MINISTRY TESTIMONIES FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE 2026

KUMBA

Praise the Lord! I thank God for the gift of the “Manna Feast” to our world and what God has been doing and is still doing as far as the booklet is concerned. We cannot thank God enough for the material He is equipping us with this end time. We remain grateful for the timely word in every publication of the “Manna Feast”. I was particularly blessed by chapter 4 of the May edition, “Rejoice in Tribulation”. I thank God immensely for His word that never gets old. Thank you Jesus!

Bishop Erick:

PINYIN

Glory to God! I thank God for the “Manna Feast” of the month of April. I was particularly blessed by chapter 5 titled “Walk in the Spirit”. When I treated this chapter in church, my brethren and I were revived spiritually. I thank God for using His servant to bring revival to the church through this publication. I will forever remain grateful. To God be the glory!

Elder Mathias:

NDOP

Hallelujah! I thank God for His grace, mercy and love over my life. I also thank God for His servant that He has placed over our lives. I thank God for when I took the decision to serve God, friends and family rejected me. I made up my mind and stood my grounds even when my family and friends turn their backs on me. In this month of “The Outpour of Fragrant Worship”, my mother who had rejected me was now the one telling other family members to follow my God. I thank God for the love of Christ. Secondly, I am grateful to God because the people that had been fighting the prayer cell are the same people running after the prayer cell especially to get the “Manna Feast”. Thank God for He makes everything beautiful in His time. Glory to God!

Mama Margaret:

BALI

Praise God! I am grateful to God for the wonders He is doing in my life through the “Manna Feast”. I planted plantains on my farm, and it had grown to the extend that it already bore plantains when I went one day and there was no plantains on the stem again, only the stem. I planted another one and by the grace of God it is doing fine. Also, I planted palm nuts which grew up to the state of almost bearing fruits. I also went to the farm one day and someone had uprooted the palm tree and only about 3 roots were holding the tree. I took the “Manna Feast” of the month of Covenant Activation, buried under the palm tree, prayed and covered the roots back in the soil. This happened in 2022 and to the glory of God, the palm tree gained roots again and this year, it bore fruits on five different cones. I started harvesting the fruits and I have eaten palm oil from the fruits I harvested from the palm tree. This is what only Jehovah can do. I give God the glory for this outstanding miracle. Thank you Jesus!

Mama Fanny:

BAMBILI

Praise God! I am grateful for the teachings in the “Manna Feast” of the month of June especially chapters 2, “The Light In The Darkness”, 4 “Being An Instrument Of Worship”, and 5, “Breaking The Limit As A Worshipper” respectively. These chapters boosted my faith and encouraged me to continue in a life of worship to God genuinely and joyfully. I return all the glory to Master Jesus. Glory to God!

Brother Mathias:

INTRODUCTION

Glory and honour be to the Most High God who has showered upon our lives an expression of love that can't be fathomed. Our daily walk with the Lord amounts only to good things that foster good news for our uprising. Where God has taken us from and where He is taking us to is quite credible that we may not have words to express. As we answer to the call of salvation and give ourselves to His leading, the response of faith we've given into only turns to our credit and honour. In this month of Credibility and Rest, God is adding value and honour to the lives of His children because we have made Him our portion for life. No one decays or rots when the Almighty God becomes the portion of such an individual.

In this month of credibility and rest, do not be left out; not for any reason. It is a month to rise in the splendour of God's glory. It is a month of rest for God alone is the Giver of that rest. So rest and credibility await you this month. As you step into the month, possess the consciousness of being credible and the thought of rest that will be sponsored by God in your life. Once more, welcome to this era of Credibility and Rest. God bless you!

CHAPTER 1

HOPE IN THE LORD

Psalm 62:5 “My soul, wait silently for God alone, for my expectation is from Him.”

There are expectations that may come through men, but true expectation of life is in the making of the Almighty God. Those things that are beyond human capability takes the Hand of God for them to happen in their season. We should know that God has made things to happen in their seasons. So, through God we should be able to figure out the season of our expectation to gain fulfilment. True life's substance survives with God's provision which is ultimate; not with the enemy's dictates that may give us an alternative. God has always wanted that man should operate on the premise of His ultimate order.

Ultimate will take you from the beginning to the end while alternative may give you a beginning but not a good end. As long as you humble yourself under the hands of the Almighty God, the expectations of your life will find fulfilment. But if we live a life of disobedience, pride, a life that does not reflect God's glory or a life that God does not delight in, the expectation of honour we may need from the Lord may never come. But if you are a child of God that loves God and fear Him, the Lord is more than able to keep those things that you have committed into His Hands and to make them come to pass.

To wait upon the Lord is a step that you should not have any other alternative out of God. Many at times we pretend to be waiting on God while we have many other alternatives out of God. That is why the season of our expectation may fail in its manifestation when our minds are not perfectly stationed on the Lord. One who hopes in the Lord must serve God with singleness of heart. You must not walk with God with a divided mind. When you are waiting on God with a divided mind, your expectation will fail; it will not come to pass. James will have this to say in

James 1:8, he says a double minded man is unstable in all his ways. When you ask in faith, James says don't be unstable because if you are unstable, you will be like the sea driven by the wind and tossed.

Esther hoped in the Lord for the deliverance of the children of Israel and she said “If I perish, I perish!” She did not create any ground or avenue of compromise. Everyone that hopes in the Lord should not live in compromise. We should hold unto the standard of living as expected of the Lord from us. Compromise is one of the things that has kept many children of God stranded and many tend to justify themselves by their own righteousness; not the righteousness of God that has been given to us in Christ Jesus. Many at times we profess that we are waiting on God but behind the scenes we are simply doing our own things; not waiting on God. When you wait on God, you allow Him to do it His own way. We can’t be waiting on God and doing things our own way.

The heavens applaud those who are given to righteousness. Righteous living orders your life to become an entity of honour and trust. Anyone that is righteous can be trusted and anyone that can be trusted will emerge in honour and rest. In the word of God, scriptures tells us in Proverbs 23:18 that

Proverbs 23:18 “For surely there is a hereafter, and your hope will not be cut off.”

Scripture says surely there is an end, and your expectation shall not be cut off. This scripture will not find fulfilment in the lives of those who do not desire to live righteously. The expectation of corrupt people will be the judgement of God. The expectation that men desire for their lives will come by the fruits and life of righteousness. The Bible tells us in Proverbs 11:7 that he who is cruel troubles his own soul. When a wicked man dies, his expectations shall perish. So, everyone who hopes in the Lord must live for the Lord and everyone who lives in the Lord does not live in his own will but in the will of God who has loved him. All those that waited on God, their hopes got their fulfilment and their expectations were met. These men had the account that they lived righteously. When we look at the account of Luke about Simeon who served in the temple, Simeon had an expectation that before he died, he would see the Messiah. Simeon had a life he lived for God. Today if we are hoping on God to do the things we can't do for ourselves, we should make sure we are serving

God in spirit and in truth. In Luke 2, the scripture gives us the life Simeon lived and how his hope was never deferred. Those things that God has revealed to you, it will take your walk of righteousness with God for those things to be made manifest.

Luke 2:25-26 “And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ.”

Looking at the record of Simeon, he had hope in the Lord and his expectation did not fail because he lived a life for God. You who have been living a life for God, don’t get into compromise, maintain a life of righteousness in God and your hope will never fail. We should also know that you cannot separate hope from faith. Trust the Lord, believe in Him; knowing that no matter what may be happening, God remains faithful. Maintain a steadfast life in your walk with God and in your services to God; for God will credit your life. Your expectation will not be cut off as long as you live for the Lord and the Lord takes delight in your life. In Psalm 125:1, the bible says those that trust in the Lord; those that have faith in the Lord, storms will not move them, they will move and silence storms. While they are waiting on the Lord, they will have the integrity and dignity that comes from God. In Psalm 130:5 the bible says I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I do hope. We should know that the word of God will prosper in the way He has sent it. That expectation that has burdened your mind, as God takes pleasure over your life, the expectation will find fulfilment in their season.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord grant me grace to stay faithful till the end.
- 2- Lord deliver me from every vice that may tend to truncate my love for you.
- 3- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 2

GUARD YOUR PEACE

True peace is a gift from God. This is the peace that grants an individual rest in life. The peace of God can only be gotten by the life of God in an individual. When Jesus spoke about peace, this peace was not for the entire world, but the peace was directed to those who have faith in Him and had surrendered their lives to Him. To guard your peace, you must be in Christ Jesus. Anyone who possesses the peace of God in him is a child of God. You cannot make peace if you don't have peace; it takes one who has peace to make peace with people. The life of God given to us is the life that embodies the peace of God that surpasses knowledge. In John 14:27, Jesus made a public declaration to His disciples as the scripture reads:

John 14:27 “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.”

Jesus told the disciples that His peace He gives to them and His peace He leaves with them. There is a dichotomy between what the world calls peace and what Jesus calls peace. Why should we guard this peace? Because the world is full of trouble and we are in the world. The world only has excitements, but the indwelling peace comes from God. The world gives its own peace to people by events and activities that suit their taste, but the peace of God is given to us from the life of God that we have through faith. Christ was imputing knowledge in the lives of the disciples the same as the Holy Ghost is doing with us now. With the understanding of the peace of God with us, we are not supposed to be troubled, we are not supposed to be carried with fear. To abide in the peace of God is the gateway to guard that peace. The Lord says if we abide in Him, then His word should also abide in us.

The peace of God is guarded also by us living by the true knowledge of God given to us in His word. The peace given to us from the Lord will be kept as we abide in the Lord by obeying His word. Grow in the knowledge and wisdom of God. More often because of ignorance, we violate God's word. When we violate His word, the peace of God will leave us, because each time the Holy Spirit is grieved, we will lose the peace of God. There are factors that we need to be aware of. As earlier mentioned, true peace is a gift from God. In the book of Galatians 6:16, scripture tells us that as many as walk according to the rule, peace and mercy be upon them. There is a rule or a pathway the Lord has set for us to walk on and when we walk on that pathway, the peace of God will be upon us. The pathway we are to walk on is not our pathway, but the pathway of God set before us.

When God takes delight in our lives, His peace reign in us. The effect as we walk by the rules of God's word is that we will experience the peace of God that knowledge cannot express. That peace will keep our hearts in health.

Philippians 4:7 “And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

The expression of God's peace upon the life of a believer goes beyond knowledge or human expression. When this peace reign in us, even in this trouble world, we will be at rest. It is in the context of this text that Paul says nothing can take us out of God because His peace with us gives us stability.

Take the responsibility as a child of God to guard this peace by walking by His rules set before us.

The second aspect of this peace is that it rules our hearts. The peace of God should rule our hearts; not worries. God has given our hearts to be ruled by the peace that He has given to us. When the peace of God rules our hearts, we will be lovers of peace and peacemakers.

Colossians 3:15 “And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.”

The essence of the peace of God in us is that the peace makes us to be lovers of peace and peacemakers. That attitude also is a fruit of proof that we are God’s children.

Matthew 5:9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.”

The above scripture declares that blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. This implies if we don’t live for peace, we cannot claim to be God’s children. One of the effects of righteousness is peace and quietness.

Isaiah 32:17 “The work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever.”

A life of righteousness has its effect in peace and gentleness, in other words, self-control. In the Old Testament, there were fellowship offerings made voluntarily as a mark to celebrate harmony and communion with God. The bible calls it peace or fellowship offerings. This is a symbol that one is in harmony or communion with God. Peace is a virtue to show that one is in harmony with God. Under the New Testament, Jesus is our peace offering. That is why He is called the Prince of Peace. If the Prince of Peace is with us, we will have our peace. One of the things to guard your peace is that you must have self-control over your temperament in order not to break the law of the Spirit. It means being still even when there is a raging storm. Scripture records that when Jesus was arrested and confronted, He held His peace. In other words, He had control over situations and storms. Storms may rage but as a Spirit filled believer, you must exercise self-control. Jesus manifested that. Self-control will make you to give in to the right act of life. While Peter never had self-control over situations, Jesus had; he cut off a man's ear, Jesus healed it. It was the spirit of self-control that made Jesus to forgive those who hurt him. A man filled with peace can be proven by how that man manifests self-control when faced with raging storms. Abide in the Lord as His word abides in you and your peace will be kept.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for the gift of peace.
- 2- Lord help me to bear the fruits of patience and self-control.
- 3- Oh Lord don't take away my peace and joy of heart.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 3

LIVE FOR ETERNAL PURSUIT

Those that have had a glimpse of eternity will always long to live for it at all costs. The invisible things of God are clearly seen as written in the book of Romans and there is a call for everyone to turn to God.

Romans 1:20 “For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse.”

God has never lived without a witness; so, the witness of God is known to every generation. One of the reasons why God allows this to the knowing of men is for men to live for eternal pursuit. In the gospel of Luke 5, we are told of Peter’s encounter with the Lord. Those were the invisible things of God made known to men in that generation as God is still making it known to us. In Luke 5:2-11, we find the story of Peter’s encounter with divinity. Having toiled the whole night, he caught nothing. At the dawn of the day, the Lord met them and at the Lord's command, they had a miraculous catch that caused Peter and his companion to abandon all and follow the Lord. Peter left all to live for eternity. Eternal pursuit became the primary issue for the apostles. The manifestation of the acts of God in our midst is the number one reason why we should live in pursuit of eternal life.

If we look at the world, how temporal and vivid one passes through, there is a need for everyone to credit his or her life by receiving Christ who is the Author of life. The quest for transformation to gain eternal rest is paramount. Eternal pursuit will end one with eternal reward. Nothing brings joy to the heaven from the earth like men turning to God in repentance. In Luke 15:7, scripture says:

Luke 15:7 "I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance."

Repentance is what brings joy from earth to heaven because the act of repentance when kept and live by its fruits, it earns one eternal reward. This is the reward that Jesus told Martha; Mary has taken a path which no one can take from her. In as much as we need earthly commodities to fulfill our assignment on earth, these earthly commodities should not be the commanding factors of our lives, but eternal pursuit should be. The apostles once asked Jesus that we have left all and followed You, and they said what will be their reward? The Lord did not hesitate to give them a response to that question in

Mark 10:28-30 “Then Peter began to say to Him, see, we have left all and followed you. So Jesus answered and said, assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My sake and the gospel’s, who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time – houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions – and in the age to come, eternal life.”

From the above scripture we find Peter’s question and Jesus’ response. It goes in line with what Jesus told the children of Israel that He did not call them to seek Him in vain. Whatever you are doing for the Lord, there is a reward tagged to it. Whatever you are not doing because of the Lord, there is a reward tagged to it. At the end Jesus says in the age to come, eternal life. This is the life that Jesus told Martha in John 11:40 when she was carried with the affairs of this life at the expense of life eternal. Jesus rebuked Martha and applauded Mary that Mary has chosen a path which no one could take from her. If all about this life is about the world, then we are men most miserable. Our lives here on earth is too brief for one to make the earth his safe abode at the expense of eternal life. The servant of God said, if the living know what the dead know, then everyone will turn to God.

Where you make a boasting of now, somebody just exit out of that place. The success in life you are counting on now, somebody just left that success and is heading to eternity. What you may be joyful to get into, somebody is sorrowfully heading out from that thing. The greatest achievement in life is eternal life. We are not landlords; we are just caretakers. What you claim to be yours now, some years ago some people claimed to be theirs, today they are no more. Tomorrow you will also be no more but how do you face eternity? One day this body will grow old, if you don't make peace with the Author of eternity, where will you then spend it? Know that God has made all provisions for you to be saved. All that is needed from you is your faith in Christ Jesus; for whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life

Paul was so much indebted to eternal life when he said for him to live was Christ and to die was gain. He was joyous when he was to exit this world to embrace eternity. Make peace with God before it is too late. Turn to the Lord before it is too late. Serve the Lord now while it is day because tomorrow may be too late. Live for eternal pursuit. Men may mock you as Noah was being mocked in his days but today Noah is in the bosom of the Lord, but they are tormented. It is not the will of God that men should perish but that all should come to the Lord. There is a call for repentance today; return to the Lord, and the Lord will turn to you.

Hosea 14:2 "Take words with you, and return to the Lord. Say to Him take away all iniquity; receive us graciously, for we will offer the sacrifices of our lips.”

We should hold on to the word of life, be unshakeable, unmovable, stand firm and stand strong in the Lord. Devote your life to the Lord; give in to kingdom services, follow the Lord and serve Him with all your heart and with all your strength. The Lord Jesus says in the book of Revelation behold I come quickly and My reward is with Me to give to everyone as his works will be Revelation 22:12. As you live for eternal pursuit, you will never regret it, but you will live to thank God that you knew this truth in time and gave in to it.

My dear friend, if you just went through this lesson, I want to pray with you as I know you have made the decision for eternal life. Pray this prayer wholeheartedly with me:

Lord Jesus! Thank you for having taken my place on the Cross of Calvary. Thank you Lord for having risen for my justification. Lord, I open the door of my life to You. Lord, come into my heart and be my Lord and Saviour. Forgive me my sins and make me Your child O Lord. I believe in my heart, and I confess with my mouth that you are my Lord and personal Saviour. Thank you, Lord, for having forgiven me and made me your own child from today. I know I am saved; I am a child of God. Thank you, dear Lord, for saving me!

If you just prayed that prayer, I want to say beloved ones you are a child of God. You can call the numbers in the booklet for further directives, or you look for any bible believing church and start fellowshiping there. God bless you as you do!

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for your word.
- 2- Oh Lord let eternity matter in my life above any other thing.
- 3- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 4

PUT OFF THE ENEMY

The Lord Jesus made a declaration in scriptures in John 14:30 that:

John 14:30 “I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me.”

Jesus told the disciples that the prince of this world is coming but he has nothing in Him. The key to put off the enemy is not to have things in common with the devil. Looking at the human, the devil was the first creature to test what sin is and we all know that through the vices of sin, the devil will fulfill his evil intentions upon the lives of humans. To live a life where the devil will have nothing to exercise against you, you must walk out of the things that give the enemy grounds in your life. He is the first sinner; he has a mastery of sin and knows how sin is destructible.

No matter how sharp or smart you are, you can't outsmart a spirit being when you are held bound by things that satan is the master of. Whatever makes you have a meeting point with the devil, get it discarded and walk out of it. For as long as you mingle with the things that satan has as his own pattern of life, you will be enslaved and destroyed by the devil. But if you walk out of these things, you will put off the devil. Jesus put off the devil because He lived in the world and yet was without sin. In Isaiah 52:11 there is an instruction given to everyone that bears the vessel of the Lord and that instruction is to safeguard you from the trap and destruction of the wicked one. The scripture reads, Depart! Depart! Go out from there, touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her, be clean, you who bear the vessels of the Lord.

Holiness is a prerequisite to put the devil off your life and to suspend the agenda of the wicked from finding grounds in your life. If not of temptation that God permitted to meet Job, the devil would have had nothing to do with Job because he was a righteous man. His righteous living gave him a hedge of protection against all the vices of the devil. The resistances we go through in life most often are because our vessels are dirty. When Jesus was leaving, He prayed a prayer for the apostles and that prayer was to put the devil off their lives. In John 17:17 He prayed sanctify them by Your truth, Your word is Truth.

As long as the church of God stays sanctified, the enemy will not gain ground in our midst. We are washed or cleansed by the word of God. Our consciences are purged and cleansed by the word of God as we obey it.

1 Peter 1:22 “Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart.”

We are cleansed by obeying the word of God. Your obedience to the word of God is your cleansing detergent and you stay dirty too by disobeying the word of God. Once you are cleansed, you are pure before God by your obedience. Our consciences are purged from dead works by the atoning Blood of the Lamb. The bible tells us in the book of Titus 1:15a that to the pure all things are pure. Hebrews 9:14 tells us that how much more shall the Blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Once your conscience is purged from dead works, the word of God says your life dwells in God and the indwelling of your life in God makes you a mystery that the prince of this world – the devil can't understand. The book of 1 Corinthians 2:6-8 expresses the life Jesus lived that the prince of this world could not understand. It says none of the princes of this world knew it because the enemy had nothing in common with the Lord Jesus. As sons and daughters of God, we must live a life that must not give the enemy any foothold against us and God has given us the grace to live that life.

1 Corinthians 2:6-8 “However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.”

As the prince of darkness got nothing to do with Jesus, we should live a life that will have nothing to do with the devil and the mystery and reward of our lives will be made manifest for the glory of God. Light and darkness are not compatible just as righteousness and sin are not compatible. Righteousness lifts you up as a star to shine but sin brings you down and makes you a reproach. You can't be of the world while satan is the prince of this world and you do not fall under his spell. There is an attitude that is not godly and that attitude brings you under the prince of this world – the devil. Each time you disobey God's standard or God's word, you open the gate of your life for the prince of the power of the air, or the prince of this world to champion or master the affairs of your life. Ephesians 2:2 talks about the prince of the power of the air that walked in the lives of children of disobedience. That is why you will realise that some believers who served God well in time past, when they got to disobeying God's word, they are now seen as entities of wickedness for the spirit of darkness has made them so.

No man filled with the Spirit of God will be given to evil or betrayer. Simple disobedience opens the gates of your life for the devil to invade you, spoil you and destroy you. For the believers, the Bible declares to us in Hebrews 10:23 that we should hold fast the professing of our faith without wavering. We are born of God to live righteously. Put off the enemy by being established in righteousness for that is your portion.

Isaiah 54:14 “In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.”

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord purge my conscience from dead works.
- 2- Oh Lord establish me in righteousness.
- 3- Lord grant me grace to daily live for your good pleasure and will.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

THE FAMILY VALUE

The increase in population on earth is a bi-product of the family. The extension growth and technological advancement in our world today got its root from families. But when we look biblically, there are two grounds where God Himself stipulates about families. On biblical platform there is a family that eroded in God and another family that eroded within the framework of the flesh. One is stronger than the other. The family that gets its root in the Spirit, being governed by God's word and prescription has a stronger ground than the family gotten on the premise of biological laws. Jesus in scriptures declined from a biological family that did not adore God and identified with a spiritual family that came together because of the knowledge of God's word. This is because such family did not have an eternal future with God.

Luke 8:19-21 "Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd, and it was told Him by some, who said, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You. But He answered and said to them My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it.”

If we look at the above scriptures, both the family in the flesh and the family in the Spirit all rendered values. The value in our context talks about the growth and development that the families produce. One of the factors that make these families produce these values is built on the foundation of unity in purpose. The spiritual family born on God's word and the physical family born on the premise of the flesh, once they get united in purpose, they will render values. What may frustrate or render a family useless is when the family live in disunity. It will open doors for the enemy to ruin the values of that family. Most families are being ruined because they open the door of disunity that brought in confusion and division between members of the same family, be it the spiritual or physical family.

One of the tricks the enemy uses to break the family is our ego as members of the family to destroy the unit called the family; where, members of the family find themselves of value than other members of the same family. They do this by nursing the thought of “I can survive without you people”. The little members of the family you neglect, their simple counsel or advice will preserve you tomorrow. But the absence of that member that was given to you by God may lead to your ruin. In the passage we just read above, Jesus was ministering and His biological mother and brothers came requesting to see Him. The crowd drew His attention about the presence of His mother and brethren that were without desiring to see Him. It is important that we have a remark on Jesus’ response. In Luke 8:21, Jesus said My mother and brothers are these which hear the word of God and do it. In the absence of the word of God in a family, that family cannot extend itself to eternity as a family but the presence of the word of God in a family will extend that family to eternity. True values of a family that will span to eternity must be rooted in Christ, raised in Christ, built in Christ. Such a family is not just having a temporal effect of value that will rise like a vapour and disappear, but its worth will be eternal.

Abraham was a family man, but the family of Abraham did not just have existence on earth but also in eternity because that family was built in God. Abraham served God and ended with God; Isaac, Jacob and Moses all served God and ended with God. They are no more on earth, but they all have extensions into eternity.

We all belong to families here on earth and what we should ask ourselves is that shall these our families have extension to eternity? If they will, then glory to God but if they will not, we should reconsider our ways of life, knowing that we will not only be families here on earth but also in eternity, we shall still be families with Christ Jesus. It is only in Christ that our families can have an extension in eternity. As we gather and serve God together, the Lord being in our midst is the act that will give our families values and eternal reward. In Acts 4:32-35, this is a family that was being born on the ground of God's mission, God's word and there was a value that came out from that family that was birthed on God's word. This was called the family of believers. Are you a member of the family of believers? If you have not been, join today by receiving Christ Jesus into your lives.

Acts 4:32-35 “Now the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and one soul: neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold and laid them at the apostles’ feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need.”

The presence of God in the family governed by His word and His Spirit is overwhelming by overwhelming results. We can see the effect of the word of God that bind them together, great power was in their midst and there was massive supply of all that they needed. We can see that from the spiritual to the physical, all that they needed was met. This outstanding act was a sure prove of the substance of value at work in the midst of the brethren. If we will rise today in the unity of the faith, putting the Lord first in everything we say or do, we will be able to replicate the same results and much more. This oneness is well expressed in

Ephesians 4:1-6 “I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.”

Looking at the above scriptures, the virtue of a godly family standard is listed there. The vocation to live for the Lord is an attitude of humility, patience, bearing one another in love, making sure we live in unity and not in disunity. The body functions well as a united entity; for God is not divided. Unity is strength to the body. As we walk in the lamplight of these virtues, there is a power that will be ignited within us as we grow in this knowledge.

Ephesians 3:19-20 “To know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fulness of God. Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us.”

Our unity will bring us to where the Lord says whatever we shall agree on earth, the Lord will do it for us. This will be built on love and the Bible says love works no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is a fulfilment of the law Romans 13:10. As the family makes the Lord their portion, great will be the outcome of their values as written in Deuteronomy 32:9. For the Lord's portion is His people. Let us live in love for the family values to emerge in glory.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord make me a contributor to family values.
- 2- Lord equip me with wisdom for daily living.
- 3- Lord let your word be my guard.
- 4- Lord cause the family to emerge in values.
- 5- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

DAILY WATCH

Ephesians 5:15-16 “See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil.”

One of the things that have destroyed the lives or destinies of people who began well but never ended well is the inability to watch and pray; the inability to be vigilant and to be sober. The act to watch is to safeguard security and one of the highest things for humans to guard is not the outward security; it is to guard your thoughts. This is because your thoughts will precede your word and your actions. By your word you are justified and by your words you are condemned.

A man who can diligently watch over his thoughts and scrutinize them to make nothing evil to survive there, that man has preserved his life and frustrated satanic devices. More often we are overtaken by our thoughts and that ability to discern whether we should yield to those thoughts always come when we are already victimized by the actions sponsored by our thoughts. A man who can thoroughly screen his thoughts will walk like a wise man and not as a fool. But a man who gives in to every dictate of his thoughts, no matter the glorious plans he has, if he can't discipline that thought and buy the will of God against those thoughts, he may end up as a fool in regrets and pain. Scripture says redeeming the time for the days are evil. This is to make sure that what God committed to your trust from the day you met the Lord, let that thing not fall from your hands, let that conviction not leave you, let not that truth depart from you.

Whatever God's word had warned you not to do and you bought that conviction from the inception of your walk with God, make sure that conviction does not leave you. Many things that believers could not say or do yesterday, they are saying it and doing it today without any remorse. This is an indication that they have fallen from their first love for God. This moral decadence all began when we failed to watch as we were supposed to be watchful. We have found ourselves in many hurtful and regrettable acts because we did not watch and pray. The Lord says watch and pray so that you do not fall into temptation. The inability to watch will make us end up as victims.

Mark 14:38 “Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

The enemy does not relax to devour, and the devil sends his vices through the medium of our thoughts. That is why the instruction of God’s word, and the meditation on the word of God should preoccupy us so that the fiery darts of the wicked would have nowhere to survive in our lives. Proverb 4:23 says keep your heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life. We should watch daily, develop a consistent devotional life, meditating day and night on God’s word until a structure of scripture gets a hold of our being to govern the affairs of our lives. In Proverbs 8:33-34, scripture says hear instructions and be wise, and do not disdain it. He says blessed is the man that hears me, watching daily at My gates, waiting at the posts of My doors. Whatever you meditate on forms you, whatever you follow, you become.

In the early church, the apostles kept daily watch, they didn't stagger at this, they held fast to this vocation. They didn't give any chance for their lamps to grow dim. As a child of God, do not allow your burning light to go dim, do not allow your fire to go cold. You will maintain this fire by watching daily at the gate of the Lord. He says when you do that, you will find life and that life will grant you favour from the Lord. Kindle your fire in the place of prayers; kindle your fire with the meditation on God's word. That is how you will redeem the time. In Acts 3:1, scripture tells us that it was time for the apostles to go to the temple and watch and pray. The man at the Gate of Beautiful met them when their fire was on.

Acts 3:1 "Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour."

The apostles were going to watch and there they were able to meet with the demand on ground because their fire was burning. We find this consciousness with the apostles, either they were prayer, fasting or ministering the word. This attitude kept them alert and it was not possible for the enemy to rob them or devour them. The apostles again spoke explicitly of the importance of daily watch in Acts 6:3-4 “Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business; but we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

They said they would give themselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word. Their watchfulness was to create a defense against every perpetrator from the kingdom of darkness. As sons and daughters of God, we must walk in this lamplight in order to redeem our time for the days are evil. The church of God now has different versions, there is no uniformity in what we do as believers. We have different versions of believers as if we have different versions of God. We can see that there is a massive deterioration of God’s standard in the house of God today. Many believers are ashamed to talk as believers, dress like believers and even act as believers. The world is gradually transforming the church but there is a call in this season for the remnant to watch lest our lamps go off and the next generation may never know how to seek God and find God. Lack of consecration and dedication to God will kill our conviction and reverend for the things of God. Many of the things we are not doing today is not because we have the fear for God, we are afraid of what men will say. Seeking approval of men than seeking approval from God. It was not so with the apostles; they sought approval from God and not from men.

When men persuaded the apostles in Acts 5:29, Peter and the other apostles said they must obey God rather than men. It was dedication and watchfulness that brought this response. The things we did yesterday and were grieved does not grieve us today because we have failed to watch at the post of God's house. Let us watch and become that burning and shining light and be willing in all seasons to do the will of God. Let us get our loins binding with the truth like the scripture says the belt of truth should bind us and let our loins be girded about and our lights burning till the Master comes.

Luke 12:34-35 “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning.”

Meditate on God’s word, be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourself in Psalms and hymns, with spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord, giving thanks always for all things unto God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting yourself one to another in the fear of God. Keep watch on this word and the enemy’s plot will be far from you.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord endow me with the ability and grace to watch daily.
- 2- Lord empower my consecration.
- 3- Lord keep me away from all vices of corruption.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.
