MINISTRY TESTIMONIES FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST 2025

HOUSTON TEXAS

Glory to God! I thank the Lord for His love and mercy over my life and my family. I also thank God for the month of August; the month of “Power Shift”. After going through this particular edition of the “Manna Feast”, I am strengthened and revived. The booklet and the audio messages have been of great impact not only to me but also to the entire family and we return all the glory to God for this timely provision. Praise God!

Pa Solomon:

NITOP IV

Praise Master Jesus! I am much grateful to God for His healing hand over my life. My first child is 8years old and before I gave birth to her, I was diagnosed of Hepatitis B and I have been living on drugs. After that child I have had 3 other children still living on drugs. During the crusade program in church, the pastor prayed for me and I believed strongly that I was healed. After that program I went to the hospital for another test and to the glory of God, it was negative. I return all the glory to Jehovah Rapha! Thank you Lord!

Sister Melanie:

INTRODUCTION

We are grateful to God for His ceaseless love for us over the time. We are all welcome into this season wherewith responsibility is set before us to respond to. This has to do with our commitment of setting a standard of intimacy with God. The glue that guarantees us a victorious walk can be measured on the platform of how intimate we are with God. We are grateful to God for it is His plan and intention for us that we should not walk with Him at a distance but live with Him in intimacy; just like He declared in scriptures, that He will dwell among us; He will be our God and we will be His children.

Loved ones, the key, which of course should pivot all other keys will have to do with our love for God. The One you love you seek His will; the One you love, you give into His will, the One you love, you propagate and grow His intentions and plans as expected. Of course we will lean on the grace of God to endow us with all it takes in this season to maintain a walk of intimacy with God thereby shunning every works of darkness, holding forth to the truth and walking in the light of God's Word. Our yardstick of intimacy as earlier said will be measured by our love and commitment to God. The possibility of this act of intimacy is wrapped up in the grace of God which will take an action of faith from us to get it done. Once more you are welcome into the season of Raising a Standard of Intimacy with the Lord. God bless you!

WALKING IN LOVE

Ephesians 5:1-2 “Therefore be imitators of God as dear children. And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma.”

Walking in love is termed in a measure of commitment and obedience in the pathway that the Lord has set before us. The bible commands us as dear sons and daughters of God to be followers of God. In other words, we give in our all to everything that will bring praise and glory to the name of the Lord. If we be followers of God as dear children, we will maintain a life of righteousness both in the sight of men and God; living in peace among ourselves. One of the things that have made love not to have its right expression in our midst as children of God is just because we have a wrong interpretation of the word love. Love can be expressed in this form; love is an expression of one's contribution in another's life to make that individual more worthwhile than they were before they met us. The love for others in our lives works also in like manner. For the love of God expressed for humanity did not come to take the good of humanity but turning the unworthy life of humanity, buried in sin to be raised and become a life of admiration, beauty and glory; making what was hopeless to become hopeful.

Walking in love is making all that which is Christ to become more outstanding in its properness as ordained by God. Of course walking in love is sacrificial for when God loved us, He sacrificed His Son for us. In John 15, the Bible tells us

John 15:13 “Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.”

The laying down of our lives for our friends is for the purpose and the will of God to be done both in our lives and in the lives of those we are laying down our lives for. Our lives as sons and daughters of God will be wonderful if you labour for me and I labour for you in the Lord and in the name of the Lord. The operation of our organs can be termed an analogy of how our walk with one another is supposed to be. Every member of the body labour for one another and that is what keeps the body bonded together. If we rise today to labour for one another in the Lord, no power on earth will be able to break our bond. But what makes our lives not to respond in many aspects is that we profess love but we don't live it; neither does love actually lead us. In most cases we express the opposite of what is demanded of us from the Lord.

Many at times, we don't express love but we express a game of interest. We live a life to exploit one another in the guise of love but that is not love. Most unions and fellowships in the name of the Lord are not able to live to standard because it is a kind of a gathering of people who have selfish attitudes. That is, selfish men and women coming together in the name of the Lord. You are looking at your brother how you can exploit him and your brother is looking at you how he can exploit you. We can't brand such expression to be love; that is selfishness. The Lord taught is this: being our Master we were supposed to wash His feet; but, the Lord washed our feet. Being our Master we were supposed to die for Him to live; but, He died for us to live. As we walk in love, we must nourish one another in the Lord for their betterment. We must not afford to do those things that will distort the nature of God in our lives that need to grow and bear the fruit of the Spirit. We can't maintain a life of intimacy with God if we can't portray the true virtue of love. Love commands us to care for one another.

Philippians 2:3-4 "Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others."

When we walk in love, God's indwelling presence will go along with us. As long as His presence goes with us, the things that are attached to our lives which are not of God He will pluck them off and only the things that are of God will abide and identify with us for our wellbeing and for the glory of God. When we look into the wellbeing of others, God will also move persons or systems to look into our wellbeing. The worldly system cannot comprehend this because it is a system of destroying others to live but the pattern of the kingdom is going down for others to become better. That is why there is a reward for everyone that will walk through the pathway that the Lord has set before us. We are called to raise a standard of intimacy with the Lord and we can't do that without expressing true love as prescribed to us by the Lord. Scripture tells us that the virtue of love of God cannot determine ill to his neighbor.

Romans 13:10 "Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law."

Love does not work ill; the virtue of love does not make one arrogant or proud, rather, the virtue of love makes one simple. Its simplicity is not foolishness but wisdom in its peak. A man who truly loves is a man who is humble and meek. He is one who always hopes for the better and does not keep records of evil. A man who truly loves maximizes opportunity to make things better. The book of 1 Corinthians 13 tells us the effects of love. The scripture says love is kind, love suffers long; love does not keep records of wrong, love does not envy, love is not puffed up. 1 Corinthians 13:7 says love goes a long way in this manner: love bears all things, hopes all things, believes all things and endures all things; love never fails. Every other thing may fail but love never fails.

Love stands as a foundational virtue to build intimacy with God; because the one you love you don't offend. The one you love you praise, you cherish, you uplift and you glorify. So let us walk in love. It takes a man who forgives not to keep records of evil; a man who does not forgive will always keep records of evil. Everyone that keeps records of evil quickly forgets the good that has been shown or was done to him in the past. As we have been called to walk in love, let us walk in love and live in love.

PRAYERS

- 1- Father thank you for the revelation of your Word.
- 2- Lord I receive grace to live and walk in love towards you and towards men.
- 3- Lord grace me to daily bear the fruits that love expects me to bear.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

BE THANKFUL

1 Thessalonians 5:16&18 “Rejoice always. Verse 18: In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.”

The command or instruction given to us as children of God to thank God for everything may not be comprehensible to many people. But when we sum up the thoughts and plans of God for our lives, we will understand the reason why scripture commands us to thank God for everything. He concludes that it is the will of God. There are things that we may not understand but those things are working for us as ordained by God. Another reason why we should be thankful to the Lord ties to the nature of God, the plans and thoughts of God for our lives that can be well seen in the expression of His love for us; that even when we didn't know Him as we ought to, when we didn't have enough witness and knowledge of His person as we ought to, His mercy, His love was there for us, working for our good. We can see the expression of all God's provisions from the spiritual to the physical in that if we are left to ourselves, we can't survive. Because of His goodwill and thoughts towards us as scripture will tell us He has given us everything that pertains to life and godliness.

The aspect of thanking God is to appreciate Him for all He has put in place for us; and failure to do so, we are ranked among the class of ungrateful people or ingrates. Being ungrateful or unthankful can never work for us because we cannot become any better out of the plan that God has for us. The best version of our lives is not out of God but in God. It is just like He will tell us in Jeremiah 29:11 that "I know the thoughts I think towards you, thoughts of peace and not of evil to give to you an expected end." We must be thankful to God for the air we breathe, for giving us a reasoning that can make our world developmental. We must thank God even for the things we see as if they are not working for our good because the end results are that they will only turn to our good.

A thankful spirit will keep us away from a lot of traps of the devil. When you are not thankful in life, you will fall into many traps of the devil. Everything that comes to somebody who is appreciative and thankful, he will show gratitude for it; but for an unthankful person, there is nothing that is sufficient enough to feed their ego irrespective of what you are doing or what God is doing for them. One of the things that led to the unbelief of the Israelites in the wilderness is the attitude of being ungrateful and unthankful. During the exodus, Israel cried of hunger and God provided them with manna to sustain their lives. But their response even when God gave them manna was appalling. One of the attitudes you find in people who are unthankful is that they find fault in everything. People who are in such situations will need the mercy of God to help them out because if not, they may never end well. In Numbers 11:6, we can see how Israel despised the provision of God and if you are that one that underrates, despise or underlook every good thing God is doing in your life, in the family, in the church and in the land, it is time for you to cultivate a thankful spirit and deliver yourself from this yoke of the enemy.

Numbers 11:6 “But now, our whole being is dried up; there is nothing at all except this manna before our eyes!”

Look at the response of the Israelites in the wilderness; they acted as if God gave them nothing. They asked is it not just this manna? If God gave them manna and they despised it, what did they give themselves? If what somebody has given to you; the sacrifice, the time someone sacrifices to you and you see it as nothing, you should ask yourself what have you offered to yourself; talkless of offering to others? We should know that the status in which we are now, millions, if not billions of people have not attain that status yet they are thankful to God. There are men that have no eyes yet they thank God for life. There are men without arms or feet, without companions in life yet they thank God for life. One song writer said “Have you said so today thank you Jesus?” For seeing a new day, for the things you are that only God has what it takes to sponsor it, we should be thankful.

This will draw our attention to the five loaves of bread and two fishes; the apostles did not see it worthwhile but Jesus took the provision and never gave complain of it but rather, He thanked God for it.

John 6:5,9-11 “Then Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to Philip, where shall we buy bread, that they may eat? Verse 9-11: There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are they among so many? Then Jesus said, make the people sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand, and Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.”

The above scriptures make us see that we live in a world where men don't find reasons to be thankful or appreciative in life. While the disciples complained about the five loaves of bread and two fishes, Jesus thanked God and in thanking God, the flood gates of abundance was opened and they were not able to exhaust all that which the attitude of thankfulness brought. The world in which we find ourselves is filled with ungrateful people but we should be able to emancipate from ungratefulness to be grateful, thankful and appreciative. No one seems to see the contributions of what God has done for us and what even fellow humans have done for us. Children are unable to appreciate the efforts of their parents in their lives and parents too are unable to appreciate the efforts of their children in their lives. Subjects are unable to appreciate the efforts of leaders in their lives and leaders too are unable to appreciate the efforts of their subjects in their lives. Christians are unable to appreciate the endeavors of their leaders, their pastors and clergy into their lives and clergies too are unable to appreciate the contribution of their members into their lives.

We should awake from this horrible mindset of life and be thankful to God and be thankful for one another. Let us show appreciation and we will close many doors that our ungratefulness have opened to the enemy to lure us into worries and bitterness. Many at times we are too conscious of what men have not done and forget what they have done. It is in mentioning what they have done that will bring perfection in our own lives. Let us declare the wonders of God and be thankful.

1 Chronicles 16:8 “Oh, give thanks to the Lord! Call upon His name; make known His deeds among the peoples!”

As earlier said, as we wake up and give ourselves this discipline to appreciate and be thankful, we will close many doors that the enemy has been using against our lives.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for the word of life sent into my life.
- 2- Lord grant me the grace to remain thankful.
- 3- Let my eyes and my understanding be enlightened for all you have done for me.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

COMMITMENT FOR CHANGE

Joshua 22:5 “But take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, to love the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

The above scripture where we just read is directing us to focus on God and His word. When we commit to the instructions given to us from the Lord; building on the precepts those instructions, our fruitfulness will emerge. There can be commitment out of God but the outcome of those commitments may never stand the test of time; just as the scripture says everyone that builds on that rock that is Christ, the labour of such a person will never be wasted. There are instructions that we must follow in order for us to become that expectation that we long for. Every right thinking person admires and longs for a change that is progressive; and that produces a better version of the individual's life within his contemporary time. Building commitment in the Lord can never end you on the note of failure but the problem we have in our time is that many that profess God or that they are in Christ; most often, that pronouncement have never done any work of transformation in their lives. When our walk with God is just lips service, it may never yield us the profits we long for as sons and daughters of God. But when we commit our lives and ourselves to the right path set before us by the Lord, the expected results of honour will be seen. Therefore commitment in obedience is what we must focus on. When we look at the words of Job in scriptures, Job said he will wait upon the Lord until his change comes in

Job 14:14b "All the days of my appointed time will I wait till my change comes."

You must not give up on the highway of your pursuit as long as the desire of your life is approved, and the name of the Lord is being glorified in it; you should stay committed until the moment that will give you the result you expects comes your way. Many have desires, but they don't know that only commitment will cause true desires to become a reality. That is why the Bible says many are called but few are chosen. Only the committed will be chosen at the end of the day, only the committed will be able to carry the trophy at the end of the day. You will not get it by chance; you will get it by your worth. Your change will not come by chance; your change will come by your worth.

All those who ever rose with the spirit of excellence and outburst results of honour, were all men and women that were committed. In commitment, there are a lot of things you need to bear with and endure because not everything will be convenient for you. It may not be convenient but your life will need to go through the inconveniences for the true worth of your life to break forth. Many are still to be enlisted in the process, many are already enlisted in the process but the Lord says whosoever shall endure till the end, whosoever shall persist till the end, the same shall be saved; the same will enhance the change he intended for. Looking at the story of Elisha in

2 Kings 2 and also the commitment of the widow woman of the parable of Jesus in Luke 18, they all needed a change that was to be sponsored by the authorities they looked up to. They faced distractions; but they didn't give in to those distractions. It is like most of us are facing distractions today both in the four walls of the church and even out of the church. Be careful not to give heed to those distractions because the intention of the devil bringing us distractions is to derail us. The persistent followership of Elisha behind Elijah prompted Elijah to ask Elisha what he wanted from him. Before Elijah could ever ask this question, Elisha was committed. Observers had this to say that Elisha followed Elijah with all tenacity and with that commitment; Elijah asked Elisha a question in

2 Kings 2:9-10 “And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you? Elisha said, please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me. So he said, you have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.”

The steadfast followership of Elisha was a mark of commitment and he never gave up until he got what he wanted. Most often we start a good journey but we never know how to be steadfast and committed until we get what we want. Elijah said every commitment that will meet up the standard for a change is a hard request but it is not an impossible one. If you are well determined for the change you want and follow the right path set before you, that change will obviously come your way. As often said, you must be intentional and determined for the change; you set your eyes on your goal like Elisha did, like the widow woman in Luke 18:1-8 did. Those who are determined for a change are not to give rest to the Lord until their intended expectations are met. The woman of Canaan was committed to see the deliverance of her daughter. All the obstacles she saw were never enough reason for her to give up. Like Proverbs 16 will say the preparation of the heart is in man but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord. That dream you want to build; that dream you want to realize will only be possible based on your relentless commitment.

Proverbs 12:24 “The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy man will be put to forced labour.”

Every vital change of your life must not be dealt with with a slack hand; you must give in to hard work in the fear of the Lord. The commitment of Ruth to the God of her mother-in-law Naomi ended her with a change that was worth her commitment. Give in to a commitment that will worth the change you desire and with the Lord, you will see the possibility of that desire. As you get up these days, set goals for that vision and let the passion of it overwhelm you. Stop at nothing but keep moving until what you desire seeing will be made manifest. With the hand of God upon your life, you will surely make it and make it through.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord empower me for change.
- 2- Lord equip me with the vital things I need in this dream of mine.
- 3- Lord I pray turn my mourning to dancing.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

LORD KEEP ME LIGHTED

Psalm 37:5 “Commit your way to the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass.”

Seeking the face of God and committing our path into His hands is a very important aspect for sons and daughters of God. As we have learned from our previous chapters, what we desire, we must take responsibility for it; once our lives are in the hands of the Lord and our steps are ordered by God, it is a mark of our being lighted. Having been lighted by the Lord we will walk in the pathway of God and that pathway will keep the enemy offshore as our lives are concerned. Most people that seek God before they commence anything will always have victory at the end of the day; like the Psalmist says commit your ways to the Lord. When we depend on Him, His strength becomes ours. When Israel sought God, the Lord gave them a response and the response God gave them was for their wellbeing. This is because when we commit our lives to the Lord, He is able to keep us from falling.

Jude 1:24 “Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy,”

What you have committed to the Lord is what God will do for you. Most often as believers we fall short of asking or placing the right demands from the Lord. One of the things which is very essential for us to demand is for our wellbeing of our soul and walk with God. That will commit God to take us from every pathway that will jeopardize His intention for our lives.

Keep me lighted is to enable you maintain the life God has passed on to you and to grow with it; for His presence in your life and your walk with Him is very important. He is capable to take care of those things you have committed into His hands. Challenges being part of life will come but His grace will be sufficient for you just like His grace was made sufficient for the apostles wherewith He told Paul “My grace is sufficient for you.”

Even as the Lord declares in the gospel in Matthew 7 that we cannot ask Him for bread and He gives us a stone and we can’t ask Him for fish and He gives us a serpent. He says if our parents being evil know how to give us good gifts, how will He the father of all Spirits not fill us with His Spirit? In other words not give us access to His presence? The presence of God is what we are yearning for to make our lives lighted. So with God’s presence over our lives, our lives will remain lighted for the glory of God. The good things you have submitted your life and you are looking up to God believing Him for will come to pass for He says whosoever seeks find, the door shall be opened to whoever knocks and whosoever asks will receive.

As your life remains lighted, you will triumph. Endeavor to walk in obedience before the Lord, endeavor to walk in humility so that the needed attention you yearn for, the Lord will grant it to you. As the Lord has begun well with you, your cry and earnest request should be to end well also for the bible says better is the end of a thing than the beginning. God is able to keep you. No matter the challenges that may come your way, you should be able to speak to yourself my God is able. Moses told the children of Israel in the book of Exodus 14:14 that God will fight for them and they will hold their peace. Faithful is God that has called you; who also will perform his good counsel as your life is concerned.

2 Corinthians 9:8 “And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have abundance for every good work.”

Maintain your devotion and meditation on God’s word. As you increase in the word indwelling you, your life will remain lighted and you will be able to reach out as intended by the Lord for your life. As you live and walk in obedience to His word.

Of course your maturity as a son and a daughter is that you have the Holy Ghost taking leadership over your life; just as scripture says as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God Romans 8:14.

Keeping yourself under the discipline of God's word and praying; and stretching out to uphold others and reaching out to others with the gospel of the kingdom. When we stay lighted, the three above mentioned points will find grounds of expression in our lives and in so doing, the name of the Lord will be glorified in our lives. Let God's presence take charge of all you are involved in and let us stay under the leadership of the Spirit of God and our lives will remain lighted.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord I commit my life into your hands to remain lighted.
- 2- Lord guide me with your presence and let my steps be ordered by you.
- 3- Lord increase me in the revelation of your word and grant me understanding.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

THE ACT AND VIRTUE OF PATIENCE

Patience is an act that earns itself with a virtue that is worth imitating or emulating. But what is patience or what is not? The act of patience does not have its worth on the path of things that are not right or things that are not governed by the principles of process. The act of patience is seen on the pathway of something that is undergoing process and the one waiting for the end result exercises forbearance until the set time comes. Another aspect of exercising patience is for a subject waiting for an authority to carry out their expectations in the time they have set in their powers. Each time patience must earn its worth; these points mentioned should be strictly considered and observed. We can't claim to be patient when we are on the wrong path or doing the wrong thing; that will not be patience. We exercise patience on the right path and doing the right thing and as such one of the things that will be observed in us is that in our patience we will not lose our integrity of life. We can't live carelessly or waywardly and claim that we are exercising patience, waiting for the day of good results. We are going to take Job in scripture as our case study in looking at the act and virtue of patience.

Job was tempted; he lost everything plus his health but he never lose his integrity and walk with God. If Job had lost his integrity and walk with God, we will not term that act of stay as patience. Everyone who actually earns the act and virtue of patience while waiting for the process to go through, the individual will maintain a life of integrity that will earn him or her the dignity he deserves at the end of the tunnel. Patience goes along with your faith. Patience cannot be worthwhile if faith is absent. Patience cannot be worthwhile if love for one's self and love for God is absent. In the book of James 5:11 “Indeed we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord – that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.”

The end of Job with the Lord was glorious for he exercised patience in God. In his patience he never lose his walk with God and he never messed up himself with sin or other things that could make God to frown at him. He still gave in to live in the standard of God’s word, patiently waiting for God to intervene for him and of course the bible commended the patience of Job. His patience ended him being glorified and honoured by the Lord. Job kept calling on God, depending on God and he kept exercising patience until the time that the Lord appointed in His power finally came and Job was honoured. Though his outward body was in distress, but there was a level of peace we could see in Job’s life. So our walk with God will earn us the peace that comes only from God even though we may go through things that will trouble our minds, the peace of God will keep us going.

The virtue of patience is also a mark of maturity; once you are mature, you will be patient with one another, you will forbear one another not grudgingly but in a merciful and loving way, believing God for the growth and uprising of the one you have been patient with. You will work hard to see that what concerns that individual is perfected. We can see how Jesus bore with the disciples until they emerged. It is just like the church of Christ is waiting for the Lord's return, we must be patient and in our patience, we must walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we have been called as Paul writes to the Ephesians in

Ephesians 4:1-2 “I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love,”

Our patience in the Lord and with one another will keep us in the pathway of what God has committed into our hands and in the pathway of living the way God expects us to live. Of course the act of patience will help us to earn that virtue always. Don't exercise patience on the wrong path; walk out of it, exercise patience on the right path and the right things. There are many more people that exercised patience with God; one of such apart from the one mentioned is Sarah, and even Daniel. They all waited on God. Though they had their shortcomings, their faith remained stayed in God and they were able to go through it. At the end of the day, they had a reward from God for God is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.

Hebrews 11:6 “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.”

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord grant me grace to earn the virtue of patience.
- 2- Don't allow me Lord to lose my integrity in the process of being patient.

CHAPTER 6

UNDERSTANDING THE GROWTH PATH

There are parameters that govern growth and two are likely the same but one stands out alone. We can't talk about growth until we mention seed that will sponsor the growth. The seed of God needs a ground of the things of God to sponsor its growth. While different seeds in different disciplines may have their own ground to foster their growth or progression. We want to center our study on the growth that is within the parameter of the provision of God to the sons and daughters of God. When Jesus talks about the growth that is sponsored by God's seed, it is growth that earns both life that is eternal and the glory that never fades away. The essential thing that growth stands on first is the seed in place to anticipate growth because every seed will produce after its content. A bad seed will grow and produce bad fruits and a good seed will grow and product good fruits.

The irony here is that a bad seed can sponsor its evil content on a fertile ground because in the parable of the sower in the gospel of Matthew, wheat was sown on a good ground but weed or tares also grew on that good ground. But contra wise, a good seed cannot survive on a bad ground. A good seed needs a good ground to survive while a bad seed may find expression on a good ground. The sower in Matthew 13 actually sowed good seeds on a good ground but tares found their way into it. So being a good seed, you must also guard against infiltration. This is one thing that has destroyed the growth of many children of God; scripture calls it mixed-multitude. They are among us but they are not for us. They are among us but what we are living for is not what they are living for. Being a good seed, your growth will be guaranteed on a good ground. Being a good seed on a good ground you must guard against tares and infiltration which has to do with false doctrines.

In the early church, many false doctrines also arose among the brethren. Paul warned against it; John warned against it and that if anyone comes along with a wrong doctrine, we should not welcome such a person. Many who began well have fallen from the pathway because of infiltration.

The third thing that will sponsor growth is the ability to feed on the sound word of God and keep on empowering yourself with the knowledge of the word of God because the height of your operation depends on the capacity of the knowledge you carry. Paul will have this to tell the disciples that they should be rooted and grounded.

Colossians 2:6-7 “As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught abounding in it with thanksgiving.”

To gain strength as a child of God, Jesus’ prescription in John 12:23-24 must be well understood and followed.

John 12:23-24 “But Jesus answered them saying, the hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified. Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain.”

For the will of God to find expression in our lives, we must let go our will. When our will lose grip of us and His will finds grips us, we will gain roots that will sponsor magnificent growth that will be unbeatable in the conflict of life when the enemy shows up. Self-denial is a mark of strength that attracts the attention of God over one's life. When we are weak because of the Lord then we are strong. Getting these mentioned points gives us the clear understanding of the growth path. Understand the content of your seed and make sure the seed is in its pure state. Locate the ground that God's word endorses as good ground appointed and acceptable by God and get yourself stationed on it. Allow God's will to prevail over your will and get rooted in the knowledge of the word of God. Maintain a life of fellowship with God in the place of prayers and maintain intimacy with God; yearning and loving His dear presence.

Power will be released upon your life as you diligently wait on God and your profiting will appear to all because whoever waits on the Lord renews strength. Once strength is given as scripture has stated, you will mount up with wings as eagle. Jesus showed us this pathway because He maintained an intimate walk with God with a standard of life and an intensified prayer life. Scripture says He spent all night praying and He tells us men ought always to pray and not to faint. In the place of prayer your spirit will be lighted to access the revelational knowledge of the word of God. If you rise in that content, you will not just minister letters to people but life giving messages that will cut across the spirits of men. When the apostles waited in Acts 2, power was released and the words they ministered cut their audience to their hearts Acts 2:37-38. The growth inside of them commanded the growth outside of them which we can see by the massive conversion of the people that heard them. Let us wake up to understand the growth path, deplore it, apply our lives to it and this will sponsor our emancipation and emergence. God bless you!
