MBU

Praise the Lord! We want to sincerely appreciate God for His faithfulness, mercy and divine intervention concerning the church of God and the church building project in Mbu. There have been trials, attacks, temptations and oppositions from powers fighting the purpose of God in the land but through them all God has remained faithful. There had been contentions in the church of God but like in the day when Peter was arrested and the church prayed, prayers were made by the church and the Lord intervened and gave us victory over the powers of darkness. We thank God for since then, we have experienced unusual speed and progress in the church project, unity among brethren, victory over powers of darkness and growth in the church. We thank God for the successful completion of the first phase of the church building project which is the foundation stage. To God be all the glory!

Brother Beltus:

PINYIN

Glory to God! We as a church we are grateful to God for His servant who has hazarded his life in this generation to make sure the truth reaches the ends of the earth without adulteration. We thank God for the monthly publication of the "Manna Feast" that is of great blessing to us. The timely word of God that comes out each month in the booklet has brought about transformation in our lives. We cannot thank God enough for this Masterpiece. We pray that the Lord will continue to Grace His servant and increase Him each day in Jesus name. We pray for fresh oil and more wisdom upon God's servant in Jesus name. Thank you Jesus!

INTRODUCTION

To God Almighty be all glory and honour for His love that has brought us into existence. The essence of our existence or living is to glorify God and answering well at the doorpost of divine command. In this season of the “Outpour of Fragrant Worship”, we must station our lives and respond to the demands of the kingdom, to the honour of our Father; whereby, our response will meet up with the fruitfulness of the kingdom life. This will bring us to the outpour of what we were created for; which is to worship God. The topmost form of our worship is living in obedience and walking at the center of God’s will for our lives.

Solomon will have this to say when he wrote in Ecclesiastes about what we were and had to live for in Ecclesiastes 12:13. He said let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter, fear God, keep His commandment for this is the whole duty of man. Fragrant worship is an in-depth intimacy in our walk with God and responding promptly to all divine expectations as required. Awake in this season and become that instrument of worship where the heavens will be proud of you as a person and of us all as a people born of God, being joyful of all the Lord has done for us and is still doing. We should thank Him for His ability and manifestation in our midst, loving God intimately without any limitation or boundaries.

Let us awake and pour out our souls in adoration before the Almighty God who is, who was and who is to come. Once more, welcome to this season of the Outpour of Fragrant Worship; let your fragrance of worship ascend to the throne like never before. Intimacy! Intimacy! Intimacy! With the Lord!

CHAPTER 1

THE LORD IS MY DELIGHT

Deuteronomy 6:5 “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.”

The One you delight in is the One you truly love and the One you love; you will remain in union with that One forever. It is our love for God that creates in us the delight for intimacy with the Lord. Love is best expressed in one laying down his life for the ones he loves. Love could also be best expressed in one obeying and learning the pathway of the one he loves: finding out the will of God for your life and totally yielding to it. If we truly find pleasure in our God, there is never a day we will think of walking away from Him. We stay in the Lord by obedience, and we walk away from the Lord by disobedience. Each time an individual fails to obey God, that individual has walked away from God. And each time an individual obeys God, that individual is walking with God and showing true delight for the Lord.

When you find pleasure, peace and life in the Lord, the response for such glorious gift of life given to us will create in us a profound love or delight in God. When we delight in God, the effect will be seen and felt. When you delight in the Lord, you become an instrument of worship. There will be an atmosphere of a continuous devotion, commitment and fellowship with the Lord. Your fellowship with and commitment to the Lord is seen in your obedience. The effect or impact of your obedience will be the fruits your life will bear for God's glory. The Psalmist says in Psalm 27:1 “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?”

The effect of our delight is that we will be bold to speak as the Psalmist said “the Lord is my light and my salvation.” When Christ was talking in the Gospel of John 14:15, there were a group of disciples that had shown delight in the Lord and the Lord said; if you love Me, you will keep My commandments. When we keep the commandments given to us or meeting with the expectation of the kingdom in our lives, the Lord says we will not just be seasonal worshippers; but we should continue in His Word, and we will possess the seal of discipleship. The power of God’s Word carries the truth that liberates people from chains and bondages. There is an impact that those that delight in the Lord will always manifest.

- Our delight in the Lord will commit God’s attention that will grant to us the presence of God. The presence of God brings all we need and shall ever need both visible and invisible things.
- What is impossible with men that do not delight in God will be made possible for men that delight in God.

- Everyone that has made God his delight will shine like the star of the firmament.
- The guarantee God has given to us as His offspring that takes delight in Him is His presence. From the Old to the New Testament, all those that delighted in and walked with the Lord, the Lord keeps telling them “My presence will go with you; I am with you always.” The act of loving God’s presence is an act that every worshipper must long for.
- Your delight in God commits God to assign ministering spirits; that is, angelic beings to encamp round about you and they are there to deliver you and minister to you.

Psalm 34:7 “The angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him, and delivers them.”

Also, in Hebrews 1:14, we are told that the angels are ministering spirits sent forth to minister to them who shall be heirs of salvation. There are things that we will do which are marks to show that the Lord is our delight.

- If our lives please God, then that is a sign to show that the Lord is our delight.
- If we prioritize the will of God against our desires.
- If we love the brethren and live with them in the pathway of the Lord.
- If we live consciously with the kingdom demand of daily reaching out with the Gospel to the lost.
- Living and serving to make sure that the standard of God is kept among us.
- Standing in the gap for others to rise and stand in the Lord.
- As shepherds, making sure that the flock under us are well kept for God's glory.

- When you love God by loving the household of faith.
- When you will walk and live by the standard of the prescribed Word that God has given to us.
- When you always defend the truth of the Gospel at all costs.
- When you live a life of praise for the Lord in season and out of season, then you will stay in the faith and never to faint.
- In the midst of your challenges and trials, because you delight in the Lord, you will refuse to be offended in the Lord; rather, you will give God the glory for everything He has permitted you to go through. Paul will say to the Philippians in Philippians 1:21 “For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”

This is an anthem that should sound in the spirit of everyone that has made the Lord his or her delight.

Lastly, you will not just live for Christ without an effect or without work done. The Lord Jesus made it very clear in the gospel that the time the Father gave Him was to meet up with a task. As a people called and saved by the Lord, the years the Lord has given us on earth are also to meet up with a task. In John 4:34, the Lord told the people these words:

John 4:34 “Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work.”

Jesus still gave us more emphasis on the mission He was to accomplish within the time frame that the Father gave Him on earth in

John 9:4 “I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work.”

A vessel that delights in the Lord is called out to live a life of impact for the glory of God. As the Lord shows us the pattern to follow; that even in the midst of obscurity as the godman on earth, He stayed yielded to the Father, we should also yield our lives to the Father no matter the challenges we may be going through.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord increase my intimacy with you.
- 2- Lord take out of me anything that will make me not to be a delight.
- 3- Lord help me to maximize time to meet up with divine demands.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

THE LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

Psalm 112:4 “Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness; He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.”

The call of God upon a people is a call to enhance the life of God that produces light. The expectation of the upright is to shine forth in different spheres of life. Your rising and your shining forth become factors of influence that spans from the spiritual to the physical. In the Gospel of John 1:4, the scripture says in Him was life and that life was the light of men. So, the life of Christ in us becomes our light. Having been born of God and being in possession of or partakers of the godlife, the elements of darkness will always rise to persecute you. Until they become converted and become light like you, there is no way you can become compatible with them. This is because light and darkness are not compatible and will never be compatible.

If you claim to be a child of God and you are compatible with people of the world; and they yoke with you without any friction, the truth and the bottom-line is that you are also darkness with them. As long as the world lies in darkness, those that are in Christ Jesus that have been lighted will always be persecuted by those who still walk in darkness. For light fellowships with light and darkness fellowships with darkness. The Apostle Paul said that all those who live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution: 2 Corinthians 3:12. Everyone born of God must be an icon of impact in their generation; irrespective of their geographical location. John had this witness and did testify that in Christ was life and that life was our light and that light shines in darkness and darkness did not comprehend it. So, everyone must light out from the spiritual to the physical. The Apostles in their days lighted out; Daniel in his days also lighted out. In Acts of the Apostles 17, there was a testimony that was recorded as Paul and his companions were concerned. It was recorded that Paul and his companions had turned the world upside down by the preaching of the Gospel. This was when Paul entered Athens in Acts 17:6. The Jews had a witness that Paul impacted his world spiritually; so also was Stephen. As a believer, your presence in a place must be felt with distinct significance. We should fight hard not to lose our saltiness because when you lose your saltiness, men will trample you underfoot.

Luke 14:34 says salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, wherewith shall it be seasoned. The consciousness of your impact will trigger your change in this life but if you are not conscious that you were saved to impact your world, you will live and die unnoticed. You must identify the things that will trigger your light to shine well and fan them and you must identify the things that are there to shutdown your rising as a child of God. Distinct life of security is the life of righteousness. In Proverbs 2:21, we are told that:

Proverbs 2:21 “For the upright will dwell in the land, and the blameless will remain in it.”

The above scripture states that the upright shall dwell in the land and the perfect shall remain in it. One of the factors to shine forth is to possess an upright living that is sponsored by the seed of God in us 1 John 3:9 Whoever is born of God does not sin because the seed of God remains in the life of that individual.

The next factor to shine forth is to be endowed with divine ability for excellence. Daniel was endowed with divine ability for excellence, so also was Joseph. Intelligence and increase in knowledge is what must daily have access and increase in your life as the vessel that have been saved by God. You are not chosen by chance, you are chosen because you have been saved, and you carry values that scale you above your peers.

The third factor to influence is the reflection of the fruits that your life bears because words without effect or results will amount you to nothing. The fruits of your being must be in demand as a virtue that gives solution to your world. Until you are in demand, you are not enriched or endowed enough. The peculiarity of your life must be outstanding; the virtue you carry must be virtue that men clamour at and longed for. You are not permitted by God to be subjugated by the power of works of darkness. The growth of your impact will start from where you live, with men you co-habit with. The Lord told the Israelites in bold letters during their journey out of Egypt to the Promised Land that “You shall be the head and not the tail, you shall be above only and you shall not be beneath Deuteronomy 28:13.

The challenges you are exposed to is the pivot given to you to make a difference in life. It is the platform given to you to make a difference in your generation. So don't say why me? Walk through that fire, walk through that storm and become a voice for your world. Let your light not go off, let your lamp not go off, let your midnight meet you with your light burning, let the mercy of God speak for you and let the grace of God make it possible.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for making me a light to light my world.
- 2- Oh Lord let mercy speak for me and let grace work for me to break forth as that voice.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

GOD'S BELOVED

1 John 3:1 “Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed unto us, that we should be called children of God! Therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.”

Our identity given by the Lord to make us in His likeness portrays a love that is surpassing. Among all the creatures, the heavens have declared that we humans have been made in the image of God. Making us in His image and likeness, we are gods after the resemblance of our Maker. No one could have ever shown us any love that can be compared to this than the Lord who have made us. When love is shown, when love is given or expressed, one other thing that pertains to life follows. Love in its expression makes everything good and worthwhile. We are the beloved of the Father. That is why we are called the sons of God. If we have a comprehensive knowledge of God's love, nothing will hold us bound by embracing the divine pathway set before us by the Lord. The only part we have to do by responding to God's love for us is letting our lives to be expressions of God's divine love. God has not withheld anything, not even His Son from us for us to become.

In Romans 5:8 the word of God says God commended His love towards us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. The death of Christ on the Cross is the peak of divine expression of love. Scripture tells us in John 15:13 that greater love had no man than this but that a man should lay down His life for His friends. We are without excuse not to live an excellent life because the Lord has done it all for us and we are God's beloved. Even when man did not seek God, God sought man for his wellbeing. God's divine storehouse is opened to everyone who will dare to believe. Romans 8:32 says if God did not spare His only Son but gave Him unto us all, (Jesus is God's sacrifice for humanity); scripture says how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things; not somethings. The riches of God in Christ belong to us. John the apostle says we love Him because He first loved us. Our response to the love of God is by living for Him and staying true to God in the midst of challenges. This is a prove of our love, trust and faithfulness to God. The thoughts and plans of God for our lives are beyond what we can explain. In 1 Corinthians 2:9, the scripture says but as it is written, eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has entered into the heart of man the things God has prepared for them that love Him.

As we walk with God and live in union with the Holy Spirit, God will reveal those things the world does not know to us that have received Christ. In Jeremiah 29:11, God is expressing His love for us as His people wherewith the Lord says I know the thoughts that I think towards you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. God is not a man that should lie. As born-again sons and daughters of God, your expectations shall not be cut off. They will all be fulfilled in their season as declared by the Lord. Scripture tells us in Proverbs 23:18 that surely there is an end and your expectation shall not be cut off. Illuminate your life, illuminate your understanding with God's provision given to us in scriptures. As you light your life, you will be an expression of God's beloved. By God's grace, daily equip yourself with the revelation of His Word. Make your devotion a continuous act of fellowship with the Lord. No one can love us, not even we can love ourselves more than how the Lord has loved us. Let us be determined like the apostle Paul says that whether by life or by death, let Jesus be magnified in our body. That is a statement of true commitment for God Philippians 1:20. If no one has shown you love, know that your Maker has shown you much love.

Stay in the bosom of God's love and keep shining in the glory of God as a loved person. Let nothing trouble you, for Jesus has overcome troubles and given you peace that surpasses knowledge. Live each day as an expression of your love for God. The apostle Paul asked the Romans what shall separate us from the love of Christ? He said nothing. You are God's beloved, live as a beloved son and daughter of God. Stay Graced and live empowered for God's glory.

The love of God shown to us and given to us is stronger and mightier than every odd, opposition or challenges you may face as humans. This is our faith then as sons and daughters of God, whatever meets us or faces us gets God's involvement. Be reassured that as the days unfold, God's determined plan for your life is going from good to better, better to best, from strength to glory and glory to glory. Stay true, stay alive in God's love. Remain unmovable, remain unshakeable. Hold tight to it because in it your being is preserved, honoured and glorified.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for all the sacrifices you bestowed for my wellbeing.
- 2- Oh Lord increase my faith and help me walk in love.
- 3- Oh Lord let my love for you never grow weary in the name of Jesus.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 4

BEING AN INSTRUMENT OF WORSHIP

Revelation 4:11 “You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power; for you created all things, and by your will they exist and were created.”

Instruments of worship are sons and daughters of men that have chosen God’s pathway in their generation to do those things that are pleasing to God. They live their lives as vessels that God can entrust His plans in their hands to run with. Those vessels are outstanding in their generation; these are instruments of worship. In the Old Testament, there are three men mentioned by the Spirit of God. These men can be seen as instruments of worship because when those in their time break and adulterated God’s word in its standard, they stood tall and maintain God’s sanctity in their lives. The heavens in all times is looking for those sons and daughters that will step out and say Lord you can trust me; Lord, you can send me, Lord, you can depend on me concerning your mission for humanity.

All the days of their lives, they are bent, even at the point of shedding blood to live for the pleasure of God; for they know, and are convinced that living for God's will and God's pleasure will reflect God's glory upon their lives. The heavens can count on them at all times. They are consistent with their standard of living for God. They are not men soon given to change. They are men that love and obey God even unto death. These are men that cannot perish with their world. These are men that hate iniquity and love righteousness. They know how to ascend the hills of the Lord with holy hands and holy lives. These are men that take delight in living righteously. They take no pleasure in offending God or grieving the spirit of God. Being an instrument of worship, you can't perish with your world. your life will be preserved because you are God's sort out, a city that God can't forsake.

There are three men mentioned in scriptures that were outstanding in the midst of corruption in their generation. These men are mentioned by prophet Ezekiel in Ezekiel 14:13-14, we have Noah, we have Job and Daniel who were all outstanding in their generation in the midst of evil. Let us hear what the Lord said about these people in

Ezekiel 14:13-14 "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it; I will cut off its supply of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it. Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness, says the Lord God."

In the days of Noah, scripture records that he lived in days when violence had covered the whole earth. But his quest for righteousness led him to find favour in the sight of God. In Genesis 6 the Bible says the world was covered with violence, but Noah found grace in the eyes of God. Everyone that found grace walked with God, so Noah found grace and walked with God. In Job 1, God testified of Job's life. Job hated sin and eschewed evil, and he became a figure for the heavens to point to for men to follow. In the book of Daniel 1, Daniel refused to defile himself with the king's delicacy. He refused to bow to idols. These men were all outstanding and the Lord said even if the world was to perish and these men were in the world, they would not perish with the world; because they made themselves instruments of worship. They were devoted to the Lord and for the Lord. All they did was like an incense that went up before the presence of God that could not be accorded. The Psalmist yearned to the Lord with a request for his prayer to ascend to the Lord as the evening sacrifice. The heavens are opened to receive the prayers of instruments of worship.

Psalm 141:2 “Let my prayer be set before you as incense, the lifting of my hands as the evening sacrifice.”

Revelation 8:4 “And the smoke of the incense, with the prayer of the saints, ascended before God from the angel’s hand.”

Being an instrument of worship, your prayers and the effect of it will always reach the throne of God. You are sort out and become outstanding. The royalty will become yours. So whatever may disqualify us not to become these instruments of worship, may every weight of sin leave us and let the righteousness of God embody us. There is a commitment that God spoke in scripture in Isaiah 62:10-12 “Go through, go through the gates! Prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway! Take out the stones, lift up a banner for the peoples! Indeed the Lord has proclaimed to the end of the world: say to the daughter of Zion, surely your salvation is coming; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before him. And they shall call them the Holy People, the Redeemed of the Lord; and you shall be called Sought out, a City not Forsaken.”

Looking at God’s demands, there is a wake up call for those in Zion to set themselves aside for the Master’s use. Become that instrument of worship for God’s glory.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord grant me grace for an outstanding life for your glory.
- 2- Lord make me to hate what you hate and to love what you love.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

BREAKING THE LIMIT AS A WORSHIPPER

Psalm 1:1-2 “Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law meditates day and night.”

The grace and the mercy of God always identify with those who seek for righteousness. Worshippers are men and women who hunger for God’s presence. They take delight in meditating and living by the inscripted word of God. A worshipper is that person that is devoted to God ceaselessly. That continuous devotion brings an entrance of divinity into humanity for breaking yokes of impossibilities. Men like Enoch and Elijah devoted their lives to God to the point that the end result of their devotion was, they did not see death but were all translated. In your act of worship, in your act of being devoted for the Lord, there are things that nature cannot address but in your quest for the Lord and fellowship with the Lord, you will turn the order of creature for the glory of God and for the honour of your life.

True worshippers are men that break limit and alter norms for God to be seen as God in the affairs of men. There are effects that must identify with you as a worshipper that will break limits. The highway in understanding God does not just end by searching and reading alone. It goes together with searching, reading and of course with an encounter with God; wherewith the sovereignty of God will lay hold and get hold of you by revelation. The revelation of God upon a man's life must reflect a transformed nature that portrays the life and nature of God in the life of that individual. Many Pharisees and Sadducees in the days of Jesus read scriptures but they never knew God because they wanted to know God by letters. We don't know God by letters alone; we know God by both letters and revelation. The revelation of God over a man's life is that divine encounter we are talking about that transforms you and changes your course of life.

Everyone that has encountered God must be able to showcase a transformed life that produces the fruit of the Spirit that accords with the nature and ways of God. In the gospel of John, the woman at the well was trying to prove that she knew God but her knowledge about God did not give her a transformed life. In the gospel of John 5, we are also told of Jesus with the doctors or teachers of the law who never knew the God that gave that law. The Jews were angry with Jesus in John 5 that He had healed somebody on the Sabbath day and they were also angry with Jesus that He equalled Himself with God. Jesus told the Jewish people in John 5:39 that search the scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life, and these are they which testify of Me.

The Jewish people had letters without a change of life. If the word of God you know have not changed you, then you have not met God. That is why scripture says letters kill, but the Spirit gives life.

The Lord Jesus reiterated it in John 6:63 that the words you hear they are life and they are Spirit. There is an impact that worshippers will portray from God's presence to their world that have not yet encountered God. There is nothing within the framework of God's sovereignty that God has destined to express through humans that can be withheld from those that worship God. The secret of God belongs to those that worship Him. In Deuteronomy 29:29, the bible tells us that secret things belong to the Lord our God but those things which He reveals to us belong to us and to our children.

When we take a journey of those who walked with God, they were able to sponsor outstanding acts of God that spanned beyond the scope of natural ability. Abraham and Sarah they break limits as worshippers. It was naturally impossible for a woman like Sarah at the age of 90 to bear a child. But being a worshipper, the word of God came at the age of 90 and quickened the womb of Sarah and she brought forth a son at that old age. For everyone called out by God to serve God, don't play with your devotion with God. Your devotion will bring breakthrough and miracles that you can't imagine.

Daniel was a devoted worshipper. Through his devotion, he was able to access secret of secrets; and he was able to defile the king's order that was to execute all the wise men in Babylon which of course Daniel was among them. As a worshipper, Daniel defiled that order. We are told in Daniel 6 that he created an interval of devotion in the place of prayers with the Spirit of God three times a day. As a worshipper, he break the limit and break the king's order which said men were not to pray for 30days. As a worshipper, Daniel survived the lions' den while his accusers perished in the lions' den. As a worshipper, you command God's blessings upon your life.

The three Hebrew boys as worshippers survived the furnace of fire while those who were heating the fire out of the fire perished by the heat of the fire. At the end of the day, Nebuchadnezzar testified that they casted three men but he saw four men not bound but loose, walking in the midst of the fire. He said the fourth man was like the Son of God. These devoted worshippers also break limits.

No one swallowed by a fish as a human can survive in the fish's belly but Jonah a worshipper survived in the fish's belly for three days and three nights. It does not matter what faces the world today, as a worshipper, your case is different. For whosoever seeks the Lord wholeheartedly will find Him. I don't know whatever is standing before you as a limitation, through your act of worship and devotion to the Lord, that limitation will be destroyed!

Cornelius devoted his life to God and he had a heavenly encounter that led to the salvation of his family. Peter was rescued by the angel of God in Acts 12 because he was a worshipper and the church of God was also in the place of worship. Time will cut us short to talk about apostle Paul with the Barbarians being bitten by a venomous snake but the apostle Paul stood in the midst of the storm because he was a worshipper. At the shore of Malta, great was the manifestation before sons and daughters of God who were worshippers.

As you take delight in the Lord, those limitations are going down. This is your season as a worshipper for the supernatural to unveil its strength over things that held men bound. In Exodus 23:21-25, the Lord commands His acts over His sons and daughters that worship Him and keep His commandments.

Exodus 23:21-25 “Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions; for My name is in Him. But if you indeed obey His voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries. For My Angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorites and the Hittites, and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off. You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and completely break down their secret pillars. So you shall serve the Lord your God, and He will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from the midst of you.”

Be conscious of God’s intervention upon your life as you walk before the Lord. Everything that looks insurmountable will be surmountable. As prison doors got opened on their own accord and things gave way as the Lord issued command, as a worshipper, this will be your earnest expectations. You will not be held bound by circumstances, but every yoke will be destroyed as you rise as a worshipper.

PRAYERS

- 1- Father thank you for saving my soul.
- 2- Lord clothe me with all it takes to live a vibrant life of a worshipper.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

A LIFE OF FAITH

Hebrews 11:6 “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a Rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.”

A life of faith is a life of obedience to God’s word and leading. A successful walk with God with the human is a walk that abides under the command of God’s word and the leading of God’s Spirit. The effect of that life is causing the immaterial to become material. In 2 Corinthians 5:7, scripture says for we walk by faith, not by sight. A faith walk is just for you to get the command from the Lord and abide by it. If you abide by it, you will see the reality and fulfilment of your life in Christ. Over the ages, the believer’s faith in the Lord has been the target of the enemy – satan. The act and plan of God is connected to us or linked to us by our faith in God. When the devil wants to destroy a man not to access the mercy, forgiveness and grace of God towards a man, what the devil does is to crush the faith of that individual towards God. The greatest sin that separates man from God is the sin of unbelief. Many will go to hell not because of the sin they committed but because they lacked faith to embrace the provision of God for their salvation. You please God by your life of faith in Him as well as you displease God by not having faith in Him.

Faith will respond in this manner; if God says I can be saved, then my respond is I am saved for God says so. Those who got saved were never saved because they were strong to be saved but because they believed God said they were saved. Whatever we are today and shall be tomorrow will be anchored to our faith in God. Everything we will have from God will be sponsored by our faith in Him. When Lazarus died in John 11, when Jesus was taken to the tomb of Lazarus, Martha did not believe that Lazarus will resurrect; because, she resisted Jesus not to open the tomb of Lazarus on the account that before Jesus came, Lazarus was already dead four days ago. She was more assured of the death of Lazarus than the resurrection of Lazarus. She told the Lord by this time, Lazarus should be stinking and Jesus replied Martha in John 11:40 that if you will believe, then you will see the glory of God.

Our access to the supernatural is by our faith in all the provisions that God has made for us in the supernatural. It was that act of faith that commanded attention for the supernatural to release the answers they needed. Hebrews says without faith, we cannot please God. You can't serve God in unbelief or limiting the ability of God provided for us in His word. Never you allow the enemy to shipwreck your faith in walking in the possibility of God's power. One prayer the saint or the pilgrim must always pray is "O God, help my faith not to fail." You are not going to triumph in life because you have the power; you will triumph because God says you can triumph. Your victory and overcoming life as a believer is tied to your faith. Those who backslided did not backslide because satan was strong; they backslided because their faith failed. They didn't see themselves surviving or going through the storm.

Faith does not need to feel or see before it believes; rather, it needs to believe before it feels and sees. In Luke 22:31-32, Jesus interceded for Peter's faith not to fail. You will never be a victim of the devil as long as your faith is standing tall. In Hebrews 11:2-3, the scripture tells us that by faith, the elders obtained a good report. A man or a woman of faith is a carrier of good report and a carrier of good news.

The word of God goes further to explain that through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God. Your rising and survival is by the word of God; and you access that provision by your faith. Without faith, salvation is not possible for any man. We got saved by grace through faith. A life of faith is a life of obedience to God's word. A city with a foundation is a city with life built on God's word. Abraham is an expression of faith walk.

Hebrews 11:8 “By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.”

The bible tells us that by faith when Abraham was called to go to the place which he would receive as an inheritance, he obeyed. So the walk of faith is a walk of obedience. Abraham did not obey because he knew where he was going. Rather, he obeyed because God had commanded him to move. If God has given instructions, it means God knows; you may not need to know. All you have to do is to obey and when you obey, you will obtain the blessing and the promise. Your walk of faith goes along with patience, keeping a life of integrity with God. Having the right attitude and living right will earn you a great worth in obtaining the promises of God. When you follow the examples of legends of faith as the bible commands us in Hebrews

6:12, we will not be lazy but we will walk on our faith and patience and keeping integrity just like the bible says that we should not be lazy, but we should follow them who through faith and patience obtained the promise.

When you walk by faith, you will fulfill the law of the Spirit. Live a life of faith, walk in victory and walk in dominion.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord endow me with the life of a living faith.
- 2- Oh Lord instill in me the spirit of obedience.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.
