalm 44:3 “For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them; but it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of your countenance, because you favoured them.”

Let your character produce the flavour that will attract favour and favour will launch you into your rest, honour and glory.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord teach me to be humble.
- 2- Lord grant me knowledge to culture my character.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

SECURITY I GOT

John 10:28 “And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.”

The steadfastness of the Lord over His flock cannot be overemphasized. Being born of God licenses you under the surveillance and protection of God. It is immaturity that makes us feel that we are alone when we are faced with situations. Nevertheless, let us be conscious of this one word from the Lord “I will never leave you nor forsake you”. The Lord Jesus is our security by day and by night. One of the things that sponsor growth is the amount of His revealed word that have accessed our lives and spirits. As God is concerned and as we live and walk in obedience before Him, our going out and coming in is blessed by Him. God treasures us so much so that in an analogy expression, it is said that we are the apple of His eyes. The life He has given to us is the life that comes from Him. In fact, He has given us His life. He says He gives us eternal life and we will not perish. This means His life in us is our security. That is why when you are born of God, there is a statement in scripture that gives a mockery to both death and the grave in the book of

1 Corinthians 15:55 “O death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?”

We are securely preserved in the life the Lord has given to us. That is why scripture tells us we are complete in Him. The consciousness of this knowledge and its revelation propels us to a rest that outward circumstances should not move us. We should remain immovable as sons and daughters of God for we get our security from Him in this life and in the life to come. Jesus portrays this immortality when He told the Jewish people “Break down this temple and I will build it back after three days.” That was talking about His death and resurrection. Death and grave have been conquered. The life of God in us compels us to hear God, love Him and obey Him. That which is Christ Jesus, the Father watches over it to make sure that nothing bad or corruptible should touch it. You are secured in His hands and no man can pluck us out of His hands. In fact we have security in Christ; we have security in the Father. Jesus in John 10:29 says My Father which gave them to Me is greater than all. And no man is able to pluck them out of My Father's hand. In the book of Deuteronomy 32:10, the Lord says He found him in a desert land and in the wasteland, a howling wilderness; He encircled him, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eyes.

Psalms 17:8 says we are kept as the apple of His eyes and He has hidden us under the shadow of His wings. Day and night speak to yourself I got the security of God, I got His protection. The Lord has made a wall of defense roundabout me. As our eyes of faith remain lifted up to the Lord, the commitment of God over our lives for our defense and protection will keep speaking and manifesting just like the Psalmist says in Psalms 121:1-8 “I will lift up my eyes to the hills – from whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. He will not allow your foot to be moved; He who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, He who keeps Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand. The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve you from all evil; He shall preserve your soul. The Lord shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.”

His indwelling presence is in us and with us. His indwelling presence is our security. So walk with the awareness or consciousness of being driven or led or accompanied by divine presence wherever you are. With God’s presence with you, you can always draw the supernatural to work for you when need be and when duty calls. The kind of security He gave the three Hebrew boys in the fiery furnace of fire, He can still give you when need be. The kind of security He gave the Apostle Peter that caused him to exit the prison while the doors were still locked, that same security is available to sons and daughters of God. You can get that manifestation by your faith. He clearly tells us in Matthew 28:20 that I am with you always even to the end of the world. This is our confidence for the name of the Lord is a Strong tower and the righteous run into it and are safe Proverbs 18:10. You are kept in Him, you are preserved in Him. Walk in this glorious provision of the Lord and keep celebrating the life that Christ has given to us. That life of His is in us so we are secured; my life is in Him, so I am secured. That is why scriptures tag you as gods and scriptures cannot be broken. Your awareness of the truth of the word will open to you the riches of the kingdom. God bless you!

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord I am grateful for you being my security.
- 2- Lord thank you for giving me your life.
- 3- Holy Ghost create an awareness and consciousness of this truth within my being.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.
