MINISTRY TESTIMONIES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL 2026

DOUALA BONABERI

Hallelujah! I really want to thank God for His intervention in my life. I deal with importing, selling and renting cars. One of my colleagues bought a car from Tchad legally with valid documents; later to discover after importation on sales that it was an ambassador's car that was stolen from Sudan and transported to Tchad. I did some exhibition on it on social media and that led to the tracking of the car to me from Sudan through the interpol Yaounde to PSG Bonanjo and to me. I was apprehended and locked up for so many days even with the buyer. We tried to negotiate the matter at PSG Bonanjo in Douala by all means but the commissioner complicated it. He later released the buyer after receiving a ransom but was bent on sending me (just the person that advertised the car) to Yaounde. In the course of sending me to Yaounde, prayers were made by the church and our father in the Lord was informed. Then he prayed for the Lord to have mercy. That same day (which was a Friday), I was released; and by Monday, the same commissioner who wanted hell on me was dismissed from his duty post by a presidential decree and he was locked up at Kondengui central prison. Till now they have not produced the evidence of the car being stolen from Sudan. The Lord God Almighty reversed the plan of the enemy back on him in several folds. To God be the glory!

Brother Lloyd:

Praise the Lord! I want to testify of God's wonders in my life. There was a time that our father in the Lord came to Douala for a crusade. After ministration, I went for counselling, and he counselled me. He said, "Just keep attending services and God will reach out to you even if you don't know how to read or write." I had a prayer I have been praying to God for 30 years. Only my husband and members of my family knew about it. My first child was stolen by the father about 30 years ago when she was just 5 years old. I didn't know where he took her to but during the 21 days fasting and prayers, while others were putting forth their prayer points in writing, I told the Lord that He knows me better than I know myself and that He should answer me and restore my health. To the shame of the devil, in this season of Royal Dignity, God made it possible, and my child was located at the age of 35 years old, having two children already. Let somebody shout hallelujah!

Ma Jacky:

NDOP

Glory to God! I am so blessed by the "Manna Feast" especially chapter 4, "Knowing Your Order of Service". There had been this controversy in the body of Christ about tithing and giving. This month God used our father in the Lord to settle me more and I was grounded. I am grateful to be a part of this triumphant trend. Praise God!

Pastor Lewis:

Praise the Lord! I thank God for using His servant every season to direct my steps in His pathway. In this season of “Triumphant Progress”, I thank God for all the chapters of the “Manna Feast” which gave me the directives I need to stay in God. I thank God for the living water that flows from the “Manna Feast” Glory to God!

Mama Margaret:

BABANKI

Hallelujah! I thank God for the season of “Triumphant Progress”. I was translating the Bible from English to Kejom and I was given monthly dues. From December to April I had not been given my monthly dues. The first day I stepped my leg in the prayer cell in Babanki, the servant of God treated the first chapter, “The Essence of God’s Presence”. After ministration, the servant of God instructed us to lift our hands and he prayed that the Lord will lift every challenge we are going through. When I returned home, my boss called and promised to pay all my dues. I thank God for no one goes into His presence and comes back the same. Thank you, Jesus!

Mama Christina:

SANTA

Praise God! I am thanking God for the healing of my mother who was sick and hospitalised. She is fine now to the glory of God. I also thank God for the life of my stepbrother who was kidnapped and taken to the bush by unknown gun men. Prayers were made and we continually pleaded for God’s intervention in the situation. He was finally released after some days and thank God he is fine. Lastly, I want to thank God for His mercy upon my life. I went for worker’s meeting and coming back I realised that thieves had broken into the house. The thieves scattered my box and just beside the box was money that I was saving but they never saw the money. I give God the praise for it can only be His doing. I have come to return all the glory to God!

Sister Blessing:

HOUSTON TEXAS

Hallelujah! I thank God for the peace that has reigned in my family since the start of 2026. Secondly I want to thank God for the “Manna Feast” of the month of April. I was particularly blessed by chapter 1, “The Essence of God’s Presence”. I give God the praise!

Mama Martha:

Praise the Lord! I thank God for the monthly publication of the “Manna Feast” that has been a blessing to me. I thank God for chapter 3 of the April publication; “A Vessel for the Master’s Use”. My prayer is that God will help me and make me a vessel of honour and a vessel for the Master’s use in Jesus name!

Mama Julia:

Hallelujah to Jesus! I thank God for the “Manna Feast” of the month of April. I was blessed by all the chapters especially chapter 6 “The Abuse of Shepherdhood”. This chapter is an eye opener to us about the errors in the last days. I pray that God will help me to walk in accordance to His word so I will not miss heaven at last. Thank you Lord!

Mama Fanny:

NITOPIV

Glory to God! I want to thank God for the “Manna Feast” that has always been of blessing not only to me but to my household. This month I was really blessed by chapters 1, 5 and 6, “The Essence of God’s Presence”, “Walk in the Spirit” and “The Abuse Of Shepherdhood”. I thank God most especially chapter 6. When we treated the chapter, I had a burden to cry for my generation and even the generation to come. That God should heal our pulpits so that the pew should be healthy. I thank God also for the fact that before the “Manna Feast” comes out every month, God has already given us a glimpse in the branch church. Thank God for making me a part of this great house. I give God the glory!

Sister Petronilla:

BAMBILI

Glory to God! I thank God for the month of “Triumphant Progress” I was empowered through the “Manna Feast” chapters 3 and 4, “A Vessel For The Master’s Use”, and “Knowing Your Order Of Service” respectively. I thank the servant of God for his commitment to this great task. Thank you Jesus!

Brother Mathias:

INTRODUCTION

Seasonal greetings to all sons and daughters of the Most High God. We have been called and saved to embark on a mission as ordained by God. It is very important to get this awareness and be on focused to respond to the question which goes thus: why are we here? This question can be rightly answered when you are able to know who you are as prescribed by the Lord. We were called and saved to reach out. Looking at the world at large, you will come to understand that the world cannot save the world. It takes the entrance of the heavenly in the person of Jesus Christ for the world to see the light of the day.

The mission, with the vision of reconciling man back to God is the topmost responsibility for all who have been called and saved by God. There is a call for all the saints to bring an impact of Christ in all generations on the planet earth. Here comes the bottom line. On earth there is no neutral ground; you are either winning your world for God, or your world is winning you over to the devil. There must be a reflection from our lives that we have been caught up with the life of God and that life must bring an effect and impact on our world.

Taking the vision to places is about impacting lives and drawing men into God's kingdom. If we are not productive in soul winning, it is a sign that we are dead even as humans called by God. The early church waited and took the vision of the kingdom to their world and great was the outcome. Arise! And lay hold on the vision of reaching out at all cost. God bless you!

THE MISSION OF THE SAVED

There is an attitude that must be seen in those who have been saved by grace through faith. The concept of regeneration is being preached but the outcome we witness on ground is not the case. Every born again child of God is saved and one of the evidence of that impact of salvation is that the individual is quickened to spread the Good News. The Good News is not to point men to yourself; it is to point men to Jesus Christ who is the Author and Finisher of our faith. The true Gospel of the kingdom is not about us; it is about Christ and His kingdom. The early church manifested this truth in their generation. They took out the Gospel at the cost of everything plus their lives and they had joy unspeakable in reaching out to the world at all costs. Not the material worth nor their lives were precious to them when it came to reaching out with the Gospel to their dying world.

The Gospel of the kingdom they preached had no boundaries. Wherever men were found, they preached the Gospel. Many of the apostles and disciples of Old expanded the Gospel to the hinterlands at the expense of their lives and to them it was joy that they had earned the mark of Christ's suffering. Everyone born of God and filled with the Spirit of God should have the same burden that the heavens have as the earth is concerned. If we are born of God and yet we condone with the evil of the world, the truth is that we are deceiving ourselves and we are not saved. When we look into the incident that scripture recorded for those who encountered salvation and how they carried the mission of the kingdom, it may not tie to the fruit that we replicate today in the name of the Lord as outreach. This is because one held bound by the power of sin cannot truly and effectively preach against sin and point men to Christ for salvation.

If we look at the story in John 4 with the woman at the well, we will be able to see the effect that identified with one who have had a touch from the Lord. In John 4, there is a lengthy conversation between the Lord Jesus and the woman of Samaria at the well. The woman of Samaria portrayed a true mission of the saved on earth. Having been convicted by the Lord of who she was, she immediately took off to tell people about her new life and the one who had Authored that new life. Because her confession was true, her testimony moved a whole city. When the city got moved by her testimony, they also encountered Jesus and were converted. This woman did not need to attend another bible study or go to bible school to become a soul winner. If the life we claim the Lord has given to us cannot give life to other lives in the image of Jesus, then the life we have in the Lord is fake. When sinners are comfortable around us while in the act of committing sin, it is a bad indication for us as believers. On the other hand, if we find ourselves condoning with sinners in their sin, then we ourselves have not been transformed.

Elijah the prophet in the Old Testament did not condone with the evil of Jezebel and her husband Ahab because he was of God. Anytime we sympathize with evil that God does not sympathize with, it is a mark to show that we have never known Christ or we have backslided and we are no longer in the faith. In the New Testament with John the Baptist, he could not sympathize or condone with the evil of Herod who was committing whoredom with his brother, Philip's wife. John did not compromise the standard of God but he spoke to the face of Herod that what he was into was evil; and that is the reason why John was arrested. In Luke 7, we are told that John was imprisoned by Herod. He was imprisoned because he preached righteousness and rebuked evil. We must return to the cross for the departed glory of God to return to the house of God. The mission for the saved is to see that others be saved; and this goes along with a life for God. We cannot reconcile the world to God with the world. We will only reconcile the world to God with the truth of God's word.

Looking at the mission of the saved, it is to take the Gospel to the world in its pure state without adulteration. The act of preaching should be our lifestyle. The act of reaching out to the lost should be our lifestyle. The same burden prophets and apostles of old sent by God had, the present-day church should carry the same burden. The Gospel of the kingdom is not about making money or building mansions. The Gospel of the kingdom is about changing lives, drawing them and reconciling them to God.

2 Corinthians 5:18 “Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.”

Looking at our world, we must revisit this mission of the saved and make sure we pass it on correctly. When we look also in Luke 19 at Jesus’ encounter with Zaccheus, we will realise that Zaccheus’ encounter with Jesus gave Zaccheus a change of life, a change of course, and a change of direction. In Luke 19:1-9, we are told of the encounter of Zaccheus with Jesus. The conversion of Zaccheus bore fruits that immediately, he owned up and repented from his old way of life, break up from it and aligned with the life of Christ. Before Zaccheus met Jesus, there were many other people that were following Jesus; but many of the people that were following Jesus never had a life for Jesus. It is the same today that many who claim to be Christians or children of God do not have a life for Christ. That is why with the multiplicity of different houses of worship, our world’s standard of morale is degrading and deteriorating.

Today many serve God not for love for God but for their personal gain in this present world. If you are serving God for material gain in this present world, then you are not even a child of God. If you are also serving God for fear as if God is a terror and not for the love you have for God, then your knowledge and standing for God maybe inappropriate in its concept. Our fear of God is not God being a terror, but it is an act of reverend and love for our God. The things you can do for the Lord and the things you cannot do against the Lord should be tied to your love for Him. And when you love God, you will reverend Him in all you say and do. The Bible tells us that after Zaccheus' encounter with Jesus, scripture says he received Jesus joyfully. There were things he told Jesus which were fruits of his repentance that nobody formerly taught him. Everyone born of God must produce good works. Zaccheus told the Lord that half of his goods he will give to the poor. He also told the Lord he will do restitution and the Lord Jesus replied: "Today salvation has entered into your house." We don't preach the Gospel for men to respect us, we preach the Gospel for men to know Christ, honour and worship Him; while we all live with those we have preached to as brethren.

In the early church, the apostle Peter after preaching in Acts 2 and a great multitude repented, Peter did not preach to them for them to respect him, his Gospel to them was for them to know Christ and honour Him. The brethren and the apostles addressed themselves as brethren.

Acts 2:37 “Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Men and brethren, what shall we do?”

Looking at the above scripture those that were converted addressed themselves with the apostles as brethren. Even when they were used by God to do great and mighty miracles, they refused to take the honour. Peter never took the honour, Paul never took the honour, they gave it all to God. We have evil competition among us today because we want to take the honour to be seen as people who are most anointed and closer to God. Men tend to believe us than they believe the scripture or the word of God, they tend to hold us in more honour than they do in their worship to God. The apostles did not take such honour for themselves, but they gave it all to God.

When the apostle Paul healed the man in Lystra who was impotent and crippled from his mother's womb, when he was healed by the apostle Paul, the people lifted their voices by saying "the gods have come to us in the likeness of men." They brought oxen and other items to sacrifice to Paul and his companions, but the apostles rejected and tore their clothes. They ran in among the multitude crying out and saying: "we also are men with the same nature as you and we preach to you that you should turn from these useless things to the living God who made the heavens, the earth, the seas and all things that are in them; who in time past, allow all nations to walk in their own way" Acts 14:8-18. If genuinely we have encountered Christ, we will preach Christ relentlessly. Reaching out to the world with the Gospel will be a lifestyle for the saved. So, the mission of the saved is to save others. If you are saved per se and you are unable to save others, you should checklist your life, you are missing it somewhere.

When Paul had an encounter with Christ on his way to Damascus, he immediately preached Christ. The woman of Samaria immediately preached Christ. The apostles after encountering the Lord went to preach Christ. The mission of the saved is to reach out to the world with the life of God that they carry. The presence of the Holy Ghost in you is there to give an awareness and a witness of God's kingdom in your surroundings and your vicinity.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord in your mercy deliver me from all adulterations.
- 2- Lord make me a productive branch in your vine.
- 3- Lord endow me with the burden for soul winning.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

THE TRAVAIL OF SERVICE

In every service in life that is worthwhile from the physical world to the spiritual world, the act of travail is unavoidable (outstretched of your entirety to make it go well). The consciousness of knowledge with regards to services in the vineyard of God and what we should expect is vital; because, that will free us from all unnecessary vices of the devil, that may tend to misinform or misdirect our commitment in God's vineyard. The picture of the gospel that says when we come to Jesus, everything will be stress free is not biblical. There is a process that you go through to meet up with the Lord's demand that will cause you grief and pain but if you go through that process, it will produce the expected result as ordained by God for your wellbeing and for His glory. Going down through the scripture, whether you are a believer or an unbeliever, one thing is certain, you must go through travail. The travail out of God will break you and destroy you but the travail in the Lord will make you and build you into honour. In the book of Job, Job said man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble. Whether a man is righteous or a sinner, you are license to go through challenges Job 14:1.

We should know that every effective service that will bring result of honour as prescribed and ordained by God must go through fire. It was the apostle James that spoke to the early church in his general epistle in James 1:2-4 that they should count it all joy when they fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its full work that you may be perfect and complete lacking nothing. Jesus also taught us about the broad and the narrow way. All these have to do with travail. In Matthew 7:13-14, the Lord says enter through the narrow gate for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction and many are they that go in by it; but narrow is the gate and difficult is the way that leads to life and there are few that find it. Looking at the scriptures and the Lord's works on earth, every child of God should know that to render an effective service in the kingdom, you must train your mind to travail. Many are offended today because where they were preached to, they were giving promises of a carefree life but the doctrine on ground proved them wrong and they became offended. For all what the Lord Jesus went through to offer us redemption, it was His service to the kingdom. The picture of Christ's Walk on earth should be a model for us to know what we are to go through to fulfill the course of divine assignment for the kingdom. He went through so much pain of travail with different dimension of sacrifices, fasting and prayers, then for the Lord's will, and finally died a shameful death on the cross; that was travail. But because this travail was in God, it opened a highway of honour to the Lord. Philippians 2 gives us a picture what Christ went through to be crowned King of kings and Lord of lords.

Philippians 2:6-9 “Who being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name.”

That was what it took Christ to render the purpose of His coming on earth. For the church, we must also have in mind that for us to fulfill our purpose, there are things we must uncomfortably go through. We are told in the gospel of Matthew that Jesus lamented in Gethsemane when He was about to face the cross, that was travail in service. We are also told on many occasions how He was rejected, that was also travail in service. Finally he died the dead on the cross and today He is Lord forevermore. There is no genuine service that you will render for God as a child of God without going through travail. The cross of Christ has offence as we are told in scriptures in Galatians 5:11. Anyone that will live godly in Christ Jesus must suffer persecution 2 Timothy 3:12.

Every vision and mission assigned by God on earth will be actualised on the highway of travail, no matter how small it may appear to be. Everyone with the call of God will sustain and survive through travail. The day the devil stops fighting you on earth is a sign that he has killed you. But so long as that vision is alive and making waves, confrontation will always be from one season to another. But one thing is certain in our faith walk with God; we always win before we fight. For every vision to be actualized, you must arm your mind.

Philippians 2:17 “Yes, and if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.”

The present-day church will fulfill God’s mission on earth not void of travail in their services. When Paul the apostle was called by the Lord, the Lord said that Paul was going to suffer many things because of that call.

Acts 9:15-16 “But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel. For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

Paul confirmed this by himself as he rose to render the service for which he was saved for. In 2 Corinthians 6:4-10, Paul enlisted all he had gone through in fulfilling the service for which he was called on earth.

2 Corinthians 6:4-10 “But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in sleeplessness, in fastings ...”

The apostle Paul still continued to tell us the travail he went through in many other portions of scripture like in

2 Corinthians 11:23-27 “Are they ministers of Christ? – I speak as a fool – I am more: in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prison more frequently, in deaths often. From the Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one. Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness –“

Travail in service for the believer is a pathway of honour; for, true purpose is not achieved on a platter of gold. Joseph fulfilled his dream by travail; even Mary the mother of Christ became honoured by travail. Sarah was honoured by travail. The tribulation of your life should birth a rejoicing when you look at the result of it. It is because you are God's Elect, that is why you go through the things you go through, and it will earn you a great weight of honour. Taking this to mind, stand up on your feet as a soldier and don't grow weary because God's hand is upon your life.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord grant me grace as I walk through the path of life set before me.
- 2- Lord give me wisdom, knowledge and understanding for my daily life with you.
- 3- Lord I receive grace to access victory in the name of Jesus.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

GET EMPOWERED

Isaiah 40:31 “But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.”

What and who you fellowship with or have intimate walk with can reflect the formation that will take place within your being. The highest power or authority that a human can possess is the power that comes from God. The power of God in expression is the ultimate above every other power given to different creatures or beings. To be endowed with power that will be unlimited, such power must proceed from the Lord to a vessel. Being a human called by God or created in the image of God, the kingdom of darkness has declared war against the human race. So, the essence of power to live and to do exploit is inevitable and paramount.

Peter in his general epistle gave an awareness to the church to be conscious of the adversary they have which is the devil. He also painted an imaginary picture of the devil termed as a roaring lion with the purpose to devour 1Peter 5:8. Jesus in the Gospel also gives us the agenda and plots of the enemy fashioned against mankind. The Lord said the thief does not come except to steal, to kill and to destroy, John 10:10. Then the prophet Isaiah says from the Lord that they will surely gather but not by Me but any weapon formed against you shall not prosper. John in his epistle now gives us a blue light for our victory as sons and daughters of God and then he gave us the revelation of birth and rebirth in 1 John 5:4-5. He says whatever is born of God has overcome the world – our faith. The one who has overcome the world is the one who has believed that Jesus is the Son of God. John also spelt it out that when you are born of God, you have access to the seed of God. The seed of God in us gives us the power for sin not to have dominion in our lives. Sin is what gives satan access to destroy us.

1 John 3:9 “Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God”.

Being born, we are kept by the seed of God and Jesus came as the seed of the woman spoken of in Genesis 3:15. Having been born and walk the earth as the godman, with the seed of God that He was, He taught us how to be endowed with power. When Jesus had to start His public ministry, he did not just walk into ministry, He waited upon the Lord to be endowed with power. For the work of the kingdom cannot be executed without the manifestation of the power of God. Jesus in Luke 4 waited in the wilderness upon the Lord for endowment. Being born of God, you have the seed of God but it takes waiting upon the Lord for power to come upon you. Without being endowed with the power from on high, you can do little or no impact or exploits for the kingdom in your world. You may survive with the seed of God but it takes the release of the power of the Holy Ghost for the expansion of the vision of winning the world for the Lord. Waiting for the power to be released over your life becomes a great conflict between the believer and the devil which the believer must try to break that limit.

When Jesus had waited upon the Lord, he was endowed with the power of the Holy Ghost. Waiting for the move of God upon your life, you don't wait for time, you wait for results. Christ waited until He was endowed. Elijah waited until he was also endowed. The apostles waited in the Upper Room until they were endowed. The endowment of power is not claimed; it is evident with the works that follow.

When Jesus got endowed, saint Luke's recorded in Luke 4:14 that "Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee and the news of Him went out through all the surrounding regions and He taught in their synagogue being glorified by all." This anointing and endowment upon the Lord was not a claim, it was evident. In Luke 4:18, the prophecy of Isaiah concerning Jesus was confirmed with evidence. If the peak of your evidence has not yet shown up it is because you have not arrived the manifestation of the endowment that awaits you. Luke 4:18 says the Spirit of the Lord is upon Me for He has anointed Me. It takes an endowment to do great kingdom exploits. As a child born of God and having the seed of God, strive for the endowment of power. Use the time God has given to you to work out your result with evidence. Jesus told the disciples that they should tarry until they are endowed. The widow in Luke 18 strived for results from the judge. The apostles in Acts 2 also strived for results in the Upper Room. The promise they received from the Lord became evidence in their lives. As you wait upon the Lord in this season, receive grace to show forth your evidence by the Hand of the Lord. Call upon the Lord, wait upon the Lord until your change comes. Don't give up, don't retire until your evidence is made manifest. As you call upon the Lord and wait upon Him, the same God that empowered the men of old is still empowering men today. Stay focused until your reality breaks forth.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord endow me with power from on high.
- 2- Oh Lord let my expectation be made manifest in the name of Jesus.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus mighty name.

CHAPTER 4

REJOICE IN TRIBULATION

Whatever trouble the children of God go through in their service to the Lord should be counted for joy. For such tribulation earn them a mark of honour, and it is also a sure prove of the salvation of their soul. It is certain that when somebody who was once in darkness walk into the light, those who are still living in darkness must persecute such an individual. Though our flesh may go through pain, but the spirit rejoices because in the tribulation, the purpose of God is made manifest and fulfilled. Scripture tells us in Matthew 5 that everyone who suffers for righteousness' sake should rejoice.

Matthew 5:10-11 “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Tribulation in righteousness is a mark of honour and glory to all the persecuted.

1 Peter 4:13-14 “But rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ’s sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified.”

The travail or persecution of your being reflects the in-depth plan of God in your life on a rise to be actualised. The values in men that remain dormant may never be troubled. But every value in rising will be troubled on every side. That is why knowing and having the consciousness of this effect, you must rejoice. The magnitude of your trials in life reflects your engraved value by the hands of God. Being joyous in your trial frustrates the devil because the agenda of satan’s affliction most often in our lives is to make us to be offended with God. Know that we were not created and sent forth by God because we were hated; we were created and sent forth by God because we are His beloved. A man who rejoices in tribulation will not take vengeance; he will allow vengeance to God. A man who rejoices in tribulation as a child of God, will not also keep records of evil against those who have persecuted him or her. In Acts of the Apostles 5:40-41, here comes the record of the apostles of old.

Acts 5:40-41 “And they agreed with him, and when they had called for the apostles and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. So they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name.”

Looking at the above scriptures, the apostles were going through tribulations for setting captives free and for preaching the truth. At the end of the day, they were beaten for no just cause but they understood the blessings that the tribulation came along with. When they had departed from the presence of the council, they rejoiced in tribulation, blessing God that they were counted worthy to suffer shame in the name of the Lord. Despite the fact that they were persecuted, they were never discouraged. They kept preaching and teaching the Gospel of our Lord Jesus. Stephen also manifested this attitude of rejoicing in tribulation when he was being stoned to death. You will realise he didn't take revenge; rather, he died calling upon the Lord and asking God not to hold the sin of the people in their charge. In his departure, the heavens were never closed over Stephen, the heavens were opened Acts 7:59. All these rejoiced in tribulation because they knew the hope of their calling. Even with the Apostle Paul with his companion Silas in Acts 16:23-26, they rejoiced in tribulation.

Acts 16:23-26 “And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely. Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly, there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed”

Paul and Silas in intense persecution did not become weary in the work of the Gospel of the kingdom. Rather, they manifested the opposite of what the enemy expected of them. That was a sure prove of their spiritual growth and maturity as servants of God and even as children of God. If you cannot suffer in the name of the Lord, if you cannot sacrifice for the wellbeing of others in the kingdom of God, it is a mark to show that you are still a baby. We all know that when you are childish, there is no difference between you and a slave though you are an heir who deserves everything from the Lord. Galatians 4:1 says as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ from a slave though he is master of all. Your strength and maturity as a child of God is tested when you are going through trials, tribulation and temptation in your walk with God. The apostles were never dull in their moments of trials and temptations. The apostle Paul wrote most of his epistles when he was in jail. He never put on a dull spirit because he was in jail for the Gospel. He rejoiced in tribulation and still laboured hard in the tribulation to feed and minister for those God committed into his trust.

Whatever form of tribulation you have been going through; persecution, famine, affliction, take refuge in the Lord and rejoice. Make sure in all your efforts you serve God joyfully like Job did when he went through series of tribulations. He never walked away from the Lord; rather, he held unto God for the Lord was his hope and stay. Don't grow weary because your walk of honour will attract attacks from the enemy; but know that, in all what you go through, the Lord is with you, and He is for you. The Lord has said "I will never leave you nor forsake you." The bible tells us in 2 Thessalonians 1:4-5 that:

2 Thessalonians 1:4-5 "So that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure, which is manifest evidence of the righteous judgement of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer."

One of the things you should have in mind at all times is that God is our present help in times of need. If God does not permit it, it will not happen. So, the honour of God upon our lives is justifiable by what we go through in His name. Stay true in all seasons holding on to the Lord and His word and rejoice forever irrespective of any persecution the enemy may bring your way as we see in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 that rejoice in the Lord always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord endow me with the spirit of gratitude.
- 2- Lord deliver me from distraction and keep me focused on my goal.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

EARN THE MARK OF HONOUR

1 Corinthians 9:24 “Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.”

Your becoming is a product of the choices you make. Having made the right choices, instruction is vital for your guidance. Your faithfulness in your walk with God is what will earn you the honour at the end of your journey on earth. But we should all know it is God’s good pleasure to give us the kingdom, and it is never His will that any should perish. God did not begin the good work in your life for you to end halfway, it was for you to end well with the Lord.

Philippians 1:6 “Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.”

God’s provision for all of us has been given already to start and end well. But to end well, we have a part to play to incorporate with what God has already done for us and one of the things you must guard is your faith in God. Jesus prayed for Peter about his faith that his faith should not fail, Luke 22:31-32. To earn the mark of honour, you must guard your faith to stay alive in the Lord. You may grow weary at times as a pilgrim but with your faith alive, you will always get revived and strengthened, because you can't continue with the Lord and end as a failure. Your faith in the Lord will lead to your obedience to the Lord. Deuteronomy 28:1-13 explains that to us. Our obedience to God will open a path of self-development for our lives. If you look at the examples of men that started well and did not end well, what disqualified them was that their faith was captured by the enemy, then disobedience and rebellion crept in. Everyone who has faith in God obeys God. The apostle Paul writing to the Corinthians made this clear where we took our text.

He says all run in a race but one receives the price, one earns the honour. Paul says run in such a way that you may obtain the price. You must access the provision of God's word and the leading of God's Spirit to enable you to earn the mark of honour. In 1 Corinthians 9:25, the Apostle went ahead to say everyone who competes for the price is temperate in all things. You must learn the rules of the kingdom. One of the fundamental rules of the kingdom is your faith and obedience in walking with God. No one fails in life for obeying God. All other instructions will be birth through obedience. You cannot also have faith in God and walk in disobedience before God. Everyone that has faith in the Lord will walk in obedience. What led Israel to disobedience was unbelief and what has led most of us to disobedience and rebellion is the sin of unbelief. Scripture tells us that the children of Israel did not end well because they were caught up with the sin of unbelief. Beware of unbelief as a believer; for the sin of unbelief has lured many to their destruction.

Hebrews 3:19 “They could not enter in the rest of their father because of their unbelief.” The rule of your walk with God is coined to your obedience and there are disciplines you give into in order to obey God well. All those that ended well with God obeyed God, and they gave themselves to discipline. Paul said I give myself to discipline lest after I have preached to others, I become disqualified. Moses gave in to discipline, Joseph also gave in to discipline to maintain the status of obedience as a child of God. The Lord Jesus also taught us discipline, in order to walk and live within the margin that God has given to us. There are aspects in your life that you need to watch over. You cannot have those who have not known God, those who are unbelievers being ruled by the prince of the power of the air and you make them your companions in spiritual matters.

Going to the world for help at the expense of your relationship with God; if you have truly known God, there is nothing the devil can do for your betterment. So, it is an error going the way of the world to solve your problem. Jesus taught us during His trying period in the wilderness; during His forty days and forty nights of prayers, that, you shall serve the Lord your God and Him alone shall you worship. That should be the stable ground for every believer or child of God; that, nothing and nobody should take the place of God in your life. Find out what is that good will of God for your life and yield your life to it.

You must make sure the values God has entrusted in your life must not lose its savour. In Mark 9:5, the Lord says salt is good but when the salt has lost its saltiness, it is good for nothing.

- Maintain the margin of righteousness, love and fear for God or reverend for the Lord.
- Walk on the word that will dispatch fear, worries or unbelief from your life.
- Every carrier of value as earlier said is liable to encounter fights from the within to without. The devil will use anything that is so close to you as he used Peter against Christ.
- Learn to guard your vessel and equip it to meet up with God's given standard.
- Grow in knowledge, wisdom and understanding. This will help you to subdue satanic vices.
- Cultivate an attitude of intimacy with God's presence with intense life of prayer Luke 22:24.
- Set up projects to effect your manifestation.

- As long as you live, keep developing and progressing in all your pursuit. Every true progress should have its stance from divine standpoint.
- It takes hard work to maintain true value that grows Proverbs 12:11.
- Distant yourself from the life of hypocrisy and craftiness.
- Also learn to appreciate your successes in humility and giving glory to God.
- Walk in love, walk in purity and sincerity of heart with those that God has brought into your life.

If these above-mentioned points are well kept and followed, you are that vessel to earn the mark of honour; for your consistency in the path of life enhances your growth and brings you before the table of honour in its season. Daily walk with this understanding that your ability is in Christ and not in yourself. You will be seeing the Lord working out things for your good all-round. Paul said I have finished my course. He earned the mark of honour. Peter earned the mark of honour and same with Joseph. The same God who worked in their life mightily is also at work in your life. So, you will make it and end well because the Lord has said so.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord thank you for the entrance of your word.
- 2- Lord I receive grace and strength to start well and to end well.
- 3- Oh Lord in your name let me earn the mark of honour.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER 6

ENHANCING THE REALM OF THE SPOKEN WORD

The call of God upon our lives reveals the agenda of God and the purpose that God wants to fulfill through us as His children here on earth. The declared word of faith that God has sent forth into our lives, we also need a diligent walk to make sure that all what God has said come to pass. There are attitudes that are expected of every child of God in order to align with the norms that will make the individual to enter the realm of the spoken word. Some people made it while others did not. Noah had a spoken word in regard to the Ark that he made to save his generation in Genesis 6. He had the responsibility for that spoken word to be fulfilled. Many of us who have had spoken words from scriptures, through revelation, visions, prophecy, and dreams, at times when we look at what is on ground, it doesn't resemble what we are expecting as fulfilment. There are two fundamental factors to enter that realm to fulfill the spoken word. Before we get to the factors, let us see the survey of some people that got the spoken word.

As we go through scriptures, we will realise that all the men that God called, He sent forth a word over their lives. They were entitled to shoulder the responsibility to bring these words to manifestation. Abraham had a spoken word over his life to become a father of nations. If we look at the struggle of Abraham to get his word fulfilled, he was really resisted. It took close to about 24years and counting for Isaac to be born. The battle of your life in bringing forth the evidence of what God has spoken over your life is the enemy's prime concern. Abraham waited, Sarah waited until both ran out of patience. But the word of God was still true. To the extent that the wife lured herself and her husband to compromise to the extent that the compromise smeared their offspring or downline. Many of us are going through battles because of a spoken word that came over our lives either through dreams, prophecy, visions, the scriptures .

Moses got a spoken word to take the children of Israel to the Promised Land, the enemy fought that spoken word and Moses ended up not making it to the Promised Land. Saul got the spoken word and began well as the first king of Israel, but he did not end well. There are powers of darkness assigned to break you off the word that God sent into your life and you must endeavour to stand your grounds in all seasons in order not to forfeit this word. In Matthew 16, Peter the Apostle got a spoken word from the Lord; you are Peter and upon this rock I will build my church and gates of hell shall not prevail against it. In that same chapter, the devil accessed Peter and would have almost used Peter to break the pillars that made him the rock if hell had survived. To the extent that Jesus rebuked Peter, calling him satan and telling him to get behind Him.

As all these people had battles between them and having their spoken word finding fulfilment, even in our generation we are not exempted from these same battles. What we are looking in this study is how do we access the realm of the spoken word? There are two fundamental factors that we need to lay hold on which we will be seeing from scriptures. We are going to see these factors from men like Joshua who made it to the Promised Land for they got the spoken word as we have also gotten in our generation.

- The first factor is submission and reverend to those that God has used to bring us up and yielding to God's counsel.
- The second is faith and courage.

When Moses had passed on to glory in Joshua 1 we will find these factors there. In Joshua 1:1-2 we get the first factor there; submission and reverend to those that have brought us up. The bible says after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, it came to pass that the Lord spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying, Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you and all these people to the land which I am giving to them. Moses was no more but God made sure He made mention of Moses to Joshua. This aspect repeats itself severally as God engaged Joshua. In Joshua 1:7, God told Joshua that if he would make it, God referred him to the instructions that Moses gave him. The bible says "Only be strong and very courageous that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left that you may prosper wherever you go." There was a reference given to Joshua in order to actualise the spoken word that came over him and over the children of Israel in possessing the land of Canaan.

In the book of 2 Chronicles 20, we find this also when the king told the children of Judah with respect to their faith in the Lord.

2 Chronicles 20:20 “Jehoshaphat stood and said, hear me O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem; believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established, believe in His prophets and you shall prosper.”

You will realise God referring His children to the ordained power He set before them.

The second factor is your faith in God with courage and determination. God told Joshua to be strong and be of good courage and he will have good success. Joshua 1:6-7, be strong and be of good courage for in this people you will divide as an inheritance the land that I have shown to their father to give them. Verse 7 says only be strong and very courageous that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you. Elijah fulfilled the course of God over his life by bringing the spoken word of God into manifestation. The apostles also brought the promise of God to manifestation by being humble to obey every instruction the Lord Jesus Christ gave them to tarry in Jerusalem until the heavens were opened and they received the Holy Spirit.

The spoken word of God over your life under attack, you will subdue that attack through God by your faith in Him and by being very determined and courageous. Any power that will make you not to fulfill God's spoken word over your life, that power should be destroyed! We are instructed in the book of Hebrews 6:11-12 “And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope until the end, that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.”

The above scriptures instruct us to be diligent, keep our hope till the end and to be followers of them that through faith and patience inherited the promises. There are characters we must study and know and we must follow to become because God's ways are unchangeable. Counting on this, our attention should be drawn to be aware of the task we need to cover in order to get our mission fulfilled as prescribed by God where our lives become an embodiment of what we portray in our world; our lives will produce better fruits than what we are seeing today.

By the grace and mercy of God, you must not relent your efforts as you keep pressing on to higher ground. As the days unfold, you will become a reflection of all what God has told you and shown to you in clarity. Maintain the margin of your walk with God with reverend and purity, making sure you bear the fruits of the Spirit and live with it. Ask the Lord to give you the right attitude in seeking His face. As you daily face each day, don't lose sight of your focus. Ask the Lord for daily guidance. When you must have done all as Christ did, you will boldly say as Christ said, "it is finished"; and you will boldly say as apostle Paul said: "I have finished my course". Fulfill that dream and vision that God has sent into your life for His grace is sufficient for you. Lean on Him and it will come to pass. Stay loyal, stay faithful. Remain humble and God will lift you to fulfill all that which He has spoken concerning your life.

God bless you!

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord grant me grace to fulfill the word sent into my life.
- 2- Lord destroy anything that will hinder me not to access the realm of my spoken word from you.
- 3- Lord daily guide me as I face each moment of my life.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.
