NITOP IV

Praise the Lord! I am grateful to God for His hand of healing upon the life of my child who was involved in an accident and her legs were affected. She could not walk with the leg. When the “Manna Feast” was introduced to me, I used it to pray for the child and the next day the child could put the leg down to the glory of God. Now the leg is okay. Secondly, I am a trader and I went to the market one time and a woman complained to me that she and her husband were not sleeping well at night; they were always having attacks. So I introduced the booklet to them and after using it, they said they can now sleep well to the glory of God. Thank you Jesus!

Mama Immaculate:

Glory Hallelujah! I am grateful to God for fighting my battles. I was given a piece of land that had contention on it. I was farming the land until one day daddy was led to go and bury “Manna Feast” on the land. After that, a woman came and attacked me that I had buried medicine on the farmland and from that day, she had not showed up around the land again. I thank God for fighting my battles and for putting the enemy to flight. Praise God!

Mummy Deborah:

INTRODUCTION

Here comes another season with an opening for fortrance in the pathway of God's kingdom. In this season of Territorial Enlargement, there is a call for consciousness for kingdom citizens to finetune their minds and get themselves equipped with all it takes to gain territories for the Lord and for His glory. Having been called out as sons and daughters of God, responsibility and fulfillment of kingdom demands is what rates us as mature citizens of the kingdom. We will be applauded by the Lord as we fulfill what is entrusted to us daily within the years given to us to fulfill God's purpose for our lives and our generation.

Every God's given assignment can only be actualized with the involvement of God at every given interval of that assignment. The presence of God with us will determine how far we will go and how much we will be able to do in His name. As we all have obtained grace, let us walk worthy of the vocation, keeping in place what has been committed into our hands and making sure that nothing is added or subtracted to the standard we are expected to show forth the grace of God in all we do or say. It will take humility and obedience for us to maximize this season as prescribed by the Spirit of God.

We should not relent our efforts because our enlargement is going to give us honour and weapons of defense. It is going to give us meaning and of course vital meaning for our living as sons and daughters of God. Once more loved ones, you are welcome to the month of Territorial Enlargement as the Lord takes the lead and receives the glory in all we are going to fulfill in His name.

CHAPTER 1

GOD'S PRESENCE AND LEADING

Matthew 26:32 “But after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee.”

To understand God's presence and leading, it is important for the called out from the world to learn the process they must go through to be embodied with this presence and to be led by God. The day you confessed Jesus Christ into your life as your personal Lord and Saviour is the day you became born again. But it takes our obedience to the Word of God for us to be sanctified and to be filled with the Holy Spirit. The presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives enables God to accomplish the things He wants to accomplish through us. Looking at the above scripture, the Lord Jesus told the disciples that when He is risen from the dead, He will go before them. We all know that for Jesus to accomplish the divine mission of saving the world or mankind, He underwent the process of suffering and pain. This led to His death on the cross of Calvary, His burial and resurrection. It was in resurrection that we had justification from the Father to become children of God; not born of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God's will. The Bible tells us in John 1:12-13 that as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of man, but of God.

It takes a process of death and resurrection for one to fully get to that place where the Spirit of God takes control; because, the Holy Spirit is not a hostile spirit but a Gentle Spirit. If we are not sanctified, it means the sinful nature will still have dominion over us though we have confessed Jesus. We know that the Lord is the one that sanctifies us and the sanctification of God over our lives is continuous. The more we are sanctified, the more we get intimate with God in a more profound way. That intimacy brings us to a place where God can lead us in His pathway to be used as battle axes in His hand to take over the world for His purpose and glory. Some of the things we call delay in our walk with God is not actually delay. God is pruning us to have a nature that will match with His purpose for our lives. As long as you walk in the will of God (the will of God goes along with the life of God, and the life of God gives you the integrity of the kingdom that will earn you the dignity and honour of the kingdom) God's presence and leading with you is guaranteed. It is true the root of every divine agenda is in the spiritual, it may not be seen by the eyes of men; but it carries a witness of the Spirit of God within us. The fulfillment of that witness within us which is not seen is made visible for the outside world to behold it and also witness the tangibility of its manifestation. When we are well groomed, the presence of God with us and the leading of God in our daily walk with God, will order our steps with given instructions that must be followed in order for us to exercise victory in all the grounds of our enlargement of the territory we are called upon to win for the Lord.

Territorial enlargement does not have its inception in the gain of material things. It is geared towards winning the souls of men into the Kingdom of God by the preaching of the Gospel. True territories to be taken is winning souls for the kingdom and drawing men to Jesus. If Jesus is lifted in our hearts and our lives, men will be drawn to God through us. This is because until Jesus is lifted and glorified in our lives, we cannot be true carriers of the Good News of the kingdom. But if Jesus is lifted, if Jesus is glorified in our lives, we will be true agents of the Good News. Jesus tells us in the book of John that as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so too will the Son of Man be lifted and He says when He is lifted, He will draw men to Himself John 12:32.

John 3:14 “And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up.”

John 12:32 “And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself.”

In the John the Lord Jesus made mention of the serpent of brass that was lifted up in the wilderness in the book of Numbers. It takes the process of self-denial or being dead to self for God's presence and leading to champion over a vessel. You cannot fail or falter in life if you have been groomed to this point where the presence of God and the leading of God champions your life. Once God guarantees you His presence and His leading, know that you are going to run with speed in fulfilling God's purpose in their season. There are things that the enemy will never be able to do in your life as long as the presence of God and His leading champions your life; but the primary key is to give your all to the Lord. When we fail to walk within the prescription of God's word and commandment for our lives, the Adamic nature in us will stay uncircumcised. When the Adamic nature is not circumcised, the presence of God cannot fully go with us because the Adamic nature in us grieves the Spirit of God. So, in territorial Enlargement, the presence and leading of God is what we need at its peak. When we have a burden for God, He is committed to see that every word of God sent forth to our lives will be made manifest; for the Word of God is God Himself. Our dedication and consecration are vital for our sanctification. It is our responsibility to commit, dedicate and consecrate our lives to God and it is God's responsibility to cleanse us or sanctify us and make us ready vessels for the Master's use.

In John 17:17, God is the Sanctifier. In John 15:3, it is God that cleanses us with the Word of God; in Ephesians 5:26, scripture says that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word.

With the above work done in the church or the lives of individuals called out by God, divine presence will take the lead and divine leading will also give command. In Exodus 33:14, the Lord says My presence will go with you. Romans 8:31 says if God be for us, who can be against us? In Psalms 23:1, scripture says the Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want. Dwelling in the secret place of the Most High guarantees our sanctity. When we are sanctified, we dwell under the shadow of the Almighty; where there will be no hurt or harm to anyone as our walk with God is concerned. When the disciples were to take over territories for the Lord, the Lord told them His presence will be with them always to the ends of the earth. When Moses and the Israelites left Egypt and they were advancing into the Promised Land, it was His presence that gave Israel the victory and all the territories they got for an inheritance. In Joshua 1 when Moses had passed on to glory, the same word of divine presence was given to Joshua. In Joshua 1:3&5, God told Joshua that every place the sole of His feet shall tread upon shall be given to him for a possession. In Joshua 1:5, the Lord told Joshua that “No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Territories were gotten by Joshua by God’s presence and God’s leading with him. Today, our borders will also be enlarged because of God’s presence and God’s leading. As children of God, we are not permitted to fail as long as God’s presence and leading rule over our lives. We are going to win by the force of consecration that will bring us sanctification by the hands of God. Then we will grow in purpose and enlarge our borders as the Lord told the apostles to tarry in Jerusalem until they were endued with power from onhigh. Spend time with God and get filled with the Holy Spirit. You will fulfill the word of the month, the word of the season and the word of the hour; Territorial Enlargement.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord give me the ability to wait on you.
- 2- Oh Lord circumcise me and make me a vessel for the Master’s use.
- 3- Lord I receive grace to take over territories.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in Jesus name

CHAPTER 2

COMMITMENT FOR ADVANCEMENT

Proverbs 22:29 “Do you see a man who excels in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before unknown men.”

For visions or projects to meet demands at all times, such visions should be driven or actualized by men who possess an excellent spirit in doing what they have been called or sent to do. True growth with values that will advance one's life has to do with commitments in their seasons to get those dreams fulfilled. There are specific rules that one must lay hold on. What is the business that God has committed into your hands? You must identify that business and hold on to it in high esteem. If we diversify in what we are doing, we may not be able to attain the perfection that will make us outstanding. One of the things that will bring evidential progress is the aspect of commitment in the discipline that you have been called upon to actualize. The consciousness to excel in what have been committed into your trust to do is very important. Idleness will only make you useless at the end of the day.

In Matthew 25:14-30, we are told of the Parable of Talents. Jesus told His audience that the kingdom of God is like unto a man who was traveling to a far country and delivered to his servants his goods. The three of them received 5, 2 and 1 talent respectively. The two that were committed were able to advance in their master's business but for the one who became idle, there was no advancement in what was committed into his hands. He was not diligent at work.

There are factors that make people to be either committed or not to be committed in what has been trusted in their hands to do. Most people who are not committed are people who are self-centered. A self-centered man will not be committed in another man's business but a man who is not self-centered will be committed because he knows that the growth of the project handed to him will turn to his own growth and honour tomorrow. The bible says if you are not faithful in another man's business, you will never have access to true riches. Luke 16:12 says if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own? When values are defined, for the values to be alive and progressive, those in custody of the values must go for the provisions that will keep the values in health and working.

Everyone's honour is tied to the area of discipline committed into his hands. If you advance and do well in that which has been committed to you, it will turn to your honour but if you also fail to do well in that which is committed to you, it will turn to your shame. A good record recorded today will answer for you well in the days ahead; like was in the case of Mordecai when he saved the king's life. In the days ahead that record came alive and he was lifted to a prominent position in the kingdom. The project committed to your hands today that fails will answer bad or poor for you tomorrow. Therefore, the consciousness to be committed in order not to fail must be the driving force to all kingdom seekers knowing so well that time and season will not always be in our power. There are four factors we need to note in order to advance in our commitment because even if you are committed and you lack this focus, your end result will not be appreciated. But if you are able to master these four factors it will empower you to start well and end well.

The first thing we need to do well is the right content of our minds in what we are doing, we may term it attitude or character.

Secondly, we must mind the company we keep, whether the company is helping us to fan our dreams to flame or to quench the fire of our dream. There are people you identify with that their manner of life does not suit the purpose of your existence. If you don't detach yourself from such people, their company with you will only end up destroying your own life. You are either keeping company to excel in value or losing value. The word of God tells us in Proverbs 27:17 that iron sharpens iron. So, if you are iron and your companion is non-iron, it may not be profitable you. To advance, there are commitments you must put in place so that you don't suffer labour loss. Mind the company that you are merging together with. There is a company that only sharpens you for effectiveness, while there is another company that ruins your values. Therefore mind the company you keep.

The next point is persistence and consistency. You must be persistent and consistent in that pursuit as it is often said, you are what you consistently do. While you are consistent, you must also be persistent in order to break barriers that will always be there to resist you from emerging with your true values in life. The act of persistence and consistency is what scripture tells us to be courageous.

The next step for commitment for advancement is that you must possess an objective and appreciative attitude. You must be objective in your judgement and you must have an appreciative attitude. You must not relent your efforts in this dimension until your labour produces the results that meet up with your expectations.

Those that were able to carry these four factors, we were able to see how they advanced in life. They did not end up as mere men, they ended up as icons and figures to reckon with in their generation. When we look at their works today, there are things we can draw inspiration from them. They don't give up easily once the vision is well defined and brought to their notice.

Peter was called out by the Lord. In his commitment, he ended up gloriously. Elisha and Elijah were all called out by the Lord. In their commitment to the Lord, they were able to advance well in the path that they were called to fulfill in life. Today we remember and talk much about them because of the honour that their commitment brought to them. When you are partial in what you are doing you may end up being a victim of situations or a victim of stray arrows. But when you are sincere in what you are putting in, favour will call your name and honour will not detach from you; because in your commitment, your fruits will bear and they will speak. That enterprise that is within your power, with the knowledge of scripture, arise and let that thing bring out its best. Don't be weak handed in doing that which has been committed to you. Anyone you celebrate today for success whether in this world or the world to come, one thing they will tell you is that it was their determination that made them to crush the backbone of challenges. They didn't allow situations to thwart their visions; rather, their visions grew strong to thwart every situation that was sent to weary them.

Your willingness to go through is a major factor to your success. Work hard with the grace God has given to you to make sure that you make the best out of every opening that God has given to you. Always be focused on the goal set before you and the glory of that goal will energize strength within you not to faint as you walk through the final mark to obtain the crown. Your progressive result will be a tool of encouragement to make you tenacious; holding unto the promises of God and knowing the One whom you have believed – Christ Jesus, have not just set a task for you to go through; but in every step and every journey you are taking, the Lord is there with you to carry you through. Let your faith be in place at all times and you will be able to profess as Paul the Apostle did in

1 Corinthians 9:24-27 “Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it. And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown. Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.”

As you press on in advancing in kingdom pursuit, which will earn you a weight of eternal glory, you should be mindful not to be distracted by the temporal pleasure of the time which may tend to endanger your stance of righteousness in Christ Jesus. There are things you must miss in order to embrace the glory of God. Having an understanding of the mind of Christ that He had to go through what He went through for the redemption of mankind and to enter His glory, we too must be armed with the same mind. Let us walk as children of the day, not as children of the night; let us live as children of God, not as children of the world. Paul told the Philippians in Philippians 3:14 that they should press towards the mark for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. In Hebrews 12:2, for the joy of the kingdom glory that was set before Jesus, He despised shame and endured the cross. Loved ones, let our commitments bring to us a resounding reward from the Lord. We should not faint, we should not grow weary for God's grace is sufficient for us as the Lord told Paul, My strength is perfected in your weakness. What the Lord has committed into your hands, He will take you through for His glory. Grow in the knowledge of God, grow in your love for God, grow in your prayer life; grow in kingdom life, soul winning, grow in your sacrifices to advance the things of the kingdom. Be the reason why some body will know God better in this season. Keep pressing on until you enter the perfect days; You will enter your rest as a son and as a daughter for the glory of God

PRAYERS

- 1- Father endow me with grace for kingdom advancement.
- 2- Lord keep me faraway from weariness that may bring reproach to my life.
- 3- Lord help me to stay focused till the end.
- 4- Thank you father for the answers in Jesus name.

VALUE AND INVESTMENT

Psalm 126:5-6 “Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.”

The weight of the future tomorrow will be defined or determined by what we are doing with the value that we have at hand today. The strength for enlargement is tied to values entrusted to us and how we invest those values. The aspect of expansion or enlargement has to do with credible investment. For values to gain its worth in a greater weight in the days ahead, we must learn how to take those values into new territories and invest them. Most often we have the wrong mindset in taking territories, taking over lands or gaining power into places. It is your investment in a place that will speak for you; same as it is your investment in the lives of men that will speak for you. No one will be rewarded in life for what they did for themselves but you will be rewarded in life for what you did in the lives of others for them to become better. The above scripture says those who sow in tears shall reap in Joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Investment may span from the material to the immaterial substances. Africans are where they are today because the Europeans came here as disguise as explorers meanwhile there were investors. What they planted in us, we are still paying till today. If we also rise as investors to make sure that whatever we have been exposed to will make them better, whatever, God has committed into our hands will make them better, be it human or material structures; then we must learn to improve them. As we improve them, our status will also improve. Anybody who is self-centered will never be an agent for global impact. Your legacy will be defined by what you have done with what God gave you. The Lord Jesus says he who stores riches for himself is not rich towards God. True values only survive with those who have good minds. When your life is centered only around your person and you try to extort from men to survive, your future will not span into glory. The goods that God has entrusted into your hands, use the goods to impact lives for the glory of God; for that is the reward you will take out of this life. We are told of the story of the rich fool in Luke 12:16-21 “Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: the ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. And he thought within himself, saying, what shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops? So he said, I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. And I will say to my soul, soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry. But God said to him, fool! This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided? So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

Looking at the above scripture you'll realize that this man's investments was only for himself. As a result, it could not span into glory or have eternal weight of honour. Rather, his life was short-lived because he did not look at how he was to use what he had to impact lives. This man became a victim of greed but values are given to invest into lives of men and to invest in systems that will better the lives of human beings. The days of investment are always painful but the harvest of the investment is glorious. Whatever value you have, be it physical or spiritual, get proper knowledge to invest that value well and it will work for you a weight of glory in the days ahead. Ecclesiastes 11:1 says cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days. Don't allow any value within your power to stay dormant. Take a survey of the values within you; it may be talents, it may be academic values, it may be economic, social and spiritual values; look for good grounds and invest those values in, and you will never regret it. Cultivate a good heart towards humanity and towards your life. Be the reason why somebody will become something worthwhile. Meditate on the good of people and not their shortcomings. Work with wisdom towards their shortcomings but learn to embrace the good part of their lives and work on them for their good, and this will make our society a better place to live in.

In Shunem in the book of 2 Kings 4:8-11, the Shunamite woman perceived that Elisha was a holy man of God

2 Kings 4:8-11 “Now it happened one day that Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a notable woman, and she persuaded him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat some food. And she said to her husband, look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly. Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there. And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.”

The above scripture cited that the woman of Shunem had a perception that Elisha was a man of God. She had value within her reach and she invested that value in the life of Elisha. The value she invested in return played a role in her life that changed her status and brought contribution to her downline. In the same manner, you must be able to discover what you have within your reach as your immediate resources, look for a proper ground and invest them there. That will give you extension for a future hope. Her perception did not fail her, it brought her proper joy for her extension. Territories will submit to us depending on what we have invested in those territories. We cannot expect fruits from grounds we have not sown in. We cannot expect fruits from the kingdom of God that we have not laboured for.

In the days of need, what was within the reach of Elisha he also invested in her family and that gave her a future hope. As earlier said, in all the areas where you are given power, arise and invest. Don't allow values to stay dormant in your hands and in your power. Invest in places, invest in people's lives, invest in different grounds and invest wisely. Both spiritually and physically, invest. Invest in intercession, in evangelism, in follow up, invest. Let the land feel the impact of your investment; let the people feel the impact of your investment for that will become your legacy. What your seed cannot do for you, when you invest it, it's fruits will do what the seed could not do for you. It is your seed invested that will bring fruits that will bless your life. If you have not invested any seed anywhere, don't expect any fruits to come. Many of us are living fruitless lives because in seed time we did not sow. Today we expect fruits from where we did not sow seeds. When you invest with a good heart and a good mind, the Lord will be the One to reward you in the days of harvest. In the kingdom you can invest in the North and your harvest comes from the South, you can invest in the East and your harvest comes from the west; but you can never go unrewarded. In scriptures, Joseph laboured in the prison but his harvest came from the palace. Give in to divine leading and invest values.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord help me to invest in the right season.
- 2- Lord give me the strength and the mind of an investor of values.
- 3- Oh Lord watch over me and direct my steps as I face each day.
- 4- Thank you Father for the answers in Jesus name.

COMPANIONSHIP IN PURPOSE

Men cling together because of a common goal that gives reflection to the reasons that tie to their living. Each time men come together, what can keep that union thriving is the purpose that is made known to them. In the beginning when man was created, a purpose was spelt for his creation. When the male and female came together, the scripture tells us what their coming together was to fulfill. So, any union or relationship that does not hold on to the purpose of your existence is not worth living for. Every true purpose becomes an agent of change that creates impact in the lives of men positively wherewith such effect of their purpose always stay in demand by men. When Jesus called the apostles and sent them out two by two, He tagged a purpose for their pairing. When Adam and Eve lived as husband and wife, a purpose was tagged to their union. Even in the circular world, the thriving force for the continuation of any union is the strength or the impact of the purpose that their union is able to produce.

Man was created on purpose, God called men to Himself on purpose. God sent men on purpose and He kept men on earth for a purpose. The value of anything or person is tied to the purpose that the individual or thing is able to express. Every true companion then should be a companion to get a purpose or a dream fulfilled. What some of us may call dreams, you need to ask yourself; this thing I call dream, is it worth it? Or I am just trying to cover up a space and get time consumed without any credible effect. One of the essentials of companions is to give life its worth here on earth and eternity in the future. If you are into any companionship where your benefit is just earthly, you are of all men most miserable. The apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 15:13-19 when he was talking about resurrection from the death, he said if all about life was about the temporal things we find ourselves into, then we are of all men most miserable.

The apostle in these scriptures was pointing to us the essence of life. He said while we strive on earth, we should strive for eternal life. The first thing we need to guard in any companionship we have is to ask whether this companionship can guarantee our eternal walk with God. If we are into any companionship that does not guarantee our eternal rest with our Creator, but rather jeopardize it; we should quit such company because life does not consist of the abundance of things one possesses on this earth. Because those who had earthly possessions yesterday or hundred years ago, they are no more together with those earthly possessions. But those who were in touch with earthly possession but did not endanger their salvation or eternal life, they are rejoicing today. The company you are into, does it safeguard your salvation or you mortgage your salvation to maintain companionship that time will take it off one day? The topmost vital thing for companions is life. The first thing is eternal life and the second point about life is the wellbeing of your body and your mind. If these three factors are in their health, then all other things can then be added. Keep the faith in order to secure your salvation because if you don't keep the faith, then you will lose your salvation because it is your faith in the Lord that guarantees your salvation and it is your faith in God that also license your love for God. The bible says he that believes has passed from death onto life but he that does not believe is already condemned.

When your walk of faith is alright and is intact, other things can come in. What are the visible things you can work on in order to create an impact for the glory of God? You should be conscious that you should not keep any companion that will not be fruitful for the glory of God. Don't be in the company of sinners. Sinners of all types, you are not their enemy; but they are not your companion, for light and darkness have nothing in common. They are two separate entities. You must not allow the counsel of sinners to champion in your life because their counsel will only lead you to your doom. They cannot safeguard or keep you with a future that will bring an honour before God and before men. Go after a godly companionship. In Psalm 1, the bible tells us what to keep Psalm 1:1-5 “Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper. The ungodly are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.”

If you are born of God, you must not keep company with people and things that are not born of God especially with things that do not pertain to life and godliness. When you are born of God, you cannot have companion with an unbeliever. You may have business dealings with them it's okay but to be companions with them will be a problem. In the book of Amos 3:3, scripture says can two walk together unless they agree? The agreement of two persons should be tied to their purpose. You may have business purpose with unbelievers, that's alright but to have spiritual purpose with unbelievers is out of place. You may have business partners that are unbelievers, that's alright or other circular things in life with people who are not worshippers, but let your light so shine that it can convert them also to become children of God. Being conscious of your purpose will help you not to live a wasted life because every true purpose in life is attached to a timing. Time is credible and meaningful in life when purposes are attached to timing. Our union should be able to blend us with purpose that will speak praise and sharpen our destiny to render the best of its strength and values.

If you are into any union or fellowship or relationship that is not binding on purpose, it means you are misusing the gift of time and the gift of life. Two factors define true relationship; values within the confine of purpose and mutual respect to members of that fellowship. In the scripture, the apostle Paul in most of his outreaches, you will always find him defining why he was in such and such and such a fellowship. You will find him addressing the Corinthians and telling them what he was able to accomplish when he was with them. With those in Philippi, Laodicea, Colosse, he will tell them this is what I wanted to do or this is what I accomplished and so on. What are the accomplishments that you have had as pertains to life? You don't live by chance, you plan, you set goals and the vision you have, you need to rise and walk towards that vision until it becomes material. Let our companionship be purposeful. Let our togetherness be purposeful. Let the impact of our companionship keep increasing, keep making waves. As we live and sharpen ourselves together, we will always remain sharpened and our uprising and fellowships should be praiseworthy that the heavens will be happy with our companionship. For that to happen, Jesus Christ must be at the center of it. The godly life must thrive in our midst for that will lead to our salvation and preservation. For no reason should we compromise our stance for God for temporal pleasure.

Let us hold on to the faith till the end and let us walk in the lamplight of God's word; maintaining a stance with our love for God and love for the brethren, maintaining kindness in humanity. Jesus being our message will be able to take the impact of our fellowship to take over our world for the Lord. As we grow in this, let the fruits of our fellowship keep growing as we keep fanning it to flame for the glory of God. Let our inspiration bring hope to our dying world by expressing the excellency of God from the spiritual to the physical. Let it reflect the humour of the kingdom of God in words and in action. The Lord will take delight as He took delight when Job was able to create impact in his world not just in words but in action. As we possess a good mind for increase and invasion in the will of God and for the glory of God, the Lord will empower us to get all these fulfilled for His glory.

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord help me to walk in the lamplight of the companionship you brought me into.
- 2- Lord help me to be a contributor to inflame purpose for your glory.
- 3- Lord inspire me to do well in all disciplines you have endowed me for.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 5

DOORS OF HONOUR

Revelation 3:8 “I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name.”

Doors of honour are liftings by the hands of God. Our walk with God is the walk of honour when we do it faithfully with a righteous life; answering yes at the command and the will of God. True lifting in life is sponsored by God taking commitment over His children and over His church. When God be the Lord of your life, and you walk in His precepts day and night, there is no way that you will not be remembered one day for the doors of honour to be opened for you. It is like God will tell Jeremiah to tell the children of Judah that He knows the thoughts He thinks towards them, thoughts of peace and not of evil.

As a child of God, as you faithfully serve God, may you not lose heart, may you not grow weary; remain steadfast in the work of God knowing that God who has began a good work in your life will take it to completion. There is a comfort of the saints that God has designed from the foundation of the world. That comfort that comes is a place of life where we find satisfaction and peace which only God can give us.

From creation, it has been the commitment of God to cause His offspring; those who are called by His name and those who walk in His precepts for doors of honour to open for them. It is just like the book of Proverbs says those who are called by God walk in the lamplight of God and they are called righteous. It also says righteousness exalts a nation. So, your life with God is a life of honour and lifting. All is that when you seem not to understand what you ought to understand, you just need to say the one who made me understands and because He understands, I will rise in honour for His glory.

As you journey with God, your faithfulness will be lifting you from one level of glory to another level of glory. In Psalm 113:7-9 the word of God says He raised up the poor out of the dust and lifted the needy out of the dunghill that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people. He makes the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children; praise the Lord. In the churches in Asia Minor, God spoke explicitly to the church in Philadelphia that when He opens no man can shut and when He shuts no man can open. The Lord says He knows their works and because of their works and labour of faith, the Lord says He has open a door for them that no man will be able to shut the door because with the little strength, they have kept His word and have not denied His name. Rev 3:7-8

Irrespective of all the distractions in life that the devil may approach you with, keep your faith, walk in the lamplight of God's word, maintain your status as a true son and daughter of God's kingdom. Don't go after them that break the word of God and defile themselves. Keep the integrity of your person and in your season as this word is coming to you, God Himself will open doors of honour for you. When the Apostles walked in the commandments that the Lord Jesus Christ passed onto them, doors of honour were opened before them. The legacy of those doors are still speaking till today and will speak forever. Live a life in the house of God as that vessel that you purge yourself and make yourself ready for the Master's use and the Lord will exalt His name upon your life. The trials that may come your way at particular seasons is a sign that God takes delight in you. When the Father took delight in the Son Jesus, he was tempted but in the midst of that temptation, God was with Him. Because God was with Him, He only emerged in glory and honour. In Deuteronomy 4:31, the word of God says the Lord your God is a merciful God. He will not forsake you, neither destroy you nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore unto them. God is a Covenant keeping God. God will not fail you and because God will not fail you, you will not fail. Keep the faith, walk with the integrity of life for the glory of God. Whatever thing you have gone through in your journey with the Lord that has caused men to look at you as forsaken, God Himself will glorify His name in your life. Once upon a time in Joseph's life, it appeared to the observation of people like Joseph was forsaken but he was not forsaken. When his season of honour came, God remembered him. You are God's delight; have that in mind, you are His delight. At one time in Jesus' life on earth, He was looked upon as He was forsaken when Christ cried on the Cross; "My God! My God! Why have you forsaken Me?" He was not actually forsaken; He was just in the process for God to open a wider door of glory for Him. You may appear in the flesh as being forsaken but spiritually, that's the ground where God has prepared for your honour.

In Isaiah 62:4, the Bible says you shall no longer be termed forsaken, nor shall your land anymore be termed desolate. You shall be called Hephzibah and your land Beulah; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. The Bible concludes that we should walk in contentment, that we should look at the birds of the air and the flowers of the field. They don't sow nor reap into barns. But if God so clothes the birds of the air and takes care of them, then we are more valuable to God than the sparrows. The bible gives this conclusion in 1 Timothy 6:6 about contentment. The bible says godliness with contentment is great gain. When you are contented in life, you will shut many doors of temptation from the wicked one for Jesus says a man's life does not consist of the abundance of things he possesses. Hebrews 13:5 says let your conversation be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Rejoice and I say rejoice! For the door of honour of your life will be opened and it is all in the making of the Almighty God. Live each day for His glory and fan to flames your walk with God. As you wait upon the Lord daily, He will cause His face to shine upon you. Shame and reproach will not be your portion for the light of His presence will bring to you all that He has prepared for you. Daily watch at the post of God's house which house and building you are. The Lord will honour you and glorify His name upon your life.

PRAYERS

- 1- Oh Lord thank you for your goodness shown upon my life.
- 2- Lord I receive your word with thanksgiving and gratitude of mind.
- 3- Lord thank you for remembering and bringing me to the place of honour.
- 4- Receive the glory and honour Lord in Jesus name.

CHAPTER 6

STAY HUMBLE

Colossians 3:12 “Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering;”

Humility is the virtue that attracts help from authorities to work in the lives of individuals. Humility also attracts God’s attention for perfection and preservation over those that humble themselves. For us to be true vessels that will be overwhelmed with mercy and favour from God, we must walk in humility. Walking in humility goes with the effect of living a life in the Spirit. If we live a life in the spirit, we will bear the fruit of the Spirit. He who is humble will have mercy and show mercy on people that have offended or hurt him. But a proud man does not show mercy. Moses was humble to the extent that when God was angry with Israel and wanted to eliminate a whole nation, Moses pleaded on God for their preservation. Showing mercy to people reflects the love of God upon His people. Joseph showed mercy to his brothers even when they sold him as an article. When his brethren came to buy corn in Egypt, he recognized them, but they could not recognize him as Joseph. Joseph showed them mercy because he never took revenge; rather, he gave them all they needed for their journey.

Humility gives you a walk with God to attract divine attention, and it also gives you a mind to bear with people, to show mercy to people. You are able to bear with one another, you are not easily taken by offence, but you always make sure what God wants is done as He wants it. In Colossians 3:13, the bible says if we walk in humility, we will forgive one another. And that if anyone has a quarrel with another, as Christ has forgiven you, you ought also to forgive one another. Verse 14 says above all put on charity which is the bond of perfection. The bible says love is a bond of perfection (brotherly love). The enemy will not have an opening in our midst if our love for one another is strong and bonded in the Lord. The Lord says love produces a bond of perfection. When we get to that perfect man, the peace of God will rule our lives, and we will live a thankful life unto the glory of God.

Men that are humble find out the will of God, yield their lives to it and follow. Humility is not weakness; it is God's strength with those that are humble. As we walk in humility, it will be difficult for the devil to gain access into our lives. When we are humble, the Lord steps in to exalt us. When people live in in strife and in bitterness among themselves, those manifestations show that we are not humble. In Philippians 2:2-11, scripture says fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others. Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

As we humble ourselves, we will have access to the peace of God and live in peace with God. Of course, the joy of the Lord will be ours from the Lord. Just as it was with the Lord Jesus our role model, He is in the joy of His Father, forever exalted because He was of a humble mind. In Matthew 11:29, the Lord commanded us to take His yoke upon us and learn of Him for He is weak and lowly in spirit, and we will find rest for our souls. Humility gives us access to the rest of God. A humble man is not given to bitterness and anger. He is a man who can easily be entreated. He does not use his ability to challenge or oppress people; rather, he uses his ability to serve people and to make them better. He rejoices with them that rejoice and mourns with them that mourn. He values people's strength than their weaknesses. He stands by the weak until they become strong. He is not given to vain glory, but he walks in lowliness of heart. It takes humility for one to maximize the grace of God in his life; for God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.

James 4:6 "But He gives more grace. Therefore, He says: God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

Whatever lifting God has given to you, remain humble so that you may remain lifted by the hands of God. Don't become haughty or proud when God has honoured you. Don't even become arrogant to those who are still in the process of their lifting in the hands of God but be an instrument of encouragement to them. In humility you will become that trusted vessel that God will always take delight in. Be humble and stay humble, by so doing, you will be made great and you will maintain greatness in the sight of God. When Lucifer was lifted, he did not stay humble, he became arrogant, he became proud and his pride led to his downfall. Be humble! Walk in humility and the grace of God will abound upon your life. Learn to know that it has been God and not you and it will always be God and not you. God will be lifting and keeping you from every fall and trial that the devil will bring your way as James 4:6 says He gives grace to the humble but resists the proud. Stay humble! God bless you!

PRAYERS

- 1- Lord thank you for showing me mercy.
- 2- Lord I receive grace to maintain the attitude of humility.
- 3- Lord in my lifting and honour, let me see you and not myself.
- 4- Thank you Lord for the answers in Jesus name.
